THE ORIENTAL THEATRE.

By the news which arrived on Sunday from Montevideo (which will be found in another column) it appears that people in Montevideo are hourly expecting the proclamation of peace, whilst in Buenos Ayres the Orientals who belong to the Colorado party are equally confident that no peace will be entered into on the bases proposed. Possibly, now since the Brazilian squadron has arrived, the revolutionists in Buenos Ayres will be less pretentious, but it is a matter of the deepest regret to every foreigner who takes any interest in the future of the Uruguay to see the efforts which are now made to defeat the negotiations.

Unless the real object for opposing peace is to bring about the most serious complications in the River Plate, we cannot understand the arguments adduced; but to our mind there is very little time to be lost, to save the independence of a sister republic and rescue this republic from a rather questionable struggle.

Besides, it is right to remark that the Argentine Minister, whose sympathy is avowedly with the Colorado party, has in his interviews with the Minister, met with the most cordial treatment from President Aguirre's Government. All he asked on behalf of the party which Flores leads was freely conceded. If therefore Mr. Thornton and St. Lázaro are to be made fools of simply to please the Colorado men of this state, both they and Flores must take the consequences. Regarding the matter on its whole bearing, we think that it is extremely probable that Flores would attempt to play such a role, more particularly as we learn, on undoubted authority, that his merry men are suffering the greatest hardships, owing to the severity of the weather, and are deserting in great numbers. It is not, therefore, a very firm belief, but it is a belief, that he will live in comfortable houses in this city, for ever.

A great dispute is now going on touching the immutability of principles and such like, that the terms of peace as proposed by M. Litalien leave matters precisely in the same state as they were before Flores invaded and that consequently the revolution has after all gained nothing. We deny this, however. The Flores revolution has succeeded in bringing the country to a very verge of ruin; the Flores revolution has established one great fact, and that is that nowadays the people who create a civil war, they and their children, have to pay for it. If there is any patriotic sentiment in this city, one true republican who holds up the immortal Washington as the prototype of republican excellence, what must be his feelings at seeing his country ruined, his fellow countrymen beggared, and all for what? Verily, the victims of Quintana's selfishness, what must be his feelings at seeing taken to average them. If the peace negotiations are broken off, if Mr. Flores thinks proper to snub Mosquera, Thornton, Litalien and Lanza, if the revolution is to be continued, then we will roll up the map of the Banda Oriental and exclaim with the heroic Malmoe Boland, "Oh Liberty! what crimes are committed in thy name."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We hear that the prospects of the National Government are so good that some Argentine Capitalists are languishing in buying up all the bonds of the National Government. They pay as high as 45 per cent, and we have no doubt they will soon touch fifty. We caution our friends against selling the national bonds if we have peace they will next year be worth par.

The "Reforma Publica" publishes a most interesting article on the subject of wool growing all over the globe; we will try to reproduce it as it will interest our camp subscribers.

A new emigration society is badly wanted, as the present one is utterly inefficient. We hope the Governor will take the matter up. We want a good agricultural company started, with a capital of a million patcones. If the Government would only guarantee such a company seven per cent. interest on the capital the company would be easily formed. London.

We get a peep into the share-book of the Central Railway the other day; never was there a more damning proof of the want of public spirit amongst our big men than this book. The few remaining shares on hand we hope to see taken by one spirited Argentine to redeem the character of the country in such enterprises. Should any other be started in this country the contractor will have his eyes opened as to what sympathy he may expect from the selfish Argentine capitalists.

There is a new English washing establishment started in Barrios, (see advertisement). We hope all the English ladies in town will support it, as the terms are remarkably reasonable.

All the English dressmakers in town are at present working to death making dresses, etc., for the weddings which will shortly come off. It is a pity that our Tes-Tale-Talk was received with less favor than our Editor's Table, as there is a deal of little social chat going on.

On last Sunday there was a grand ceremony, the christening of a Turk, which is about to be made into a very rich Porfeta. The Turks are peculiarly successful in capturing wealthy Porfetas.

Manuel Garcia is represented, by one of our correspondents, to be a most ill-luminated creature. We consider that as there has been no war or engagement of any description, since the place has been fortified, this is a rather peculiar discovery. We should like that some of our colleagues paid a visit to the "London battery" at Humayta, they would there see Italian fortifications. When we consider the money that has been spent on the Martin fort, we feel inclined to say that the Minister of War should be brought up before the House and interrogated on the subject.

