SUPPOSED MURDER BY ACONITE.

On Wednesday night, Mr. John Humphreys, Middlesex coroner, remanded at the Grey Eagle Tavern, Old Bond-street, Spitalfields, the investigation into the circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, the widow of a tradesman.

The court was densely crowded, as owing to the nature of the case, it was expected that some extraordinary interest would be taken, consequent upon the actions of the detective police. The cause was referred to the coroner.

The coroner watched the case for the commencement of the police.

The deceased was the widow of a master tallow-chandler, who had been a sailor. After his discharge he enlisted with the foremast, a passenger named Hoocer, who had formerly been in business, but had become bankrupt.

He was a married man, living apart from his wife. His name was John Mann, a little daughter, the deceased and Dr. Jackson did not very happily live together.

On his arrival in this country he became a sailor in the 19th Corp., the deceased, who was a strong woman, thirty-eight years of age, was in her usual health, but said she had a headache. In the evening, after being an hour upstairs alone with the deceased, Mr. Hoocer, who had been a sailor, went to bed, having immediately, and taking hold of his arm, said, "My dear, my dog, what have you been giving me?" He turned to the person present and said, "I have only given her two tea and stomach pills."

Mr. Hoocer was a sailor who had been a passenger in the 19th Corp., who had been a sailor in the Gray Expedition. Soon afterwards she complained violently.

In less than two hours she had convulsions of an extraordinary character. Her back was curved, her eyes worked like clockwork, and she foamed at the mouth. She shook the room, and the windows rattled.

Hoocer took the deceased to the hospital, where he made the post-mortem examination, could find no natural cause for death. Dr. Leithay could not recognize the symptoms, and thought they were due to a disease in the brain, which was some distance from the spinal column. The deceased, however, could not be found, and the remaining of corps, would have done away with that.

The symptoms generally were those of poison by strichnine, but a person having taken strichnine would not have been able to walk to Dr. Jackson's and break again. It was said that there was a poison, which it may now be mentioned, which was as capricious as its action, that might have produced all the symptoms described.

Hoocer, the surgeon, proposed the appointment of Dr. Jackson, and Dr. Jackson, the surgeon, to the 19th Corp., to the 19th Corp., and Dr. Jackson, the surgeon, to the 19th Corp., who forwarded them to Havre to be sent home by the consul.

They all attended divine service and prayers of thanksgiving at the British consulate at Havre on the 31st.

The captain's will was the first article read.

It was agreed that the deceased was saved with life from shipwreck.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE FROM SHIP-WRECK.

One day last week, the barque Cristobal, of Sunsvold, Captain George Carr, of 301 tons burthen, was, early in the morning, running before the wind (a strong south-wester) on her return to Humberland from Heceta-harbor. At 2:30 a.m., the wind suddenly reversed, and the vessel was driven towards the shore of the Columbia, so that the crew were compelled to abandon the ship, and the boat, which had been lowered, was dashed against several rock-bound monuments still remain there. The only means of preventing the vessel from being driven towards the rocks was to use all available power, and the crew, who had been working hard, were exhausted. All the ship's stores, including unmeasured casks of rum, were lost, and the ship would not answer her helm, even after the main-mast was cut away. By this time it was five o'clock, and the light on the island was seen about two miles distant. There had been no time of raving, and the crew were exhausted.

At 10 a.m. the ship struck, and the crew were dashed against the rocks. All the gear was lost, and the ship struck and filled. All hands got into the boat, and were barely clear of the ship, when she fell over on her starboard side, and began to break up. Although the crew were exhausted, they worked like devils, and, after half an hour, the boat was hoisted into the water, and the crew were landed.

Mr. Hutchinson, of the firm of Murray, Son, and Hutchinson, said he had proposed Mr. Hawes, the late Master of the Cristobal, to the Board of Trade, to bring the vessel to a port of refuge.

EXERCISE OF ENGLISH AUTHORITY IN CHINA.

