IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE MOHICAN. The American war steamer Mohican arrived in this port on Tuesday evening from Rio Janeiro.

WAR BETWEEN FRANCE AND RUSSIA is hourly expected, and a general conflagration throughout Europe.

THE FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE ARMIES have been drawn into winter quarters on the Potomac, and it is supposed the war cannot last over six months.

EVERYTHING indicates that the war is virtually over, and we shall probably soon hear of a pacific arrangement.

GENERAL REMARKS ON PARAGUAY.

As this republic seems destined to rank third as a cotton-growing country, it is important that my readers in Manchester and elsewhere should have some accurate information than is contained in geographical gazetteers.

PARAGUAY is situated between 22 and 27 S. Lat. and 55 and 58 W. Long. including an area of 70,000 square miles.

the Matines; and with the Indians on the W. far the unconquered wilds of the Gran Chaco.

There are four large towns in the interior: Villa Rica, however, almost rivals Asuncion in the number of inhabitants.

The climate is warm and dry, the soil fertile and yielding in abundance all the fruits of the tropics.

From our abundance everywhere, and there is a large smelting establishment at Iticaya, founded by Government in 1854.

Among the wild animals are the ape, monkey, wild boar, jaguar, puma, tiger, and fox.

THE CARNIVAL.

Oh, for a muse to sing the feats of prowess, the knights and heroines, the ventures and disasters of the late campaign.

The signal gun was fired at 2 p.m. on Sunday 7th inst., but skirmishing had begun even before that time.

was formerly an humble occupation, scripping the crowded marts of Hecuba.

On Monday the battle slacked, and it is observed that the spirit of former years no longer animates the degenerate men of today.

On Monday the battle slacked, and it is observed that the spirit of former years no longer animates the degenerate men of today.

For some days the gallant youths and fair dames of the city will recount their personal feats, how long that the spirit of former times is dying out.

EDITORS TABLE.

Carnival is over: it was very tame this year. The respectable citizens went on 'pic-nic' excursions, &c., and with few exceptions, the play was confined to the rabble.

ENCAP OF CRIMINALS.

The murderer of Kit by six. On Sunday 8th inst. at 9 p.m. six murderers under sentence of death succeeded in effecting their escape from the public prison in Plaza Victoria.

To morrow the French packet leaves; our packet edition will be published to-morrow. A special edition containing the S. Fernando inauguration is ready for sale.

we have to welcome two Catholic clergymen, Rev. Messrs. Dillon and G. Brennan, of All Hallows' College, Dublin, arrived for the steamer Belle Poule, from Liverpool.

HORRIBLE POLICE OUTRAGE.

Attempted Assassination by a gang of Police. I, Carlos Burnegay, hereby certify that I have miraculously escaped from the attempt to murder me in my own house.

The alcalde, Pedro Garcia, 7th section had purchased from me on former occasions large quantities of beer, and I found some difficulty in recovering payment.

SLEEPY JUSTICE.

On Saturday we pointed out the sleepy justice of the Argentine Republic, and now we give an instance of the speedy execution of the British law.

EXTRAORDINARY DEED.

Our friend from the Globe Hotel, who has just gone up the river, has beaten Captain Maryatt hollow in the way of duels.

but it is a fact these six demons are let loose on society, simply because, as we observed last week, Justice in B. Ayres has been asleep for some time.

BRUCE'S TELEGRAMS.

Office, Hotel Comarca, Rosario, Feb. 9, 1-64, 2:05 p.m. Every soul in the town playing carnival.

No Grades in Rosario—all Corridors. Cordova quiet, and nothing new from the provinces.

SUNDAY'S BLOW.

The new Mole-head washed away. The Trunkey gone.

Sunday last, the first day of Carnival, was ushered into us with a terrible squall. The wind was so high in the morning that the passengers for Rosario, &c., could not go aboard the Pavon.

The head of the new Mole, in front of the Custom-house, was completely blown away, and the river was literally strewn with pieces of that expensive lumber.

Several small craft were sunk in the harbour, but they will be all rescued from a premature demise at low water.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We have to complain of the usurpation of the plural pronoun by correspondents, when it is only loggers to Kings, Bishops, and Editors.—Ed. STANDARD.

HOW OLD ARE WE?

As Mr. Murray has had the kindness to notice an article of ours published in the 'Standard' of Jan. 24, in which were several mistakes, some of which he has pointed out, induces me again to refer to the article, as we are willing to acknowledge them.

In speaking of the Bille, we said that 'an author knew something about geology long before Adam stole apples.'

To which Mr. Murray replies, 'We find in this article, we think, something that is not generally known, that is, that a man is a geologist, that is, certainly a great discovery.'

Our friend from the Globe Hotel, who has just gone up the river, has beaten Captain Maryatt hollow in the way of duels. We all know of the celebrated triangle duel in Ister Simple, but it was nothing to Erin's proposed engagement with four Argentines simultaneously.

centre of the largest valley on the globe—a valley, too, renowned for its utter freedom from rocks or stones of any kind.