Several very interesting lawsuits are at present going on in the courts. One which has been decided the other day, is for stealing sheep, against two fellows, named Cruz Rivas, and Manuel Barrios. These two fellows, however, have been convicted of stealing sheep, the partido of Pergamino. Pinero having, it appears, purchased the stolen sheep from Cruz Rivas. The sentence passed was that the party should be flogged, and we should like that some of our colleagues paid a visit to the "London battery" at Humayta, they would there see Italian fortifications.

Another important lawsuit, which has come up on appeal before the Chancery court, is that of Fortuato Perez, for a wage lost at the races in that town. Don Luis Chavez, who is the plaintiff, asserts that the race was run under the conditions decided in favour of the respondent.

The British mail steamer Mersey leaves on next Sunday. Mail closed at the Consul's office on Saturday evening at five o'clock. Strongly the agent of the English Postmaster-General has advertised his Post-office notice in all the native papers, and forgotten to give publicity to the Standard.

In consequence of an unpleasant question arising the other day, with a subscriber about an advertisement for one of his stanzas, we feel it necessary to advise our readers that all advertisements not being permanent, must be paid for in cash.

The little Argentine steamer, bearing the euphonious name of Felix Clavel, has been getting her boilers made larger, and we believe, will run again to-morrow. She will call at Martin Garcia.

We hear that the popular and commodious stables, in front of President Mitre's house, are about to be shut up, as the owner of the property is about to build a stately mansion on the lung-hill. As a proof of the sudden rise in value of property in that locality, we may state that the yard was offered for sale for 25,000 dollars some three years ago, and now the owner refuses to sell it for a million.

The most unpleasant rumours are circulating through town, respecting the failure and result of the unfortunate Guallivieri. We have no doubt, however, that these versions are utterly destitute of foundation, and are circulated by a few indignant creditors.

Every vessel that comes from Paraguay, now brings us tobacco. The tobacco from that state that it is far superior to last year's crop; and the sales which have arrived, show a most scrupulously careful assortment. Prices were an upward tendency, and many parties every day of the week, were to be seen at the market for Santa Fe.

We perceive that the new organ, presented by Mr. Edward Lamb to the English Church, has at last arrived in the Florence Nightingale, from London. Mr. Lamb deserves the thanks of the English community for his true British liberality, and we hope some of our rich Argentine friends will imitate this spirit of Englishman, and present one of Edward's best organs to the Cathedral, where it is so badly wanted.

Mr. Harbo is now completely eclipsed, in the way of railway iron importing, by Mr. Figueroa, who seems to have all the business in England, that for Paraguay railways; scarce a day from England enters port now, a day that does not bring heavy consignments of Harlow rails, bolts, kee, to the Paraguayan agent.

Sunday and Monday, what splendid days for photographing. For the last five years we have not had two such rainy days. On Sunday there was a Scotch mist, that we met more than if it rained in torrents; and on Monday it came down in real earnest. The members of Congress drove again in their carriages to the House yesterday, but it was a lucky coincidence that the water was not introduced. We believe that if even some philanthropic Argentine was to offer to water the city for nothing—only the mere honor of the thing—he would be refused, in this terribly rainy weather. Of course, there was no meeting in the Plaza on Sunday. The Scotch mist was even more dreaded than the scoundrel Pinzon.

Berry and Walker's express wagon cleared out again last Saturday, and dashed right into Mr. White's yard. Unfortunately the wheel came off. Why the horse took flight cannot be discovered, unless it was from the late carrying out of some of that real old Irish whiskey which they sell, and which they were loading in the wagon at the time of the accident.

The splendid mansion in Barrios belongs to a French merchant of this city, we hear is shortly to be sold by auction. We wish we had money enough to buy it. We can't say that we admire the peculiar style of architecture, but the house is most commodious and finished with the greatest elegance.

ROMANIO ITEMS.

Mr. Brockmann has left the house of Duguid and Co., and the power of attorney granted him by that firm has been cancelled.

Mr. Manuel Cruz states in an advertisement that he used some ungentlemanlike expressions, in a moment of anger, against Mr. Juarez, which he publicly retracts.

Dr. Antonio Areosa, who, it appears, has fallen, goes in a polite way to work; he calls on all his creditors to send in their accounts to be liquidated. This is a gentle way of winding up, and we hope to see it adopted here.