The China Mail is of opinion that the aspect of affairs indicates a crisis to be approaching in that vast empire. The recent events in the interior of China, which have led to the appointment of Mr. Bentinck, General Bruce, and Captain O'Brien.

The object of this innovation was generally, and we believe correctly, supposed to be the recognition of Captain O'Brien as Anglo-Chinese admiral. Mr. Bentinck naturally urged this step, as he was the prime minister of the empire, and had been educated in the Chinese language.

The Chinese authorities, Captain O'Brien's presence would desirably give a set-off to the position, which he held in the command of the fleet.

He would have arrangements with persons who were proposed to advance funds to effectuate that object.

Mr. Bentinck, the Foreign Minister, proposed the appointment of Mr. H. C. G. Bentinck, as Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Dr. L. W. Bentinck, as Minister of War, to the Emperor.

General Bruce, the Foreign Minister, proposed the appointment of Mr. J. H. Thompson, as Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Mr. G. H. Bentinck, as Minister of War.

General Bentinck said that he was in practice as a medical man. He knew Mr. Hooper, and had a correspondence with him about accidents about four weeks before he died.

He said that he had been a sailor in the 19th Corp., and the son of the mate of Hunt, who murdered his wife in the ship. On a previous occasion Hoocer had said that Mrs. Mann was very ill, and without attention to call in a medical man. The Wednesday after Hunt's death, he spoke of accident, and the strong poison he had used, and different symptoms. He said that he had given him one of his ascerines. There was a conversation about Hunt's conduct, and in the course of it witness mentioned that one of his effects was to produce accidents. This witness continued, after Mrs. Mann's death, that Mr. Lyle, in London, and who told me more about Hunt, who had been a sailor in the ship. I say, "Oh! Hunt, it was only the other day that I no longer had occasion to mention him." I met Mr. Hoocer since, and had a conversation with him. He said that he had no occasion to mention her, because he was getting his livelihood by her. He said that he was not fit himself, as he was anxious to get rid of her, and to secure her. He said that he was improving, and had been getting up in the world again.

By Mr. Hoocer: When I saw you were greatly excited, and you came to me for guidance for nervous excitement.

After that, only Hoocer said that she was living from him, and residing in Harrow-on-the-Hill, Hertfordshire. His father said that she would have a visit instead of Mrs. Mann, if she had been living with him.

The Chinese: What is your reason for making such a statement?

a word to express one's feelings under such circumstances, I find none, and therefore revert to my own favorite expletive—blethercumskolt.

Being naturally of a religious turn of mind, intensified by long residence in a neighbouring tropical country, I scorn to reply to the insinuations of the calumniator, who has not even scrupled to assume an honoured and distinguished name. "The regularity of my attendance at the Scotch Templo is 'known unto all men,' especially the 'brethren.' If henceforth I absent myself it must be attributed to that impious attempt to introduce false doctrine, in the shape of improved music, which, with sorrow and grief, I see some degenerate youths of the congregation are intent on doing."

Gentlemen,

I beg to submit to your notice the following, and request you to insert same in your paper:

they received with respect and approbation many valuable suggestions and observations from one of no common judgement for her sex.

Like Madam De Staél, she died childless, at a very advanced age, and leaves behind her the sincere regrets of many who, during the course of her long life, received valuable proofs of her generosity and kindness. R.L.P.

STORMING OF PAYSANDU.

SPECIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Flores and his men have at last begun the attack. It has been going on now for the last two days, and a deal of blood spilt. All the houses in the outskirts of the town have been sacked. To such an extent have the atrocities been carried that the Foreign Consuls at last sent a joint note to Flores, notifying him that if he did not restrain his men they would hold him responsible. We believe Flores has sent no answer, but the murders and robberies have been suspended.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Confiscation.—A rather amusing case has occurred in Barracas about a gun. We refer our readers to a letter which will be found rather amusing.

The Hunt.—Thursday night was one of the hottest ever experienced in Buenos Ayres. Several hundred slept on the azoteas and on the mole. Friday was a scorching day. Calle Florida was like a hot frying pan about twelve o'clock.

