Sowing Machines.

The largest assystment in town, for the use of private Families, Unifors, Subcreakers, Stellers &C. There Statchines are manufactured under the states points and super into any others. One of their special merits consists in their generic varieties. This improvement is very important, as it is notoriest tools upon a standard, whether, and Co.'s occlusive, expectably those for manufacturing jumpores, are insufferable on account of the great noise. Mostelers Machines work very coay, and consequently are of much more disrassion than the control of the con
