Great and Useful Invention.
No more Mortality for want of Water.
Sure wealth to Estancieros.
By the Robert Apparatus.
Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the long (seca) that afflict the camps of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to devote to the Estancieros an Apparatus at once simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require.
120 Bordeaux per hour (it seems fabulous) is procured with my apparatus, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.
This machine is worked by one horse and in one day's work can give 4 Bordeaux, 1/2 to 3 to eat, sufficient water for 20, 30 head of cattle.
By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.
Another advantage is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to be able to transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it either for watering purposes or others.
GREAT MODIFICATION.
I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system which reduces the necessary force two thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.
Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, No. 346 (Henerada, Paris).
One sole inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other.

FRIGHTFUL MURDER.

$20,000 REWARD FOR THE APPREHENSION OF THE ASSASSIN.

The following lamentable account of the murder of an Irishman in the parish of Navarre, we have just received. The letter needs little comment from us as it speaks for itself. We earnestly hope that some foreigners will translate it, and read it to Gov. Navarro and his rather celebrated Minister Acosta. Heaven grant that the rulers in these countries will take heed in time of what we say, and exert themselves more to protect the lives of honest and industrious people, for murder is greatly on the increase, owing to the scandalous impunity for crime which at present, we regret to say, exists both in town and country.

Estancia del Drazano,
To the Editors of 'The Standard,'
Gentlemen,

A frightful murder has been committed on my estancia, in Navarre. The victim is a young man, named William Nannery. He was seen on the morning of the 17th (St. Patrick's Day), about ten o'clock, in the camp, with his sheep, and about eight p.m. was found by a peon of his uncle, with his throat cut in a shocking manner, in his house, with the door locked. The key was found near the well, where it is supposed the murderer dropped it when washing his blood-stained hands. Deceased lived alone, was a native of the county Westmorland, of quiet, unobtrusive habits, and was known to all as a good man, and was never known to have an enemy, either Spaniard or Irishman. In fact, I have often heard people say that William Nannery was the only person of his uncle's acquaintance whom they thought to have no enemy. The house was not robbed of anything except a pistol and a silver watch. The crime must have been committed by some wretch, whom deceased well knew, as when the murdered man was found, he had a pipe and a box of matches still in his fingers, showing plainly that the poor fellow was not the least on his guard.

The probabilities, whether the murderer was taken or not, state pretty even; but, of course, even though the murderer is taken, there will be great difficulty in convicting him. Two horses were seen tied to his palanquin (Nannery had no horse, but about ten a.m. to one, by the Irishman of the adjacent parishes. A cartman of Navarre, who passed close by the house on that morning, says that he saw the saddled horse did not see well, but thought him to be a "colorado"; the other was either a very dark "sombre" or an "ocuro"—he was a small thin horse. The peon of the nearest parishes says that once, when he looked towards the house, he saw two men standing in the patio; but one of them had been Nannery, as the horse remained much longer, and it is not likely the murderer would remain long after finishing his diabolical work. What may account for the untried horse, is that Nannery was looking to buy a horse, and perhaps the murderer was offering to sell this one to him, in order to committing the murder.

The best chance of the murderer being taken, is that there are many native ranchos quite close, and even though he be one of them that shelters poor Nannery's murderer, still the worst of them, with such a large reward before their eyes, will do their best to earn it. The reward is $20,000 mps.

I know that some people (who do not know him) will say that poor Nannery drew this upon himself. They will say that he was in the habit of getting drunk and quarrelling with natives, or else had gone to the pulperia, and that they had seen money with him; but all this is utterly impossible, as Nannery was never seen drunk, nor had he at the time twenty dollars in the house; then perhaps they will say that he was fond of talking with natives, and allowed them to visit him. To this I answer, that he could scarcely speak any Spanish, and that he had a fear and an aversion to all natives whom he did not know, as if he had a foreboding of what was waiting for him poor fellow.

Finally, I will remark, that this is the only murder of which I have ever heard for which I can assign no cause, except gaudy blood-thirstiness. I can only say, however, I write to you, and do not for a moment believe that I give Nannery's character any polish more than it really was, or as every man who has ever known him would give him.

I remain, &c.,
LAURENCE CASEY.

STATE OF THE CAMP.

We regret sincerely to remark that the frost has come, and rather earlier than usual; on Monday night, notwithstanding the heavy appearance of the weather it cleared off towards midnight, and in the morning there was a white frost. This is about the worst news we could get, as if the frost set in before the rain, the camps are completely destroyed. We begin to feel seriously alarmed for our countrymen in the camp, who have suffered so much last year. Although it is impossible that the land will be as heavily stocked this year as last, still those whose flocks are not at present lambing had better take measures in time. Unfortunately at this season nearly every flock in the country is lambing, and consequently cannot be moved; but in a few months hence, when the lambs will be strong, flocks can be easily moved to camps with grass; besides winter is a better time for moving sheep than summer, as the scarcity of water is no inconvenience. For the last few years, in fact since 1877, the seasons seem to have been completely changed, farming or sheep breeding has become one of the most precarious business in the country. Previous to 1857, the sheep farmers enjoyed years and years of unbroken prosperity, and the hard working industrious man received from the bounteous hand of Divine Providence ample remuneration for his labor, but since 1857 agricultural prosperity has been but partial; when losses were experienced in the South the farmers in the North were doing well, and vice versa.

In the great epidemic of 1859, when many of our northern farmers lost over 50 per cent of their capital, our friends in the South were signally prosperous. Last winter, when in the South, half the sheep were dying from starvation, the flocks in the North increased over 50 per cent. The drought in the summer last year caused some hardship, but less, but now we are approaching winter, and farmers both north and south cry out for rain.