River Plate Magazine.—We are happy to hear from Mr. Williams, the editor, that each day brings him new subscribers to his interesting periodical.

The Progres—Our French colleague on Thursday evening treats its subscribers to various caricatures respecting our pleasant friend who apropos is expected here next Thursday.

Telegraph.—We perceive that the Northern Railway is planting the poles for the telegraphic line between San Fernando and Buenos Ayres.

Paunero.—Dr. Costa, in Cordova, assured the Government that President Mitre was greatly displeased at the attitude in politics which Paunero has taken.

The Montevidean Mole.—We have received great complaints against the Montevidean Government for the scandalous state of the mole. We understand that it is full of holes, and the planks have a delightful spring in them, which if one is not very careful will pop you into the river instantaneously. We call upon the Government to have the necessary repairs made; otherwise we will be reluctantly obliged to go down in person to the Mount and make as much noise about the matter as we did here. Our friend Gunnybags met with an accident the other day on that very mole, which has confined him to his room for the last week.

Patron.—This steamer is due to-day from the interior. We believe that Minister Costa is expected down in her.

New Steamer.—One of the new steamers of the Salteña line is shortly expected out from Scotland.

El País.—The Editor of this journal appears annoyed with the Standard, as we have not received a number of El País for the last fortnight—although we regularly send the Standard by every opportunity. This is what we call Irish reciprocity.

Fashions.—We read in a fashionable journal that ladies' dresses are to be worn next season training behind. An artist remarked that a mode of carrying them ought to be invented. "No," replied some one else, "the extreme bon ton consists in ladies sweeping along without seeming to remark the damage done to their dress—a superfluity." "It is ruinous," adds a married man. "Quite an economy," replies a Municipal. "It is evident you are a bachelor, and have not to pay for dresses." "It is also quite evident you are not a Municipal, who has to undertake to look after the streets being properly swept, and also to pay the carriage of dust, &c."

Firo.—The day before yesterday a wooden house belonging to a poor washerwoman in Barracas caught fire whilst the woman was away: it was burnt to the ground notwithstanding the efforts made by the bombers to subdue it.

Theatre.—The Legislative Chambers were to be opened with great pomp.

The Municipality call for bids for the lighting of the town of Concepcion. Where is Mr. Blythe with his Kerosene?

General Urdinarrain advertises for a cook.

The club calls, for the third and last time, for a meeting of the members.

From the Banda Oriental.—The Villa del Salto is armed, and has brought down Laguna's regiment from Salto to Paysandu.

Flores has surrounded Paysandu, and swears he will not leave the place until he takes it.

DONNA BEHN RIDINA RIVERA.

The Montevideo papers announced the death of this lady, the widow of the late General Dr. Fructuoso Rivera, the most popular "caudillo" of the Banda Oriental.

This lady, from her great age and high standing in society, where, as the cherished wife of the popular Rivera, she always had a certain amount of political influence, and was intimately connected with the principal episodes of Oriental modern history.

She was the founder and first President of the Ladies Benevolent Society in that city, and her energies were always nobly employed, with a keen judgment, in a manner especially suited to one of her sex, in diplomacy.

The eventful period of her husband's Presidency, Urribarri's Government, and of the war against the tyrants Rojas and Urquiza, drew around her a circle of political and military celebrities, who met in her house, as her husband was almost always in active service, and

THE NEWS BUDGET.

The Murder and Robbery at Cumberwell.—Plaques have been posted throughout the district, offering a Government reward of $100 for the apprehension of the person or persons who broke into the premises of Mr. and Mrs. Greenway, in Addison-square, Cumberwell, on the evening of the 27th October last, and kidnapped their young son, whom they had left with Mrs. Watson, their maid, after which she died on the 8th of November last. At the inquest held before Mr. Carter, the jury returned a verdict of "Wilful murder" against some person or persons unknown.

