THE BUDGET.

We are free to admit that in reviewing the estimates for the fiscal year of 1865, much allowance should be made for the Minister who prepared thom; he took the portfolio of Hacienda at the 11th hour, after it had been sent round to all the noted financiers in town : he deserves therefore more sympathy than censure at the present moment.

Influenced by such considerations we cannot blame his Excellency for coming before the public with a budget which on its face shows a deficit of over half a million of patacons. Of course M. Gonzales is in rather an unpleasant position, which he tries to escape by asserting that the deficit is purely imaginary, although according to arith metical calculations it is as plain as 2 and 2 make four.

In order that our readers may thoroughly comprehend the question, and know the real financial position of the country, we give the Minister's own figures. The following is a schedule of expenses :-

Ministry of Government $1,022,618 " Foreign Affairs 88,816 " Finance 1,442,008 " Justice, Worship, &c 411,038 " War and Marine 3,176,245

Such, readers, is M. Gonsalcz' budget, which bears the stamp of hurry and superficiality.

In looking through the various items of expenditure, we are struck with the very large figure of 'sundries,' which is no less than £30,000 sterling. We should certainly like to know who keeps the potty cash of the Republic, and see his accounts published. see his accounts published.

see his accounts published.

It is to be regretted that so much of the public moneys should be spent (we were about to say squandered) in the maintenance of the army, and so little in public education.

But the item which most attracts our notice is the revenue from imports, which is put down at four millions, which we certainly think must be an exaggerated estimate, as it bears no proportion whatever to the revenue collected from exports which is put down at a million and a half.

There are many other items which we open to much comment, but as we said before we do not wish to be severe with a young man who is beset with difficulties. We feel rather inclined to encourage him, and advise him not to be dishearened if people style him payers. Generalize DEFICIT GENZALES.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We have to return thanks to M. Mansilla for a copy of his celebrated 'Atar Gull.' We are happy to hear that this drama has met with the greatest success; it will be produced in Colon, we understand, next week. A friend, who pretends to Persian literature, gives the following transla-" Atar"-Otto : " Guil"-of roses (?).

The native newspapers are now so full of Government documents, that go alone.

Tuesday will be the 45th birthday news whatever. The subscribers are beginning to complain.

Respecting the robtery at Mr. Vesser's, we hear that the servant of the house was the principal thief. He is at present in Santa Fe, but the police are after him. It appears that one of the robbers, who made the false key of the robbers, who made the false key of the robbers, who made the false key of the robbers. 4,701 are after him. It appears that one of 23,529 the robbers, who made the false key of the safe, was let in by the servant five times early in the morning to try and 4.120 fit it to the lock.

We regret to hear that one of our 81,022,618 has met with a rather serious loss in the last storm, which it may be remembored occurred in the middle of the night; his sheep were blown into the arroyo, and out of three thousand sheep only some five or six hundred were saved. Several corrales were blown down, and at on one place troughs were swept several squares from the house.

Another frightful murder by one of Flores men we hear of. Passengers who have arrived from Canclones state that two russians belenging to Flores' gang attacked one of the Guardia Nacional, who was accompanying a foreigner who was travelling along the road called las Piedras. The murderers tube. wore no ribbon or "divisa," and de venience.

manded of the guardia nacional why | he wore the blue ribbon. He replied that he was in the service of the government. They at once attacked the unfortunate man with long knives and perforated the poor fellow's body; they then fired off a blunderbuss at the foreigner and wounded him severely. The guardia nacional is dead, but the foreigner is recovering. We hear of a rather important sale of land by the Government of Cordova to a foreign merchant in this city. One thousand square leagues at the rate of two hundred silver dollars per league. This is, we suppose, the largest sale of lands ever known in the River Plate.

The sale of lands in Santiago at thir ty shillings the square league, has been stopped, we hear, by order of the Previncial Government.

The greatest interest is now taken in provincial lauds. We know that a leading Glasgow house has given orders to invest £200,000 in Cordovan and Santa Fe lands. Besides this, we may state that a certain gentleman has received instructions from a Glasgow merchant to send all information by merchant to send all information by return mail respecting provincial lands, as his correspondent intends investing some $30,000 in this description of property.

All persons having claims against the ward room officers of the Forte are notified to send the same in forthwith as she leaves for England immediately. The French liner Georgina has arrived in Montevideo, with an assorted

Cargo of immense value.

We understand that the Bombay is the name of the British war vessel the name of the British war vessel which is to replace the Forte. She was to have left England on the 7th April.

The screw steamer Galileo, of 1525 tons, was launched on the 7th of April. This, we believe, is the third steamer which has been built by the new coupany for the River Plate trade. She was built for Messrs, Lampert, Holt, and Co., and Messrs, Rathbone, Bros, and Co. The Messrs. Leslie have two other steamers from the same line, the Herschel and Ptolemy. Our subscribers in Chascoians will please take notice that Messrs, Wylie please take notice that Messra, Wylie and Co. are now our agents in that quarter. We hope that the papers will now be delivered more regularly than heretofore.