An animated discussion took place in one of the most fashionable streets, as to whether the new Consul who succeeded Mr. Ruyhway are subscribers to the Standard; high words ensued between the parties. We have looked over our Rosario list, but find they are not. Possibly these consular gentlemen don't understand English.

The Captain of the Port is still in the greatest perplexity as to the two causes which he perused. Will nobody claim them?

A general order has been fixed for the arrest of all the small boys in the town, as they are found to be a great nuisance.

The offers sent in for building a bridge over the Sisidillo have been accepted, and new bids are called for, to be sent in before the 31st June. When that day will occur we are at a loss to say; but we suppose some way in the Government House purposely so wanted the notice to prove the remote possibility of even having such a bridge constructed.

On the 30th inst., at twelve o'clock, 200 marcos are to be knocked down (provided they don't kick) at public auction by order of Government. The marks on the brutes are said to be unknown in that part of the world, possibly might be found. We verily believe that every imaginable mark capable of being put on an animal's hind quarter is registered at the Ozone Hotel.

This subject, it appears, is attracting attention in the Government House, and we would not wonder to see this, as it is a splendid staple. A new firm has been started in Rosario and San Juan; Messrs. Moreno Brios, and the managers of the houses seem to be of Neutonic descent, Mr. William Williger and Mr. German Conroy.

Mr. Perkins, the talented editor of the Pero-Paro, is most untiring in his efforts to further the Argentine Central Railway Company; he has subscribed for twelve shares himself. This beats all the Buenos Ayres editors hollow. We took ten, and if the price of ounces was not fixed, intended taking ten more. Mr. Perkins deserves our warmest praise for laboring in so noble a cause. We want more Perkinses in the River Plate.

The theatre is open, and we hear well supplied.

Mr. Michael Vidal has lost some Treasury notes in the streets of Rosario. It is surmised that they were dropped in the street and lost in the mud.

Mr. Tilton, the popular manager of Messrs Smith's Bros, of Montevideo, is shortly to leave Rosario for Montevideo; his loss will be greatly felt amongst the foreigners.

Amongst the extraordinary items from Rosario is, that at the printing office of the Pero-Paro there are goats for sale.

Mazaredo's ultimatum, or protest, has been published, and has produced almost the same effect in Rosario as it did in B. Ayres. All thinking men agree that Peru must blame herself for the trouble she herself has caused.

The Pero-Paro has a terrible attack on the Tablados, and states that their Government is not suited for the Argentine Confederation. It assails our Argentine colleagues would like to see a Uruburu or Flores in Santiago del Estero. All this country wants is peace—peace at any cost. We profess the most perfect confidence as to the internal policy of our politicians, but we think that the Tablados have attracted our attention that Mr. Tablados' province is the most peaceable in the republic.

Who has ever heard of a revolution in Santiago del Estero?

"Diana no has Sor. Don Simon," is all the rage at present in Rosario. This funny fable is quite a favourite up the river.

Our colleague states that there is a profound silence as to the Commissioners of the National Debt. Only wish Mr. Perkins could drop some fine day into the office of the Ocampo's office; he would soon get his opinion; and then again has not Mr. Gordilla been despatched?

Some anonymous correspondent asks what Paraguay means to do in the Pero-Paro question? We take upon ourselves to answer the question. Judging from the discreet policy of President Lopez, we should say that he means to assist America and refrain from insulting Europe.

An auction of land took place in Rosario on the 11th, 12th, and 13th inst., by order of Government. The land is situated in the department of Union. We have not heard how the bidding went.

CORRIENTES.

The Convention having concluded its labors and reformed the Provincial Constitution, with a clause that it cannot now be altered for 10 years, Governor Lagraña has signed his jubilee and it becomes law. Don Felipe Corbal having declined the post of Minister of Government, Don Antonio Segovia has been appointed to the office. The Municipality of Corrientes is making some reforms in the Police department, and the state of the prison being disgracefully insecure, measures are taken respecting same. It is surprising that crime is not more frequent, as murder may be said to enjoy comparative impunity. It is only a few days since we mentioned the case of a ruffian who had murdered an inefficient man in cold blood, and after being twice condemned to death was finally made a soldier with full pay and rations. We now read that on the 4th of August 1861 (the day of the massacre at Talamio, in Peru) the assassin Lando (Gomez) surprised a poor fellow named Ezequiel Almon on the highway near Empedrado, and barbarously murdered him; it was proved that he had sworn to kill his victim wherever he found him, and after his arrest he confessed to the crime (with several others) from prison, but was retaken. The first court sentenced him only to seven years servitude in the army, although the crime was clearly proved, Gomez being taken with the bloody knife in his hand; on second trial he was condemned to be hanged, when he begged for five years; but this was only a joke for the hide-and-seek system gave him a third trial, which confirmed his diploma for military service, prolonging the term to 10 years, but nothing special is provided regarding his pay and rations.

