The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.

This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of the establishment to even the lowest class.

Public attention is, therefore, specially called to the manner of subscription, and the insertion of funds, according to the rules of the association.

The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:

- 1st. On one's own life, in shares of $250 each, whose capital, however is liquid, dated at any time, at the subscriber's time and option.
- 2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest forfeited by the death of other shareholders in their class, whose capital, however is returned.
- 3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class shall gain compensation on the subscription, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their class.

All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.

The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (fincas), and with the greatest security.

The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company.

For further particulars, apply at the Co's office 87 calle S. Martin (alios) between the houses of 11 - 4; prospectus a given on application.

SAVINGS BANK,
BANK MAUD & CO.

— No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt, and appreciated in the Co's great establishments of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Mercantile firms in any of the banks in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maud & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have no hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of sending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maud & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
