WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1864.

EDITORIAL TABLE

The Mirror yesterday printed the Standard office of every paper published since the 1st of January.

We regret to hear that in the Banda Oriental the farmers are beginning to experience a drought in several parts, particularly in the neighbourhood of Montevideo.

Mr. Hector F. Varela has written a letter to the 'Purolo,' denying that he has hit his brother money to purchase the 'Mo-quito' and furthermore stating that since his arrival from Europe he has not meddled in politics.

The news which our colleagues published on last Monday, was crowded, General Horna made a good speech. It seems that there is a regular split between the Provincial Government and the Club Liberal.

be constructed that if necessary a locomotive can be used upon it.

THE CAPTANIA AGAIN

It is not long since we recorded a barbarous outrage, committed by one of the myrmidons of that medieval institution, ruled over by the Captain of the Port.

"It seems there is a regulation at the Capitania that no boat shall anchor within a certain distance of any 'falsa' (false) way of the Mole.

On the whole, the occurrence is anything but creditable, although nominally in fulfillment of a standard order, just as was the sentence of the Consul Parra.

THE CHIEF

We have the great pleasure to advise our readers that the National Government has taken a step in the right direction.

COTTAGE-FIELDS OF PARAGUAY

Having rested nearly four hours at Pirayú, I obtained fresh horses and left my compliments for the Gefe of the district, that functionary being absent.

the still burning rays of the sun. We had yet three hours journey before us.

"I reached the second post at 5 p.m. The occupants were two old men and a boy. From the roof-hung several large branches of tobacco, under process of drying.

The road passed over some marshy ground till we came to a rivulet, where some one was waiting after his much-undervalued hats and garden less frequent: the hills on the right receding, the Cordillera appearing nearer and more gloomy.

EAST MERCEDEN TRAGEDY

A Irishman murdered by a policeman. The following petition has been laid before the Criminal Judge of I. Instancia.

THE PARAGUAY MAIL

We have the 'Semanario' of the 16th inst., on which day President Lopez reviewed the garrison, 'an grande tenue.'

THE BOCA OUTRAGE

To the Editors of the Standard, Gentlemen, I have to beg you will insert the following lines in answer to an article published in the 'Tribuna,' under the above heading.

To the Tribuna Correspondent, Sir—I have just read your article on the Boca outrage in the 'Tribuna,' 20th inst. I know not whether to ascribe it to your ignorance of the individual whom you therein libel, or to a violent party spirit.

by the tolling of his own funeral bell and greatly to the astonishment of his mourning relations.

A SHADON STRAW.—Sir James Graham in the last week of May, 1834, with great regret, left the Cabinet of Earl Grey to whom he was ministerial chief, and surrendered the high office of First Lord of the Admiralty, which was very agreeable to him, on account of the decision of the Cabinet to entertain the question of appropriation of Church property to secular purposes.

The new buildings of Messrs. Atchua, Lumb, Joseph, the Exchange, Anela Dorinda, Maria Haini, &c., this group together in one vast and splendid situation of the town, will give to our city a very handsome and decidedly European appearance.

On Sunday night, the commander Antonio Langham and others have been degraded from their rank in the Oriental army, and stigmatized "cowards and traitors" for having served in the resolution of San Pedro de Macoris.

Over Stowewell Jackson's grave waves a diminutive Confederate flag. The larger than a lady's handkerchief. The emblem is fastened to a staff not more than two feet long and placed at the head of the grave, and there waves as if to illustrate the modest pretensions of the great late General Valley of Virginia. Close by his side a small grave to be seen, which contains the remains of his child, who died a few years ago. In the distant is the grave of his first wife, "Eliza, the daughter of George and Julia J. J. with a plain marble slab at the head.

LOCAL EVENTS.

House Building.—We hear that the new house of Sr. Boech being built close to the Bolata is being stories high and will present a beautiful appearance.