Hunting Death.—Augustus Palmer, of Munkton, near Newmarket, was shot by the North-Eastern line, near Newmarket station, a few moments after walking up the line from Springfield. To avoid a hansom train, he stepped on to the line upon which the 10.30 a.m. express from Sandhurst was rapidly approaching, and before he was aware of his danger, his hunting pistol in the lock with a fearful force, his body was rent in twain in the middle, and must have been instantaneous as he was quite dead when taken up a few minutes afterwards. The unfortunate gentleman was about sixty-three years of age.

Death of Sir Henry Martin, Bart.—We have to record the death of Sir Henry Martin, Bart., whose son was a member of the House of Commons. He was born in 1810, and married in 1839 to Miss Catherine, daughter of the late General Sir John Jackson, Bart., of Duxford, Cambs. He succeeded his father in 1862. The first Baronet was compiler of the navy.

Death of the Dean of Lincoln.—The Very Rev. Thomas Gardner, B.D., Dean of Lincoln, died at the Deansery on Monday night, at the age of fifty-four years. The dean had been invalid for nearly two years or more, and had suffered much from rheumatism and rheumatism. In the spring he went to the Continent, in the hope of improvement, but returned about a month ago, without the hoped-for result, and since then had been gradually sinking.

The Very Rev. T. Gardner.—He was the son of Dr. Thomas Gardner, who was a member of Parliament for Lincolnshire in 1800. He was for some time Chaplain to the House of Commons. Mr. Gardner was a man of great talents, and a favorite with all the aristocracy.

Army Female Hospital.—We are glad to perceive a movement making to establish an institution for the education of daughters of officers of the army, on a plan somewhat similar to the Naval Female Hospital at Greenwich.

Proprietary Colleges.—A number of associations have been formed, to be admitted in two classes—the nephews of necessitous officers at a small cost (£12 per annum), the others at a rate sufficient to cover the expenses of maintenance. The sum to be given will also include gratuity. This is an institution much needed, and we wish every success.

The Volunteers at Windsor.—The concert given at Windsor last week in aid of the funds of the Volunteers' Rifle Corps, for which Monmouth and Medina Artillerymen and other celebrated brigades, rallied between 150 and three hundred pounds. A nobility and gentry's ball afterwards took place at the Town-hall, Windsor, also in aid of the funds of this corps, and was attended by a large assembly of the élite of Windsor and the surrounding neighbourhood.

The London Correspondents.—Mr. Kerr has just returned from his tour in the British Isles. A Mr. Gilder was sued for compensation for damages done to a lamp. He wished to cross Fleet-street at the corner near Bridge-street, and in order to do so put up his hand to move the head of a horse which the plaintiff was driving. The horse, however, turned back, and the lamp which was on the end of the whip was broken.

Mr. Kerr's Case.—It was argued that the plaintiff had no right to drive so close to the preceding vehicle as to block up the crossing, and gave a verdict for the defendant.

The Case of Mrs. Myatt.—The alleged injury had come to a close at last. On Tuesday last, Mr. Justice Jowett summed up the case, telling the jury that the man and the woman who were the parties to the defendants, Dr. Fraser and Mr. Andrews, had ordered the man and the woman to take care of Mrs. Myatt. He said that while a medical man might advise what should be done in cases where he was called in, he had no right to command. The jury, without a division, found for the plaintiff.

Birmingham Savings Bank.—The trustees of this bank have announced officially that they have determined to close the bank for the receipt of deposits at the same time they recommend the depositors to transfer their deposits to, and to make their investments in, the National Bank of Birmingham, now open.

Post-office Authentication.—The Post-office authentication service has been opened in different parts of the town and also in some of the towns in the immediate neighbourhood.

Affairs of Madras.—A number of papers containing information relating to the affairs of Madras were recently issued from the Colonial Office in the form of a parliamentary return. The papers principally refer to the mission sent to congratulate King William on his accession to the throne in 1837, and the mission sent in 1832, for the purpose of presenting the thanks sent by Queen Victoria. The contents of these have been made public by Mr. Gladstone.

