REMARKS

Any one who has ever read Gibbon, Guizot, Macaulay, or Alison, must be aware that nations are like individuals.

EDITORIAL TABLE.

The talented but discolored writer of a letter signed 'Hosiah Welles, Esq.' is requested to call at the 'Standard' office.

THE ROSARIO POST-OFFICE.

The French Consul and the Rosario Post master it appears have had a rather serious difference respecting the postage on letters to Europe.

INTERESTING FROM CORRIENTES.

The Governor has presented the usual annual message to the legislature. It recited the approbation of the Chamber.

IMPORTANT FOR MINISTER RIVERA.

Another Turin letter in the 'Constitucional' contains the following:—'The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has undertaken a very laborious and urgent task, namely, that of renewing the treaties of commerce between Italy and different foreign Powers.'

The weather is at present so hot, that it is only necessary to slip on a shawl to have plenty of showers.

Nothing can bear a stronger resemblance to the political character of the Argentine nation than the weather.

It is a remark that a good deal of our market, as it is believed, is not enough of itself now for home consumption.

There is a very extraordinary version current respecting Minister Costa's trip to Entre Rios.

The son has been celebrated with great splendor in the city of Corrientes.

The son has been celebrated with great splendor in the city of Corrientes.

The Governor is about to receive a cotton gin from the 'Standard' office, and will put it up at Corrientes to clean all the cotton.

A word to express one's feelings under such circumstances, I find none, and therefore revert to my own favorite expletive—blatencruel!

Being naturally a religious turn of mind, intensified I may observe by long residence in a neighboring tropical country, I score to reply to the imputations of the calumniator, who has not even scrupled to assume an honored and distinguished name.

The regularity of my attendance at the Booth Temple is known to all men, especially the "brethren." If henceforth I absent myself it must be attributed to that invidious attempt to introduce false doctrine, in the shape of improved music, which, with sorrow and grief, I see some degenerate youths of the congregation are intent on doing.

I want neither organ, nor harmony, nor do I wish to hear anything more melodious than the well known voice of THE TIGER B—22—9.

Argentine Constitution.—TO THE EDITORS OF THE "STANDARD." Gentlemen, I beg to submit to your readers the following, and request you to insert same in your paper.

My vessel, the Chango, on board of which I am acting as mate, was lying in Barracas on New Year's Day, and, to pass away idle time, I took a gun belonging to the master, not being aware it was against the regulations of the place to use same.

I would only wish to know who keeps the gun, and if it is to be sold, to whom. Also, who it is who has got my boots, or the $20 m/c.

Remain, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, J. DIXON.

Latest from the Boer. Lopez Jordan has surrendered upon the Government of Entre Rios to Urquiza, who was again with the reins of Government in his hand.

From the Banda Oriental. The Villa del Salto is armed, and has brought down Laguna's regiment from Salto to Paysandu.

Bona Behn Jedina Rivera. The Montevideo papers announce the death of this lady, the widow of the late General Don Francisco Rivera, the most popular "caudillo" of the Banda Oriental.

They received with respect and approval before many noble spectators and observation from one of no common judgment for her sex.

Like Madame De Sial, she died childless, at a very advanced age, and leaves behind her the sincere regrets of many who, during the course of her long life, received valuable proofs of her generosity and kindness. R.L.P.

Storming of Paysandu. SPECIAL INTELLIGENCE. Flores and his men have at last begun the attack. It has been going on now for the last two days, and a deal of blood split. All the houses in the outskirts of the town have been sacked.

Confession.—A rather amusing case has occurred in Barracas about a gun. We refer our readers to a letter which will be found rather amusing.

River Pilot Magazine.—We are happy to hear from Mr. Williams, the editor, that each day brings him new subscribers to his interesting periodical on Thursday evening treats its subscribers to various caricatures respecting our absent friends who are expected here next Thursday.

Telegraph.—We perceive that the Northern Railway is planning the poles for the telegraph line between San Fernando and Buenos Ayres.

SAVINGS BANK.
BANK MAUS & CO.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo.
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate - Montevideo & Buenos Ayres - that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Maus & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe, profitable, depository for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Maus and Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1893.
p. p. Maus & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.
CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p 3] per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time receive the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rates established by the Bank.
5th. In no case depositor loses his money but it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency and advancing the loss in the public newspapers.