An unfortunate man named Simulacres of Guayaquil, was taken by a fellow named Lugo who stabbed him with a knife and left him with "boladoras," whereupon Simulacres killed his aggressor, and the result was that the Corrientes court well defence as worse than blooded assassination, and poor Simulacres has been made a soldier for 7 years, with pay and rations. A Brazilian named Jose Joaquin broke into a house at Monto castros, on the 28th Nov. 1861, and robbed the place, afterwards spending the money in an Italian pulperia, belonging to one Solari; he accused two friends of being his accomplices, and with this ingratitude the court ordered him military service for five years with full rations, and half pay.

At the wool cutting establishment (obra) of D. Felisario-Bonique, in the Gran Chaco, a fight occurred, resulting in the death of an Indian, and several wounds to the former and the death of the latter. The culprit was arrested, as the event is likely to compromise the safety of the white men in the Chaco, the Indians making a rule to kill so many in retaliation for one of their people.

Mr. Zuny reports 3 boarders and 97 day scholars in the Nat. College, but complains of the bad attendance of the children; D. Carlos Roselli has been named chief assistant to the active and intelligent Mr. Zuny.

There is not a word about cotton, and the cotton, in fact, the great market of our colleagues is more unaccountable as we understand the picking goes on actively. The Progreso fills its columns with news about Peru, instead of attending to the real industrial interests of Corrientes. Little hope can be held out for such people, and we hardly expect to see that province keep pace with the rest, in the great march of progress on which the Republic is now entering. Until crime be punished and industry fomented, we strongly advise immigrants not to think of settling in Corrientes, however flattering the professions of Government.

PROGRESS IN PARAGUAY.
 We read in the Semana that the railway from Asuncion to Piray is no longer managed by English engine drivers, but by two Paraguayans named Juan G. Almonir and Escudero Ramos. After a few years the country will be entirely independent of foreign genius, native youth being educated in all the various branches of scientific and mechanical skill. One hundred young men are receiving the most superior education which the (rotten) king-doms of Europe can afford, and a much larger number are in the hands of the public sapientism of experienced Englishmen. Paraguayans prove remarkably apt scholars; among others, D. Candido Barreira, Minister at Paris and Lavinia (only 27 years old) will make a wonderful impression in Europe. And at home this wonderful progress will be more remarkable when the railways, telegraphs, arsenals, etc. are in full play. The telegraph lines, so ridiculed by the "Nacion Argentina," if for no other purpose, will prove of great utility in rendering the frontiers of Paraguay. The train on the unfinished line to Villa Rica runs now three days in the week, instead of one day, as before.

 Camp News.
 The state of the roads is truly awful. On Friday a distinguished Belgian merchant of this city was driving soverly down the Calle Larga, intent upon buying wool at the first baracca he entered, when suddenly he came upon one of Admiral Ma's trenches, and a general smash ensued. We don't mean to say that the merchant smashed, but his gig—a brand-new Milord—was knocked into a cocked hat. We leave our readers to imagine the plight of the owner.

The Barrenas all genres we hear are shortly about to reduce the fare to five dollars, as since they have charged ten dollars people prefer walking to sitting in greasy diligences.

The roads are now getting a little better, but last week they were in an awful state. Only a few days ago, a gentleman who had invested in a sewing machine, was nearly capized at the Tres Esquinas; luckily the pig righted and the sewing machine was saved.

One of the most favorite amusements now-a-days in the Partido of Ensenada is sheep stealing. We heard of a case the other day where three fellows went out in broad daylight and cut away a point from a poor man's flock. The owner, being alone, was afraid to go near the robbers, but started off for the Alcalde. When he got back the sheep were gone and no trace or tidings of the robbers. What a scandalous thing to occur in the populous camp of Buenos Ayres; why, in Santa Fe or Cordoba such a thing was never attempted.