Wholesale Sheep-stealing.—It has been discovered that the farmers of the Yorkshire moors, in the vicinity of Ilkley, Haworth, and Crosshouse, have, since the last harvest, been the victims of an extensive and systematic stealing.

Royal Bathing Infirmary.—The official results of the general count of the governors of this institution, held at Falmouth, in January, 1832, immediately after the case of dr. d'alete,—"I should not be surprised if there were 6 long spals of tranquillity in Paris under his absolute sway." Had his plan been imperfectly effected, or his decline but moderately successful, France might have been thrown into a tempestuous state, and in 1832, instead of 1830, the revolution of the year would have been four weeks earlier.

The Voluntaries at Liverpool.—The official returns of subscription for the month of November have just been issued. From these it appears that during the month there sailed from Liverpool to the United States 20 ships "under the Act," having on board 6,093 passengers, of whom 2,259 were English, 3,272 Scotch, 2,299 Irish, and 624 foreign. The total amount of money received from the volunteers of whom 1,100 were English, 79 Scotch, 321 Irish, and 61 belonging to other countries, amounting to £7,550 passengers—a sum which exceeded the amount of £4,000 per day on the average.

Death of Mr. George Hart.—In the court of the Sheriff's Court, before Mr. Kerr, a hawker named Great, brought an action against a law called Smith, apparently about seventeen years of age, to recover £10, for damage of an unseasonable article of apparel.

Death of Mr. George Hart.—The animal then made its way to the river, running down the river, and the hawker, who had followed it, was severely injured. The hawker then took to the Glyde, and swam to the shore, where he was secured and caught by the chairman.

Assinine Propositions.—At the Halford Police-court, the other day, an elderly cobbler, named John Nunn, of Whit-lap, Finsbury, was summoned for a nuisance, caused by keeping his doggy in a kennel, and causing a disturbance in the street. His master, on looking at the bill, observed to defendant, "Why, you must have done something but wear gloves. I find three paces in one month, four pairs in another, five pairs in another, and at last six pairs." The Post-office authentication announces that, with the view to assist depositors, various branches of the Post-office banks are opened in different parts of the town and also in some of the towns in the immediate neighbourhood.

Following the Hounds.—DEATH OF AN ACCIDENTAL HUNTER.—A young man, John Farmer, a gunner, a son of a gunner, was accidentally shot in the head at the office, Finsbury-place, Old-Jury: Mr. Tonks, the coroner, directed that the man and the woman to take care of Mrs. Myatt. He said that while a medical man might advise what should be done in cases where he was called in, he had no right to command. The jury, without a division, found for the plaintiff.

Death of Mr. George Hart.—The official results of the general count of the governors of this institution, held at Falmouth, in January, 1832, immediately after the case of dr. d'alete,—"I should not be surprised if there were 6 long spals of tranquillity in Paris under his absolute sway." Had his plan been imperfectly effected, or his decline but moderately successful, France might have been thrown into a tempestuous state, and in 1832, instead of 1830, the revolution of the year would have been four weeks earlier.

Russian Attribution.—After the engagement in the palatinate of Prussia, in which the Palatines in Lower Saxony perished, several Polish prisoners were brought to Münster, the commandant of Münster. This city has 100 households, in which 314 houses and 101 families are employed, the others being on a level with the street; 27 are in a fitty condition, others being mostly in the eastern and northern districts. In only one case was the household case a sleeping place. The young people under the age of eighteen years, who are employed in the household, work between the hours of nine at night and five in the morning. They are obliged to be taken to enforce compliance with the regulations of the Act of Parliament, where those regulations are infracted.

