PRIMA, JANUARY 29, 1861.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The afflicted, discolorated mother of poor... onnell, who was butchered by the police in the Villa Mercedes the other day, was in our office yesterday. Would to God that President Mitre were present to hear that poor woman's tale—to watch the tears trickling down her cheeks as she spoke of her murdered...

What though he be an alcalde or a policeman who is charged with the crime of butchering poor Connell... what though he be a Coidadino politician, and one of the greatest supporters of the National Government—on behalf of this poor bereaved Irishwoman, in vindication of the outraged laws of society and of the Republic, we demand his punishment.

The particulars which we have received respecting this outrage are of such a character as to demand the interference of the British Minister. We hope a public example will be made of the culprit and the fellow who cut down the woman on the Boca road.

The news from Montevideo is of the most startling character. President Berro has arrested the rebellious senators, that is to say, the out-and-out 'blancos,' and sent them to the Panton. This caused a great sensation in the Mount, and showed that President Berro was determined to hold his own.

We regret sincerely to be obliged to make room for the complaint, which will be found in another column, against Captain Curlewis, whom we believed to be one of the most obliging commanders in the Plate. We nevertheless feel bound, as Captain Curlewis is, in every sense of the word, a public man to publish the complaint, which comes to us guaranteed by the most respectable parties. We think there must be some mistake, that very probably Capt. Curlewis never saw the boat in question. The public, however, ought to suspend its judgment, until we hear what the gallant captain has to say about the matter.

The reduction in the army, by order of the President, is regarded by many as a rather extraordinary measure; many consider that the President might have selected a better time than the present to adopt this economical plan. We however believe it to be a most necessary step, as the state of the treasury at present is not such as to justify the maintenance of a large standing army. The navy we understand will not be much diminished, that is to say, the old man-of-war tubs lying in the port of Martin Garcia will not be sold by auction. This is decidedly a judicious step on the part of Minister Gelly Obes, as, since the Boats left us, there are very few who would be inclined to make a bid for such unwieldy steamers.

part of the country news is that Sr. Pitan, who has been residing his life at the most unquiet of localities, rents, it now looking for land for himself. He rented a little too fast, and now we are told his sheep are lying from starvation. This estanciero lives near the Parí. Arcos—and up to the present had his camps in very superior condition.

Our talented friend, Mr. Murray, who submitted a chapter in the last number of the 'River Plate Magazine,' entitled 'How Old are We?' gets a frightful cutting up in to-day's paper. In the pen of an able correspondent we doubt if Mr. M. had even expected that in the River Plate he would receive such a severe yet powerful answer.

ANOTHER DUTCHMAN AT VILLAS MERCEDES. We have just learned the particulars of a shocking outrage committed on the persons of two industrious and inoffensive sheep farmers in the district of Villa Mercedes: the occurrence took place last month, but is now made public for the first time.

John and Patrick S... were parting two flocks of sheep which had been mixed, at one of their pastures. They had advised the neighbours, who accordingly came to claim any stray sheep that might belong to them. When went on quietly for some time, till about a pastime of a man, with a native man insisted on taking all the unmarked animals as his John S... offered to leave it to be decided by two neighbours and the shepherds of both flocks, and of the native man.

The native's only reply was to draw his knife, and with a loud epithet of execration attacked S... who defended himself with his hands, but got fearfully cut in both arms. Patrick came running out of the house with an ax, to attack the native, but the gaucho succeeded in parrying the thrust, and established the second brother in the chest. Then mounting his horse, he went home. The neighbours, who were present, demanded the arrest of the ruffian, who was seized some day and conveyed to Villa Mercedes, but the Juste de Paz at once liberated him. The date was pronounced the cases of the two brothers very dangerous, and for a time their lives were almost despaired of. John S... is still in a bad way, after 4 days confinement, his arms being bound.

The author of this shocking outrage is a free man and walks about, unconcerned as if he had only killed two sheep, and as if he had not murdered a Governor Saavedra was a Dámino of Japan.

HOW OLD ARE WE? We quote the following from the January number of the 'River Plate Magazine':—

The greater portion of men believe that the world was created some six thousand years ago, and give as their basis of opinion the first chapter of Genesis, which says that it was formed in six days, and their chronology makes out that this happened just six thousand years ago.

In the years 1851-54 perforations were made in the alluvial formation of Egypt to find out the age of a certain tract of the sediment of the Nile. Seventy borings were made, at a distance from towns, and there were found burnt bricks at a depth of seventy feet. If the Nile deposited in ancient times at the same rate as at present, that is five in every hundred years, the man who made those bricks lived twelve thousand years ago.

The fossil fish found at Albuville, in company with flint implements, differs in its anatomical conformation from that of the existing race of West-European animals, and in its sedimentary deposits which demonstrate that man existed when that part of the country was covered with water a hundred feet deep.

It is a fact of the country news is that Sr. Pitan, who has been residing his life at the most unquiet of localities, rents, it now looking for land for himself. He rented a little too fast, and now we are told his sheep are lying from starvation. This estanciero lives near the Parí. Arcos—and up to the present had his camps in very superior condition.

SAVINGS BANK.
BANK MAU& C.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now as generally felt, and appreciated in the great number of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place their most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 10th 1863.

p. p. Mau & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.
