The opera of Traviata was advertised for Colon Theatre on Sunday evening, but the Company broke down after the singing of Libiamo; at least it was understood that Sor Lelini was too indisposed to sing, and some confusion ensued. Two acts of Norma and some scenes from Faust were given by way of compromise, but we learn from a person who was present, that the orchestra was disagreeable. Our Peruvian friends will say it is a just punishment for the refusal of the shareholders to lend the theatre for the "sympathy" meeting.

The 4th of July Celebration
Owing to the lateness of the hour when the friends of America broke up from celebrating the 88th Anniversary, we are obliged to hold over our report until to-morrow. Suffice it for the present to say, that it was the greatest 4th of July commemoration ever known in this city. It seemed as if all the friends of the old star-spangled banner rallied round it on this day to show their adhesion to the principles of Washington and the lawful Government of the United States. The President and his Minister, Governor Saavedra, and other notabilities, made fine speeches.

Central Argentine Railway.
The citizens of Cordoba have put to shame the capitalists of Buenos Aires, several of them having contributed 50 or 100 shares each, and making a total of double the amount of stock taken by our native friends in B. Ayres. We believe the return of shares is as follows: allotted in London to diverse parties, 30,000; taken by Messrs. Brassey, Wythe & Wheeler, 10,000; guaranteed by Mr. Wheeler for this Republic, 10,000. Of the last we have allotted in Buenos Ayres, 1,870; in Cordoba, 1,700; in Rosario, 1,300, and subscribed by National Government, 2,000, leaving 8,200 yet to be disposed of. Gen. Urquiza promised some time ago to take 1,000 shares, but in any event, the rest will soon be taken up. The total, 60,000 shares, represent one million sterling, which is reckoned sufficient for the present, but the nominal capital is $1,600,000.

Afflicting News from Corrientes.
In one sense the news from this province may be so called, on the other hand they may be termed cheering, for according to the latest accounts numerous robberies have taken place, but in each instance the disciple of Camés has abandoned the place, which is thus freed of some obnoxious plants. A thirty clergyman whose acts of piety had brought him some 350 one, was robbed of the whole by a person of good connections in the locality; the robber has fled with his family, but the cure is in hot pursuit, and if the chase be not long in all probability catch him. In like manner a poor goosie of a tailor who has been cataloging from the parish has fled, leaving large liabilities and no assets. A young German, supposed to be a native of Schleswig Holstein, has also cleared out; he had been employed in a barber's shop, and has proved a keen shaver, walking off with all the poor barber's owners. Things are very dull in Corrientes, and it is said that the big wig in the city are greatly opposed to the circulation of the Moxa Bank notes.

USELESS PROCESSION.
A procession took place on Sunday from Santa Domingo to celebrate the defeat of the English invaders in 1806. In England we no longer celebrate the anniversary of Waterloo, and Argentines can hardly remember 58 years ago.

CORRIDA.
A Peruvian meeting took place on the 19th ult. at Cordoba. We read of another Indian invasion, on the 10th ult. Colonel Balazore says the savages were over 100 in number, and came within two leagues of the town of Rio Cuarto. It does not appear that the garrison molested them, although they were laden with booty of cattle, horses, etc.

There was very little animation on Change to-day, as all the American merchants were at the Minister's, and most of the other merchants were busy writing for the packet.

We hear that over £80,000 was drawn for the packet, notwithstanding that she sailed so early.

Some business was done in salted hides, 12,000 from Entre Rios and Corrientes at 40 rs., and a lot of dry hides for the States—4000 at 39rs. The arrivals of produce continue were for Saturday, Sunday and Monday extremely heavy.

here are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of man suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times. The merest scraps of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no one to care for him, which is stark and stiffened with his clotted blood. Horrible as in all its features, assuredly it has no greater horrors than the long agony of a poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to ease the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to his aching mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the action of their Government, have peculiar claims on the patriotism of their kinsmen in Europe, and upon Christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the profession of arms, but in exchanging comforts, and often the luxuries, of home for the toils and hardships of a life, they obeyed a stern sense of duty and the call of their country in its extreme need. An unusual proportion, also, of those that fill the ranks of Confederate armies belong to the higher walks of life, upon whom private such as are endured by prisoners in the hands of the North, fall with peculiar severity.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these things which cannot altogether be relieved. Within little more than three months, nearly £3,000 have been collected and expended, in relief. The work of the Fund is assisted in their efforts by self-devoted ladies in the loyal Northern cities, who visit the sufferers and give them such aid as is at their disposal render possible. Of late the Federal Government has not permitted that this Sumptuous work may be done openly. It is feared that all Southerners residing in South America will support the cause to the extent of their ability, and its objects may recommend themselves irrespective of country or political convictions, who sympathize with the cause of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J. H. Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer, Duil-Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq., 17 Saville W., in Paris, by H. O. Brewer, Esq., 6 Rue Circulaire; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq., 24 Rue Lord Byron. J I x

BANK MAU & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one in the Bank in which they place it with most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their