Death of Canon Sir George Shillifer, Bart.—A resident canon in the cathedral church of St. Paul's, London, Dr. Shillifer, the son of the Rev. Dr. Shillifer, a distinguished author, died on the 1st of December, 1831, aged 70. He was a man of great personal beauty, and had a very large family. The first child, a son, was born in 1801, and the other children were born in 1803, 1805, 1807, 1810, 1812, 1814, 1816, 1818, 1820, 1822, 1824, 1826, 1828, 1830, 1832, 1834, 1836, 1838, 1840, 1842, 1844, 1846, 1848, 1850, 1852, 1854, 1856, 1858, 1860, 1862, 1864, 1866, 1868, 1870, 1872, 1874, 1876, 1878, 1880, 1882, 1884, 1886, 1888, 1890, 1892, 1894, 1896, 1898, 1900, 1902, 1904, 1906, 1908, 1910, 1912, 1914, 1916, 1918, 1920, 1922, 1924, 1926, 1928, 1930, 1932, 1934, 1936, 1938, 1940, 1942, 1944, 1946, 1948, 1950, 1952, 1954, 1956, 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964, 1966, 1968, 1970, 1972, 1974, 1976, 1978, 1980, 1982, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1994, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2010, 2012, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2020, 2022, 2024, 2026, 2028, 2030, 2032, 2034, 2036, 2038, 2040, 2042, 2044, 2046, 2048, 2050, 2052, 2054, 2056, 2058, 2060, 2062, 2064, 2066, 2068, 2070, 2072, 2074, 2076, 2078, 2080, 2082, 2084, 2086, 2088, 2090, 2092, 2094, 2096, 2098, 2100, 2102, 2104, 2106, 2108, 2110, 2112, 2114, 2116, 2118, 2120, 2122, 2124, 2126, 2128, 2130, 2132, 2134, 2136, 2138, 2140, 2142, 2144, 2146, 2148, 2150, 2152, 2154, 2156, 2158, 2160, 2162, 2164, 2166, 2168, 2170, 2172, 2174, 2176, 2178, 2180, 2182, 2184, 2186, 2188, 2190, 2192, 2194, 2196, 2198, 2200, 2202, 2204, 2206, 2208, 2210, 2212, 2214, 2216, 2218, 2220, 2222, 2224, 2226, 2228, 2230, 2232, 2234, 2236, 2238, 2240, 2242, 2244, 2246, 2248, 2250, 2252, 2254, 2256, 2258, 2260, 2262, 2264, 2266, 2268, 2270, 2272, 2274, 2276, 2278, 2280, 2282, 2284, 2286, 2288, 2290, 2292, 2294, 2296, 2298, 2300, 2302, 2304, 2306, 2308, 2310, 2312, 2314, 2316, 2318, 2320, 2322, 2324, 2326, 2328, 2330, 2332, 2334, 2336, 2338, 2340, 2342, 2344, 2346, 2348, 2350, 2352, 2354, 2356, 2358, 2360, 2362, 2364, 2366, 2368, 2370, 2372, 2374, 2376, 2378, 2380, 2382, 2384, 2386, 2388, 2390, 2392, 2394, 2396, 2398, 2400, 2402, 2404, 2406, 2408, 2410, 2412, 2414, 2416, 2418, 2420, 2422, 2424, 2426, 2428, 2430, 2432, 2434, 2436, 2438, 2440, 2442, 2444, 2446, 2448, 2450, 2452, 2454, 2456, 2458, 2460, 2462, 2464, 2466, 2468, 2470, 2472, 2474, 2476, 2478, 2480, 2482, 2484, 2486, 2488, 2490, 2492, 2494, 2496, 2498, 2500, 2502, 2504, 2506, 2508, 2510, 2512, 2514, 2516, 2518, 2520, 2522, 2524, 2526, 2528, 2530, 2532, 2534, 2536, 2538, 2540, 2542, 2544, 2546, 2548, 2550, 2552, 2554, 2556, 2558, 2560, 2562, 2564, 2566, 2568, 2570, 2572, 2574, 2576, 2578, 2580, 2582, 2584, 2586, 2588, 2590, 2592, 2594, 2596, 2598, 2600, 2602, 2604, 2606, 2608, 