There is a rumour through town that great descrtions have taken place in General Moreno's army. We rather think, however, that it is a bola. If The new Insurance Company, 'La Bien Hechora del Plata' has been us successful in disposing its shares as the Argentine Central Railway Company; all the shares are disposed of, and we are told that had there been five hundred more shares issued, they could dred more shares issued, they could have been disposed of at par. # CONGRESS

The Deputies were occupied on Friday with the question of Dr. Came lino's election as member for Corrientes. The committee advised his rejection, on the grounds of want of residence, but he appealed to the House, showing that (except a short stay at San Pedro, Buenos Ayres) he had lived more than two years at Cor-rientes. The debate was postponed till next session, probably after the holi-days

The Senators have agreed to make Mr. Blas Pico a General, but the cocked hat has yet to go to the other Chamber and the cocked hat has yet to go to the other Chamber and with hat has yet to go to the other Chamber. The members are quite enchanted with the photograph of the Traction Engine Buey. Sor. The Memorial of the Foreign-office will be read in this Chamber on Monday, if Congress sits so soon.

Opening of the France-Argentine Theatre.

On Friday evening, 20th inst, the old Teatro Argentino was re-opened under most favorable auspices, by the French Bouffes. The house since the celebrated Mangi Concert has been devoted to profane purposes, having lately served as a Custom-house depot. M. D'hote and Mme Pauline resolved to restore it to dramatical uses. Considerable labor and expense were involved abic fabor and expense were involved in the effort, but the success has been very brilliant, the theatre being fitted up with great taste, and we have no doubt it will leave the Victoria far behind.

An immense concourse filled the edifice before the hour fixed for the performance, and seats could not be obtained even at double prices. The boxes were filled with the edite of our city, President Mitre and the French Minister honoring the place with their presence; we noticed only a few English. The audience numbered at least a thousend, and we have to record a graceful compliance by the company. a graceful compliment by the company, who presented bouquets to each of the ladies in the cazuela.

The text was ably converted into local allusions, including M. Palliero, the decorative painter, and M. Landois, of the steam saw-mill: it was the composition of our neighbour, M. Zimmerman, the carpenter. The extravaganzas on Italian operas were highly amusing, and it is difficult to say whether M. Pauline, or M. D'Hote carried off the pulm, while the other carried off the palm, while the other members of the company most ally supported their parts.

It cannot be denied that the Bouffes It cannot be denied that the Bouffes offer a new source of amusement, which will cause an active competition with the opera and dramatic companies. # STOP THIEF!

A most amusing incident cocurred yesterday before the Bolsa. A black fellow who, it appears, is a noted thief, coully mounted the splendid fovere horse of a dashing produce broker, and was coolly trotting off when the owner espied him. He at once raised the cry of stop thief and as the street was full of stop that; and as the street was the fellow was at once stopped, but he threw himself from the horse and es caped on foot.

This black fellow is, we hear, the terror of all the Doctors in town; he is now, however, so well known that we hope the police will succeed in catching him.

INFAMOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Montevideo, May 19th 1864. To the Editors of the 'Standard,'

Sirs,
Knowing 'Fair Play' to be a favorite metto with you, I feel confident, that a little of your space, which I know is valuable, will be allotted to the following remarks.

In your edition dated 12th instant appears an advertisement, which was entered by a tradesman in this place in one of the native papers. Then come a few remarks of your own on the scandal of this advertisement, and it is to these remarks I wish to direct your attention, but, in order to make matter more explicit, I will detail the

The little girl mentioned happened to call at the tradesman's shop, and, we'll say inadvertently took away a silk handkerchief. This handkerchief being missed, and being seen by the tradesman in the residence of the Consul mentioned in the advertisement, of course the said Consul was desired to pay for it, or else return it. Neither however was done, not even after three applications, but instead the Consul called at the tradesman's shop, and used such language as to try to intimi-date the tradesman when he threatened to advertise. In consequence of this attempt at intimidation the tradesman determined to advertise, and forthwith sent off to the newspaper office, and has been applauded by all men in Montovideo, who know the facts of the case, for so doing.

I think from the above explanation was well as the the advertisement.

The Pavon arrived in port yesterday morning, bringing in files from the interior.

The 'Ferro-Carril' of Resario, comments apon the President's speech, and calls particular attention to his Excellency's comments upon Provincial Governments moddling in elections.

The capital is £1,00,000. The shares are to be allotted only to the holders of the Confederate bonds, who at the time of application are to register their bonds. The company's steamers are to take out cargoes to supply the wants of the Confederate Government. It is eatimated that the whole of the bonds of the cotton loan may be exchanged for cotton and the produce exported from Southern ports within twelve months. The promoters of the company are stated to be gentlemen of capital and long versed in blockade-running.