In these countries, when rain is so much wanted, a special day of prayer and fasting is appointed, and in every parish church in the country the faithful pray to the Almighty for this necessary blessing; here, however, prayers are seldom offered up at all, and never all through the country simultaneously.

The present state of the weather and the camp is so alarming that we hope the Bishop will appoint a general day of prayer. Since Remon's book has got a circulation of thousands here, however, priests to forget their utter and total dependence on Heaven for every blessing which they enjoy. Not all the sophistry of the free thinker, not all the misguided genius of the French, half the priest would be able to convince us that, when we want the blessings of Heaven we should not ask for them. The country will be laid desolate if we have not rain soon. Then let us all offer up our humble prayers to the Almighty for this most necessary of blessings.

EDITORIAL TABLE.

The "Shillake" left yesterday evening for Montevideo, taking with her the mails. The Doterrell, we hear, is in the Tigre undergoing repairs. Our readers will be horrified on reading the account of the murder of poor Nannery, in Navarre. We hope the Minister will send out orders, to have the whole partido secured, as it is thought that the murderer is hiding in some of the miserable ranchos in the neighborhood. Mr. L. Casey, the proprietor of the estancia upon which the murder took place, offers $20,000 reward for his capture, or information which will lead there. We hope the assassin will be caught and executed, although the chances are that the $20,000 will be earned, paid, and the villain ultimately got off. When we receive further particulars respecting this cold-blooded murder we shall publish them.

The President seems determined that, on Sunday, there shall be no disturbance at the elections; he has published the same order which was so effective in keeping peace last month, and it is to be hoped it will have the like effect on the 27th. It is rumored that some of the politicians are determined to have a brush at the tables, but we apprehend that this is more talk than anything else. Our friends must bear in mind that on Sunday none no whips, cane, or sticks are allowed; the fine is very heavy.

In the house of Zamora, there is a sort of embryo row going on about the locality of the railway station. It appears that the townspeople want the station-house alongside the church, and have petitioned the Government accordingly; but the Minister very properly refused to interfere in the matter, judging, of course, that it was rather late at attempt to change the plans already sanctioned.

The Admiral and the Captain of Martin Garcia have been summoned up to town, by the President, to explain to his Excellency about the statements published in the "Standard" the other day respecting the boats which were rescued by the canal and stolen. After due reflection, the President pays attention to what we say at times. Not one of our colleagues spoke about the highly important matter, save the "Nation," which republished our remarks in Spanish; the next day the President called for the Admiral.

We call particular attention to the fact that in yesterday's "Tribuna" Mr. J. C. Gomez's speech at the Italian function was published in full, while in this hour, Mr. Varela has not thought proper to print Mr. Mitre's at the Southern Railway inauguration. We are surprised that Mr. Varela would leave himself and his paper open to so serious a charge of unfair play. We regret to be obliged to remind him of the many obligations he and all his friends are under to the news of the foreigners which President Mitre committed; when the assassin robbed the present editor of the "Tribuna" of a parent who was decently respected by our countrymen, it was not Italian who subscribed for the widow and fatherless children. Dr. Gomez's speech may be regarded by Mr. Varela and friends as every way worthy of publication in his paper, and President Mitre's not; but we leave the public to decide the matter. The plain state of the case is that Dr. Gomez's speech at once insignificant meeting, and was not meeting the Italians, the "Tribuna" publishes, whilst President Mitre's speech, one of the most important contributions to this country's history, is completely overlooked. The "Tribuna" is not permitted to be published in the columns of the "Tribuna."

Two officers from the Artillery corps were caught the other day in San Fernando, trying to escape to the Islands; they shot themselves some distance back to the back of the town. With much reason our colleagues the "Nacion Argentina" complains that the members of the Legislature behave most conspicuously in not attending at the sessions of the General Assembly, which was a sort of trick by the opposition members of the Legislature.

The Club del Pueblo met on Monday last, and among the list of candidates which the club will support in the elections on Sunday next, one of the new members, ex vice-president of the Club Faval (Cruces) Sr. Cuna, proceeded to ask the case of Sr. Peña appeared in the list, when he was in the Orado list at the last and forthcoming election. His voice was soon drowned amidst the shouts of "Faval el Cruce" (kick him out). At last the president quitted the assembly, when the elected orator gave a Viva al Club Pueblo! to prove his adhesion to the new cause; the speaker continued, but being led away by his enthusiasm, forgot where he was, and finished his speech with a stentorian "Viva al Club Libertad!" This caused a grand uproar, and the worthy member soon was obliged to make his exit on the shoulders of some half-dozen enthusiastic Cocidos. This row was scarcely over when a shower of scraps of paper deluged the pit. His voice was soon drowned amidst the shouts of "Faval el Cruce" (kick him out). At last the president quitted the assembly, when the elected orator gave a Viva al Club Pueblo! to prove his adhesion to the new cause; the speaker continued, but being led away by his enthusiasm, forgot where he was, and finished his speech with a stentorian "Viva al Club Libertad!" This caused a grand uproar, and the worthy member soon was obliged to make his exit on the shoulders of some half-dozen enthusiastic Cocidos. This row was scarcely over when a shower of scraps of paper deluged the pit. Here came the scraps of paper, the scraps of the list of candidates which the club will support in the elections on Sunday next, one of the new members, ex vice-president of the Club Faval (Cruces) Sr. Cuna, proceeded to ask the case of Sr. Peña appeared in the list, when he was in the Orado list at the last and forthcoming election.