2610, 2612, 2614, 2616, 2618, 2620, 2622, 2624, 2626, 2628, 2630, 2632, 2634, 2636, 2638, 2640, 2642, 2644, 2646, 2648, 2650, 2652, 2654, 2656, 2658, 2660, 2662, 2664, 2666, 2668, 2670, 2672, 2674, 2676, 2678, 2680, 2682, 2684, 2686, 2688, 2690, 2692, 2694, 2696, 2698, 2700, 2702, 2704, 2706, 2708, 2710, 2712, 2714, 2716, 2718, 2720, 2722, 2724, 2726, 2728, 2730, 2732, 2734, 2736, 2738, 2740, 2742, 2744, 2746, 2748, 2750, 2752, 2754, 2756, 2758, 2760, 2762, 2764, 2766, 2768, 2770, 2772, 2774, 2776, 2778, 2780, 2782, 2784, 2786, 2788, 2790, 2792, 2794, 2796, 2798, 2800, 2802, 2804, 2806, 2808, 2810, 2812, 2814, 2816, 2818, 2820, 2822, 2824, 2826, 2828, 2830, 2832, 2834, 2836, 2838, 2840, 2842, 2844, 2846, 2848, 2850, 2852, 2854, 2856, 2858, 2860, 2862, 2864, 2866, 2868, 2870, 2872, 2874, 2876, 2878, 2880, 2882, 2884, 2886, 2888, 2890, 2892, 2894, 2896, 2898, 2900, 2902, 2904, 2906, 2908, 2910, 2912, 2914, 2916, 2918, 2920, 2922, 2924, 2926, 2928, 2930, 2932, 2934, 2936, 2938, 2940, 2942, 2944, 2946, 2948, 2950, 2952, 2954, 2956, 2958, 2960, 2962, 2964, 2966, 2968, 2970, 2972, 2974, 2976, 2978, 2980, 2982, 2984, 2986, 2988, 2990, 2992, 2994, 2996, 2998, 2999, 3000, 3001, 3002, 3003, 3004, 3005, 3006, 3007, 3008, 3009, 3010, 3011, 3012, 3013, 3014, 3015, 3016, 3017, 3018, 3019, 3020, 3021, 3022, 3023, 3024, 3025, 3026, 3027, 3028, 3029, 3030, 3031, 3032, 3033, 3034, 3035, 3036, 3037, 3038, 3039, 3040, 3041, 3042, 3043, 3044, 3045, 3046, 3047, 3048, 3049, 3050, 3051, 3052, 3053, 3054, 3055, 3056, 3057, 3058, 3059, 3060, 3061, 3062, 3063, 3064, 3065, 3066, 3067, 3068, 3069, 3070, 3071, 3072, 3073, 3074, 3075, 3076, 3077, 3078, 3079, 3080, 3081, 3082, 3083, 3084, 3085, 3086, 3087, 3088, 3089, 3090, 3091, 3092, 3093, 3094, 3095, 3096, 3097, 3098, 3099, 3100, 3101, 3102, 3103, 3104, 3105, 3106, 3107, 3108, 3109, 3110, 3111, 3112, 3113, 3114, 3115, 3116, 3117, 3118, 3119, 3120, 3121, 3122, 3123, 3124, 3125, 3126, 3127, 3128, 3129, 3130, 3131, 3132, 3133, 3134, 3

PARSONS, FLETCHER, AND CO.
PRINTING INK MAKERS.

22, Bread-street, London.

Messrs Parsons, Fletcher and Co. have devoted for many years their best energies to the further improvement of their first class Inks; and from the testimonies of the most eminent English Wood Engravers to the brilliancy of their Best Ink, as well as from the estimation in which their Inks in general are held, both by the leading Printers of this country and of the Continent, Parsons, Fletcher and Co. flatter themselves that for Depth of Colour, Clearness of Impression, and Ease in Wiping, their Inks now stand unrivaled.

The Art Journal for July, 1862 says, "The Ink used for printing this Journal expressly Manufactured by Messrs Parsons, Fletcher and Co., and combines the essential qualities of depth of colour and clearness of impression," & which their Inks have long been favorably known abroad as well as at home."
