to the public and would probably be members of a Provincial Government in Ireland. If they could carry their theories and establish an Irish Republic, holding such conflicting opinions as to the rights of nations and communities to govern themselves.

The Brothers of St. Patrick are showing some signs of life. Yesterday being the anniversary of the death of St. Patrick, about 1,000 of the members marched to Glasnevin in military array, keeping line and step, it is said, as well as any of Her Majesty's regiments, and marshalled by regimental officers. They honoured the memory of their hero in French fashion, carrying his tomb with great and solemnity. They also left behind some symbols of the great purpose of their organization, in the shape of a pipe traced upon the tombstone in small coloured pebbles, with the harp and shamrock in the same fanciful material. They returned to town in martial order without any opposition from the authorities.

A meeting, presided over by the Earl of Dunborough, was held in Carleton Place, on Saturday, for the purpose of taking steps to extend the importance of this branch of industry was strongly urged by Mr. Macdonald, and it was agreed that a company should be formed with a capital of £10,000, to provide Scotch mills, and other machinery, for the farmers. About half the required sum was subscribed before the meeting separated.

TELEGRAPHIC FACT.—The Emperor's speech on the opening of the Session consisted of 4,000 words. The transmission by telegraph from the central station in Paris commenced as soon as it was ascertained that the reading had been completed, which was at about half past 1. The average time occupied in the transmission to the principal cities of France and Europe was respectively: Lyons, 15 minutes; Athens, and Lisbon, 20 minutes. The speech was received everywhere before the evening, and the journals of the whole of Europe produced it on the following morning, the same as those of Paris. GALVANIUM.

THE FROST AND MURDER DANCE.—From time to time our flocks have been reduced in value by attacks of this prevailing epidemic which for some days prevents the animals manifesting any food, and for a longer period impedes the sheep's movement. The most casual observer must have noticed, especially since All-Hallow Fair, in the whole of this city, that the sheep have been lying about in pain, feeding on their knees, and waiting in condition. Last year our attention was drawn to the fact of many flocks in East Lothian, where the condition of those now affected, but the disease did not spread beyond the farms where hogs were purchased to feed on turnips. This year, unfortunately, some of our sheep-breeding districts where fresh stock has been brought in are suffering; and we can especially allude to some parts of Peebles shire, New Edinburgh, where the number of flocks under our charge—who have witnessed the best effects from a timely attention to as to check the severity of the disease and enable the animals to stand with tolerable ease on their sore feet. In the first place, it is useless placing sheep thus affected on turnips which they cannot possibly mow. It is best to keep them where they can pick a little sweet grass and if they can be made to take any soft food it will not do them harm, though for the first two or three days of the disease, any food is considerable pain and fever, food is not dissatisfying. Many of the animals are greatly benefited by a mild purge or a dose of two of common liniment in water, or in a little honey. Mild astringent lotions can be used for the mouth and feet, and so far as the latter are concerned, the careful attention of the shepherd, and, when possible, of a veterinarian, is much required. We have to caution shepherds against putting too much liniment on animals severely lame and permanently injured by the tips of their toes being cut off, and in some instances we have seen sheep thus mangled bleed severely for twenty-four hours, weakening their strength, and greatly retarding recovery. Proper tending of the feet is much required, but every care should be exercised so as to leave an animal with a little bearing surface to touch the ground, in many instances the hoofs are thrown off in some cases entirely, and in others partially. Sheep are found to be very lame when new hoofs are forming beneath old ones which are not properly cast, and it is a rule that when any considerable portion of horn is detached it must be cut away. If this is not done, the water and mud will accumulate in the recesses so as to soften and destroy the newly forming horn, and the foundation is thus laid for a peculiar lameness, due to the feet of sheep there is almost invariably much lameness manifested. The knives used are usually ill adapted for the purpose, and rarely sharp. The horn is cut into deeply, the toes are much shortened, and it sometimes takes three months before a sheep can walk on staid with comfort. On the hills, where the hoof is usually kept hard and worn, the cut is not much necessary for purging sheep's feet but on lowland and, especially in the case of the Scotch sheep, the feet of the sheep overlap, the distention of the foot is great, and the animal cannot implant it fairly on the ground. Scottish Farmer.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Produce.—Our readers can form an idea of the amount of produce arriving from the camp, by perusing the following list, which contains the arrivals for Thursday and Friday:—Cattle, 2772; horses, 229; calves, 354; sheepskins, 1012; do. pigskins, 61 do.; wool, 24,787 arrobes; horsehair, 200 do.; mares' grease, 307 do.; feathers, 203 do.; wheat, 681 fowls; maize, 74 do.; broad, 40 cartloads; onions, 4,400 strings; lambkins, 130; do.; straw, 3,000 bundles;—

Widow's Requiem.—The freight which was retained in the pockets of arms on the 12th, in front of the fort, was so great that, in his flight, he did not stay till he had passed into Entre Rios, he is now lying very unwell in Concordia.

Puppet Show.—We see by one of the native papers that an exhibition of puppets will take place to-night. The house was partly consumed by a fire of fireworks, and the company of amusements, bear or jackass to climb a ladder is all that is wanted to fill their cup of happiness. But patience! we may yet see him in the streets like a boy of our youth "twopence more and up goes the dandy."

