MR. JOSIAH WELLES. Letters of introduction. To the Editor of the Standard.

The letter, however, is not only amusing, it calls attention to several subjects and amongst the rest to the want of the watchfulness of agents...

It might be thought, after the publication of Mr. Welles' rather unpolite letter, that when the gentleman called again...

But the Buenos Ayres merchants, if unpolite, are not ungenerous. It is a pity that the gentleman of genius to feel annoyed at the whimsicalities of Mr. Welles...
