The Standard.

Published weekly on Wednesdays.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1891.

EDITORIAL TABLE.

Our remarks on the 'Bright' will not with general approval. People admit that the Standard is right, and that so far from the present season being excessively dry, for years past we have not had such a wet summer...

be persuaded to return. Mr. O'Connell believes, comes in his place. We regret that we have not an extra factory news to publish respecting the Argentine Central Railway...

Government has ordered to be paid 100,000 dollars for the construction of a new church in June, and also 50,000 dollars for the completion of the schools in San Isidro.

From Cordoba we learn the following: Since the 18th December, Col. Arredondo, with his troops, has been quartered in Rioja. This garrison soldier has effected the most brilliant successes in the departments of the Limos...

There is also another funded debt of this colony, named Deferred Taxes, which amounts to £1,400,000. The interest of which is payable half-yearly at the rate of 5 per cent.

Well, between those who desire to do something for the Nation, and those who only desire the aggrandizement of the province of Buenos Ayres, the destruction of the other provinces there is a mighty struggle for supremacy.

It is the first gain the day, there will probably be a revolution in Buenos Ayres, if the second win the battle, it is probable that a separation will be the consequence...

London, Buenos Ayres, and River Plate Bank; capital, £2,000,000; shares, £1 0 each; £1 paid up; selling at par; looking dull also.

Accents received from several governments in the Kingdom of Poland speak of the increase of the insurance. Numerous bodies of the peasants have joined in the demonstration...

A committee of Russian ladies has been formed at Warsaw, under the presidency of the daughter of Count Mouraviev, for the purpose of supporting the nationality and the Russian character in the Kingdom of Poland...

large bodies of armed men having appeared in the neighborhood of Buenos Aires, the Governor has warned the British Consul, and stated that he will not undertake to control them.

Dear Sir—Your last favour came daily to hand, to which I have delayed replying until the eight days of vacation arrived, which you mentioned...

I am dear Sir, yours truly, ISAAC WATTS, Secretary.

After leaving Mr. — office, I felt it my duty to find out the names here the sleepwalkers, large and small, not together to chat over camps, wood, hills, etc., and in a fortnight had obtained all the information I required...

The Committee being fully absorbed in the subject the association was founded to promote the cultivation; instead of raising any system of deputation of our factory operatives would bring much discredit upon us, the major part of our best laborers' chief great employers of labor, and I try of course to see that a security of labor will be as good as a security of cotton.

The Mercedes Outrage. To the Editors of the Standard. Gentlemen, Oblige your countrymen by giving publicity to the following outrage committed on the person of Maria Gonzalez...

It may be interesting to some of our commercial subscribers to know that the rumour which was so industriously circulated respecting the Sicilia's cargo being damaged is utterly destitute of foundation.

STATE OF THE PROVINCES. The political state of the provinces has not been disturbed by any change since the date of our last review...

The trouble now existing in the capital is derived from the division of the members of the great party who, triumphant in the last revolution, divided amicably the spoils of the whole nation among themselves...

There is little doubt of General Urquiza supporting the policy of the present National Government. The political sides of the exalted party of which he is a member...

There is no doubt in the world that it was a petty row in a party town which drew the wary Governor out of his place. Things look black on the horizon of the Province, and it is hereby possible that General Urquiza finds it convenient to take a military excursion through this province...

Buenos Ayres has at present outstanding in six per cent. Bonds £276,000 sterling. The interest on these bonds is payable on the 1st of July and 1st of January each year; last quotation, 93.

There is no doubt in the world that it was a petty row in a party town which drew the wary Governor out of his place. Things look black on the horizon of the Province, and it is hereby possible that General Urquiza finds it convenient to take a military excursion through this province...

The juez de paz came the sixth time he was sent for, and not till then...

Yours, &c., J. Wells. Juezado de Paz, y Comandante de la Villa Mercedes, Dec. 10, 1863.

It is to be taken for granted, from the above amusing order, that Mr. Swengel, family, and friends, are allowed to indulge on other days of the week in intoxicating liquors...

Disrespectful Favoritism. More than 600 citizens have been sleepily led at the elections tables last Sunday on various pretexts.

Wanted Immediately. A good English Cook for the country for a few months. Apply at Standard office.

Wanted. A Female Servant to go to San José de Flores during the summer season. An Irish girl would be preferred.

THE HOLLA. Patences opened at 28.8, at which price one sale alone was made, and fell to 28.75, at which price all the cash sales were made, and closed at 28.75.

LOCAL EVENTS. Hospitality in a virtue of civilized life. As a rule it is, but there are exceptions. One of the greatest bores in the clubs of London was a well-known wealthy country MP...

Am I to understand that British merchants, by rail, become more inviolable, and therefore more inviolated? As I leave on the 9th, I am sorry that I shall be unable to visit my friends in their rue in Ayres, and judge for myself.

Gran Hotel de la Paz. This magnificent establishment, situated in the Udo de la Plata, and without equal perhaps in South America...

Notice. J. S. WYLLIE and CO., beg to inform the public that they are about opening...

Notice. A splendid Camp Establishment in Entre Rios, 1/2 League of the best land in the province.