FIRE.—On the 19th instant, at 2 a.m., the house of Madame Pelice Cosvair, in San Fernando, took fire, in which were destroyed all her furniture and stock of goods, (wines, &c.), but, thanks to the exertions of her neighbours, her children were saved. The "Progres" recommends to the kindness and charity of the French residents in B. Ayres this poor widow who is now left destitute, with five small children.

The Brothers Duhal.—On Thursday evening those aerobats gave a performance in the Colon Theatre. The house was full, there being upwards of 1200 people present. Some of the feats of the Lees, say that the Duhalis are superior to them. But it is my duty to state that the present company fully deserve the patronage of those who take delight in seeing dangerous feats of strength and dexterity.

A Difficultly.—According to news from the other side, the Argentine Government has demanded the dismissal of Don Servando Gomez, on account of abuses committed by him on Italian subjects. Foreigners in the Banda Oriental seem to be at present in that unfavorable position generally designated as being between the devil and the deep sea.

Expected Fight.—The two opposing forces, on the other side, are expected soon to be engaged. Flores has, so says Rumor, (but she is generally a liar) 4,000 veterans, whilst Servando Gomez has only one small piece of artillery. His right is might, but this is a fearful long odds, which he is likely to secure certainly. To quote Napoleon the Great (slightly altered) Right is generally on the side of the best served artillery.

Marin Garcia.—A passenger, come from there, reports that the fortifications are being proceeded with rapidly. The battalion No 2 of the line are engaged upon the works. Some Marin Garcia, in Argentine, for his hope, was as impracticable as Gibraltar or Sebastopol.

Futur Curiosity.—The late Dean of St. Patrick's suggested that he could collect a crowd to look at nothing, by simply walking up and down in front of his church, watch in hand, and looking up at the steeple, and was his viceroy. Had the takers of the bet been in B. Ayres they would have known more of human nature, and kept their money in their pockets, for nothing is more common to see groups of people on the public bonfire engaged in that pleasing and edifying pursuit.

A few nights ago a young man, whilst bathing, happened to attract the attention of some swimmers by swimming to an unusual distance from the mole—being a free exhibition, the youngsters enjoyed the spectacle mightily, and as in duty bound, applauded his performance. One or two oldsters stopped to look, and gradually, one by one, a crowd of about twenty persons had assembled; and with the exception of the small boys no one knew what they were looking at. We heard (for we too were amongst the gazers) an enquiry made of the fathers, as to what was the matter? Why, for the boys by this time had retired, and we followed their example. Will it be believed, but it is a fact, that fully an hour after the time when the swimmer had retired to his home in Barracas, a still greater crowd was still standing there. The boys must have been descendants of the Titans, for they are at present in prison, on account of their revolutionary proclivities.

Good Haters.—Dr. Johnson said that he liked a "good hater." Had he been in Guayaquil he would have met many objects of admiration. The editor of the "Guayaquil," speaking of the dislike entertained by the Potroto military to General Urquiza, says, "Such is their hatred that they would pursue him with oilum unto the grave, and even to the place where his soul is placed after death." After this who says there is no enmity in the Irishman's enthusiastic cheer of "O'Connell for ever—two days longer!"

Peay Brothers.—Since the abandonment of this place by the seven men left there by Urquiza, there has been no sign of their return. It is likely to be occupied by the Blancos.

Payandú.—A vessel cleared out yesterday for this thriving port with 100 empty pigs, supposed to be for the new residents, which Flores is erecting.

Dr. Terri.—Government has appointed this gentleman surgeon-in-chief to the naval hospital.

Things not generally understood.—The leaders of the "Tribuna," the great deeds done at— the colour of the "crusades" and the ideas of the commandants of artillery—a woman's heart and a cat's eyes—the cause and value of what a "cronista" says a husband's value for his wife, that is, if he loves her—and the money he would give to get rid of her, if he hated her—and, lastly, ideas and love.

Still on the "qui vive."—Passengers arrived yesterday from Paysandú state that the vanguards of the two armies had been skirmishing, and that a general battle was almost inevitable. To-morrow we should hear something definite.

ON CHANGE.—Since the change in the quotations from ounces to patacones, there has not been so much business done in specie. Over twenty thousand ounces were sold, of which twelve thousand were for cash. The brokers assumed their wonted joviality; business was brisk again.

The agents of the Boca Railway, we hear, are negotiating with the owners of the land. In exchange we notice over 24,000 passed to-day: the rate was 61s. 6d. For the Buenos capital to-day, 38 35, and closed at 38 50. 300,916 was, were sold for cash. Total sold 322,418. We understand that the River Plate Bank has the agency of the monetary affairs of the great Southern Railway.

English-German School.
CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS. Don P. PONGERARD, of the London Victoria College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education is combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind. An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English-German School comprise: English, French and Spanish, Languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Illustration. Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English-German School, in one of the most delightful Quarters of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.

For particulars apply to the proprietors at the Standard Office, Calle Belgrano, No. 18 x.