Freights per bullock carts to the country towns in this province are at present on the most frightful scale. People will hardly believe it; yet positively it costs less to send a bullock to England than to Chascomus. The cartmen, notwithstanding, are just as poor as ever, verily the old saying, "it got, it got!" is true. Rammell's new wagon enterprise, we hear, is anything but lucrative at present, owing to the poor condition of the horses, and miserable state of the regular.

The shepherds are at last, thank heaven, doing well. This winter has been up to the present peculiarly favorable, and we know of hundreds of persons who are waiting until shearing to invest in sheep. The lambing this year has, however, been very backward, owing, we believe, to the drought last year.

ENTRE AMOS.

An English gentleman, who has just arrived from Entre Rios, states that he has been to Uruguay, and spent a few days there. San Jose, he says, is completely deserted, and the owner, extremely perturbed. The garden, which was once so attractive, is overgrown with weeds; even the table which the Captain-General keeps has been to the level of an ordinary estate. Things have wonderfully fallen off of late at San Jose: the General talks about cows and jerked beef, instead of as formerly about international rights and the law of nations. Cold, distant, and surly is the owner of San Jose represented to be, instead of affable and hospitable, as was his wont.

We visited San Jose in 1859, it was then the residence of an English nobleman. Our friend visited it in 1861, and found it the unpicturesque dwelling of an Entre Rios estateholder. Gauleguaychi is becoming quite anguished. Several foreigners have found their way up there, and invested in land and sheep. The Maas Bank is about to open a branch in this thriving place. This was all that was wanted to drive this place ahead, but the month of the Arroyo must be cleared, as to let the steamer in. A few dollars spent in this way would make Gauleguaychi the first town in the Uruguay.

FRANCOBOL FOR 1861.

On the first of July we commenced our Haut Book (for 1861), in which it is our aim to make a great improvement on our last. It will be ready on sale on the 1st of December, and we hope that our subscribers will prove our friends and send us in all the information that they can. In this country it is almost impossible to get statistics, we therefore fling ourselves on the generosity of our subscribers for the most complete information. We invite our subscribers at all points of the Argentine compass to bear a hand, and help us. Owing to the multiplicity of advertisements in our last edition, we purpose this year to receive but a limited number; the change will be five Hundred Dollars per page, and no advertisement will be received after the 1st of August. Several of our camp agents have yet failed to send us an account of the Haut Book we sent them. We appeal to them to send in their accounts without delay, and hope our subscribers will kindly call their attention to the matter.

REPORT MEASURE.

On Friday a measure of great importance passed the House of Representatives and the public will wait with longed expectation to learn the details of the law. It is one providing a subsidy of $150,000 a year for the establishment of direct steamship communication between the United States and Brazil subject to the appropriation of a similar amount for the same service by the Brazilian Government.

The proposed steamship subsidy, which we note for facilitating inter-communication by mail and otherwise between two great communities, may be supposed to have a fair chance of becoming an accomplished fact. The further stages it has to pass in Congress present no insuperable difficulties; and there never was a moment more favorable to the present for making to Brazil a proposal of cooperation in a commercial undertaking. The time is opportune on the ground of the existing difficulties between the Brazilian Empire and England—difficulties which, as every one knows, have had their origin mainly, if not exclusively, in commercial or commercial disagreements, and the recurrence of which—the Government of Brazil will no doubt see—can be in great part prevented by inviting to the aid of a cooperative enterprise of this kind is for the time of the greatest consequence, in view of the temporary continuance of prostrating on the high seas. The Brazilian Company's vessels, etc. naturally carry a flag which will give them immunity from the risks of piracy; and although this, in a disaster, would not come into consideration, well to reclaim the advantage now, in view of having the proposed steamship line in operation at the earliest possible moment.

The subject of the proposed subsidy is considerably and yet looking at it comparatively, it does not alarm the most rigid economist. In spite of the fact of the line being notoriously unprofitable at repeated intervals, from the numerous losses in weekly, the Montreal Steamship Company has drawn from the poor Provincial Government, for a series of years, $416,000 annually, and this, too, despite of another fact, that for half the year its vessels touch at no Canadian port. Let us hope, for success to the steamship line connecting us with Brazil.

Central Argentine Railway
Since our appointment on Saturday, three gentlemen have called at our office to take, each one share.
We hope our camp friends will favour the great enterprise, as it only costs £20, and they have two years to pay it up in full. Every shareholder is a benefactor to the country.