We here make a quotation from a description of the earthquake at Lisbon in 1755, which appears so appropriate that we cannot pass it by—

"Multitudes of people sought safety from the falling buildings by crowding upon the marble quays which had just been constructed at great expense. It suddenly sank when they liked a ship foundering at sea; but when the waters closed over the place, no fragments of the wreck, none of the boats and vessels seen by that crew, of the thousands of bodies carried down re-appeared upon the spot."

One word more before we close. We bear no sentiments towards Mr. Murray that are far from friendly. We know that we are intruding upon his time, if nothing more, for which we ask his pardon. We understand that a similar discussion is going on in the present subject between the editor of the 'River Plate Magazine' and Dr. Fitzsimons, with which we have nothing to do.

THE OTHER SID. OF THE HAMMOCK.

Our fleet surgeon—a pompous, hasty old fellow, but good in his way—was summoned, attended by his assistant-examining the sick as they presented their 'stick bay' was filled with patients, whose hammocks were slung in rows. The doctor, being a methodical man, put up one row and down the others, prescribing as he went, while prescriptions were noted by his attentive junior. A man with a lame back was in the first row and his hammock was caught by one writ by the doctor, who, with watch in hand, counted the pulse, and spoke as follows: 'You are very sick; typhus intercutanea (yellow fever) in its first stages; must have a mustard bath, then twenty grains of calomel, with a cathartic the next morning. No more saying, passed. He finished that row, and started back on the other side. Getting along quite rapidly, he saw an elderly man, of a homely but immediately seized it, as usual, counted the pulse, then took a look at the man's tongue, asked him a few questions, and broke out with, 'Oh, you lazy, good-for-nothing skulker! Get out of your hammock and go on deck to work! You're no more sick than I am! I'll have you reported for black-list duty immediately.' And muttering about skulkers &c., he was about proceeding when his attendant horrified him by saying, 'Doctor, this is James Jones, for whom you have prescribed already on the other side of his hammock. You said that he had yellow fever, and told me to give him a mustard bath and calomel.' 'Yes, yes; I was wrong the last time; did not examine closely enough. Let's see again.' 'No! yes; his got yellow fever indeed.' 'H'm! up to the first prescription.'

LOCAL EVENTS.

Carnival.—This festive season has come to a conclusion, and, as far as we can learn, good-humouredly too. All parties seemed to come in for their share of the Acevedo sea; but as yet, and take was the order of the day, there could be no affair given where none was intended. As an instance of the scenes that occurred, we mention the following: Three Englishmen in the Colo, who were executing a 'pas de deux,' as they thought graciously, but the vigilantes, who sometimes will not let for loose otherwise, intimated that they would wish their presence at the Police. On arriving there, one of the Englishmen explained that they had been singing 'Pop goes the weasel,' accompanying each verse with the 'double shuffle,' and that nothing offensive was intended. This explanation was deemed sufficient, and on being recognized as subscribers to the 'Standard,' an apology was made for the rudeness of the vigilantes, and they retired as untroubled as before.

Chile.—Affairs between Chile and Bolivia are still looking very dark and warlike. It was reported that all political connection between the countries had been broken off, and that the Bolivian Minister had demanded, and received, his passport. It is feared that some epidemic may break out, owing to the great scarcity of water. Chile is said to have received from Calao several large rifled guns, which have been put on board for some time past, having been ordered out from England, so as to be prepared for any emergency. The Government has been engaged in strengthening the navy. There has been a severe shock of an earthquake in Copiapo, by which several persons had lost their lives. Further particulars were not known.

Atenco.—By latest accounts from Acapulco the fates were rather, if any thing, in favour of the republic. The death of General Comont was confirmed.

San Juan.—The foreign inhabitants had presented an address to the Governor, requesting him to suspend for some time his visit to the United States. Major Richard has quite approved of all the preliminary works executed by Don Guillermo Bonaparte. The construction of the remaining works is proceeding with all due celerity. The mines of Central are still giving a good yield, as also the Sucreoeyna. The approaching political contests are engrossing public attention.

Cordoba.—The revolution has not yet been put a stop to, but it is generally supposed that it will soon die a natural death.

A Voice from the Deep.—About the end of last year a sealed bottle was picked up near Marseille, containing the following lines:—'We have been wrecked on the coast of Spain, on 13th Nov. 1853—21 passengers who were on board none have escaped.'

The Ruins of the Compañia Churra.—In deference to the wishes of the archbishop of Santiago (Chile) President Perez has given orders that the ruins of this once beautiful edifice shall not be removed. It appears that this determination is causing great discontent amongst the inhabitants of Valparaiso; this being the port most frequented by foreigners, the native population is not altogether so those of the capital.

Great and Good News.
In consequence of a number of well known respectable people having applied to Mr. Vincent, the proprietor of the magnificent Hotel de la Paz, requesting him to open his establishment during the three nights of Carnival, Mr. Vincent has accepted of their request, and begs to advertise the 'Dandies' in general that they have at their disposal a place suitable for regaling their lady partners during these three nights. It is needless here to speak of, in high terms, the rich viands and wines which Mr. Vincent has always at the command of his customers, and the prompt service of this truly regal hotel. Let every one know now that the point of attraction of this year's Carnival will be the well known Hotel de la Paz.