CONCEPCION
We have received the 'Uruguay' of the 16th inst.; it is absolutely devoid of news, containing only a letter from Mr. G. D. Cook, who, through a relative to the late T. P. Cook, who endeavored to get up amateur theatricals for the benefit of the schools, but failed. The Bank of Entre Rios has made a second call of 25 p. s. on the shareholders.

IMPORTANT FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Her Britannic Majesty's steam gun vessel 'Spicer', Commander Stubbs, arrived here yesterday from Montevideo, with very important despatches for His Excellency, the President of the Argentine Republic, and H. B. M.'s Minister Plenipotentiary. When Commander Stubbs left Montevideo the Foreign Ministers had not returned, nor was it known when they would. It was reported that they met Flores (at Jackson's quinta) somewhere between San Jose and Rosario, and that negotiations were to commence on Friday last. News of peace being declared was hourly and anxiously anticipated throughout Montevideo.

The English steamer 'Paraguay' arrived on Friday the 17th inst., 42 days from England. During the voyage her cargo shifted, which caused her to heel over very much on her left side in which state she arrived at Montevideo.

The Brazilian Squadron had arrived at Montevideo, and a French sloop of war from France, the 'Fortuna', and gun boat 'Decide', from the French squadron there.

Her Britannic Majesty's ships at Montevideo were, H. M.'s gunboat 'Sheildrake', Acting senior officer during the absence of the 'Satellite', Capt. S. S. Crofton, the 'Triton', Lieut. and Commander Napier, which vessel remains to convey the British Embassy on their return to Buenos Ayres. The 'Spicer', Lieut. and Commander Stubbs, left under sail about 4 o'clock, and experienced thick fog, weather the whole voyage up from Montevideo.

MAILS.
The Esmeralda arrived at San Fernando on Saturday evening with mails from Corrientes, which arrived here by mail some night, the steamer coming into port on Sunday with 21 passengers. The Salto arrived yesterday at 2 p.m. from the River Uruguay with 57 passengers, and peaceful rumours.

The British gunboat arrived yesterday morning from 3 antevideo, with important news.

Yet the 'National' says 'no steamer arrived today.' They must have been asleep all day at 41 Bolivar.

The Sanitary Committee Meeting.
Owing to press of matter, and the lateness of the hour when the meeting at the Hon. Mr. Kirk's broke up, yesterday, we are obliged to hold over our report until to-morrow.

MIL WELLS' BENEFIT
Will come off to-morrow night. We think the foreign residents will liberally patronize him.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Brata. In Sunday's article on fowls from Brata, there were two misprints: 'mishling' of the egg substituted for them, it should read 'a couple of hundred years' instead of 'a couple of years' and at the head of column 5 a line is omitted: 'the passage should read 'either by the slow or gradual deposit of ages, carried down by the current, or in the Universal Deluge.'

Notwithstanding one of the leading bulls threw 0.020 patacons on market today, prices held firm; the operation only had the effect of keeping specie from going higher.

The Salto arrived from the Uruguay with news to the effect that a cheque had just arrived in Montevideo, and that it was generally believed in that town that peace was at last made.

The exchange transactions for the past, up to the present, are of a rather limited character; possibly, to wards the close of the week, more takers will make their appearance, but up to the present, the majority of the bills of exchange have been negotiated on terms the least advantageous to drawers.

There is an uneasy feeling both in this and the Montevideo market, owing to the tone of the native press respecting the proposed treaty of peace with Flores. Merchants say that the leaders of our colleagues, on either side of the River Plate, are calculated more to prolong than terminate the war. We could have desired more moderation, but we still cling to the hope that peace will be realized: any delay in the exchange, however, must, should be conceded, to arrive at so desirable an object.

The great abstraction of doubt from the market is becoming the subject of conversation on Chaco. Foreign coin of every name is most abundant, but ounces have vanished, and we learn, from the salderistas, that doubtless have not gone up the line in unusual quantities; in fact, if we are to believe report, even in Rosario, they are scarce. The general opinion is, that the ounces are held up by the very men who refuse to subscribe for the Central Railway Company, 'Argentine capitalists.' In England, and other countries, gold locked up in an iron box at the low of the line, but in Buenos Ayres it is not so; and owing to the multitude of failures, and the constant depreciation of paper money, people who have their ounces in an old well a year or two ago, and can now lay hold of them, are actually better off than the parties who have been constantly investing. Nothing can prove better than this the lamentable state of our money market. When specie locked up in an iron safe all the year round, affords a higher rate of interest (and without any risk) than money employed in far commercial transactions, we may safely say that we have arrived at that unenviable monetary climax, only to be termed 'worries.' The money market of Buenos Ayres is rotten at the core, and every day we pass without a currency reform, things are getting worse. If another new bank, with £200,000 capital, will be shortly started, we may possibly pass a year or more before specie will become scarce, but at present our money market is held up by the foreign capital flowing in, by nothing else.

The unsophisticated individual who believes that patacons are going up, 'and remain up,' because this or that broker is obliged to sustain the market, is only to be compared to the man who believes that shortly the River Plate will run dry, as the current to the ocean is so strong. Ounce brokers may cause an immediate, but never a permanent, effect on the price of specie. Patacons are 29 to-day, but if the steamer had not brought the out by each packet, in the last twelve months, men with £500, £1000, £2000, and even £30,000, their price to-day, without the intervention of Mr. Salas, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Hart, or any other of the leading brokers, would be, instead of 20 (dols) at least 80 dols, or more. If, however, now, the cap keeps flowing in, the currency of the country will be arranged on a secure footing, the effect of the balance of trade being against us would not be so much felt, because the value of our exports has been so situated as the money market is at present, no one can answer for the result: a war in Europe, in which England or France takes part, would probably have not only done us our strongest harm, but, under such a crisis, might have done us more harm than that of 1857. Each packet from Buenos Ayres drafts or bills of exchange, to the extent of say $150,000. Let one half of those, say one quarter of them, be sent back to us protected, and what will be the result? Failure upon failure causes specie is locked up, paper money thrown out; and although the credit and industry of the country has suffered no material change, still the medium of circulation must inevitably endure the most stupendous depreciation.

Owing to the insecure state of affairs in Europe, and the near possibility of England being dragged into a war on the Continent, we have felt bound to offer these remarks, because we firmly believe that so long as the currency of a country is the only subject of speculation, the money market of such a nation is but a house of cards, let one give way and down comes the edifice. We know full well that there are sagacious brokers who say that when all is over, it will be a bias it would not affect us. To these enlightened financiers our only reply is, that when the best investment for specie is to be locked up in an iron safe, it is time to leave. WHEN ARE THE OUNCES GOING TO?

SOUTHERN PRISONERS' RELIEF FUND.

COMMITTEE.

CHRISTOPHER ATKINSON (Chairman),
Charles W. C. (Chairman),
O. P. (Secretary),
A. H. (Treasurer),
J. M. (Treasurer),
James Spence (Spence Brothers, Liverpool),
James M. Calder (Liverpool),
James M. Calder (Liverpool),
Wm. H. Trapman, Esq.

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war, captured in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times. The necessities of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no blanket save that which is stark and stiffened with his clotted blood. Horrible as war is in all its features, assuredly it has no greater horrors than the long agony of the poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to soothe the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to his despairing mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the protection of their Government, have peculiar claims on the patriotism of their countrymen in Europe, and upon Christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the piousness of arms, but in exchanging the comforts and often the luxuries of home for the toils and hardships of a soldier's life, they obeyed a stern sense of duty and the call of their country in its extreme need. An unusual proportion, also, of those that fill the ranks of the Confederate armies belong to the higher walks of life, upon whom private life is so much endeared by prisoners in the hands of the North, fall with increased severity.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these sufferings which cannot altogether be relieved. Within little more than a twelvemonth, nearly £2,000 have been collected and expended in relief. The managers of the Fund see assisted in their efforts by self-devoted ladies in principal Northern cities, who visit the sufferers and give them such aid as means at their disposal render possible. Of late the Federal Government has granted permission that this Sanatorium work may be done openly. It is earnestly hoped that all Southerners residing in South America, will support the Fund to the extent of their ability, and in objects may recommend themselves to the respect of country or political convictions, who sympathize with the sufferings of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J. H. Ashbridge, Treasurer, Warner Building, Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotte, Esq., 17 Saville Row, W.; in Paris, by H. O. Brewer, Esq., 6 Rue Circulaire; and Daniel Hubert, Esq., 24 Rue Lord Byron.

SAVING BANK BANK MAU & CO. No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one in the Bank in which they place their most confidence.
The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
The sum deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in the city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 10th 1863.
