Mit falsi auctorem aut veri non auctorem dicitur. — Cicero. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1864.

THE DOUBLE VICTORY. In Argentine annals we read more than once of battles in which both combatants retired from the field in disorder, neither confessing a defeat, although feeling terribly demoralized. We can, therefore, easily account for the paradoxical election of Sunday last, which gave general satisfaction, as Crudos and Cocidos alike entone hymns of victory. The lists are published, and it betrays an innate amiability of character on the part of B. Ayrean candidates that all parties are equally satisfied at the result. Philosophers, in endeavouring to seek the primary truth, did not content themselves with Descartes' famous aphorism, 'cogito, ergo sum,' but chose as a universal basis the axiom, 'It is impossible for a thing to be and not be at the same time.' Happily, a new era has arisen for science in B. Ayres: the Crudos are and are not victorious—the Cocidos are and are not vanquished. For this wonderful discovery, read the papers of the rival clubs, and be convinced.

Respecting the city, both parties erred in their calculations. The 'Cocidos' anticipated a majority of some thousands, and barely saved their distance by 270 votes or 7 per cent of the gross number. The 'Crudos,' instead of polling more than half the city, could not muster one third. So little interest did the public take in the rivalry of fictions, that over 40 per cent abstained from voting. Nor can we charge the letter with dereliction of duty or want of patriotism, for, as we already declared (and General Mitre expressed the same), it matters not a dollar of our rotten currency which list gains. No honest man thinks the country will be ruined by electing D. Norberto Riestra, nor can even Dr. Chasagoy's most enthusiastic admirers believe that the hero of the overland route to Cordoba will infuse much wisdom into the National councils.

Following the adage, 'he that is not with me, is against me,' we find that instead of both lists gaining, both have been signally defeated. Nine hundred have protested against the Cocidos, twelve hundred against the Crudos, but fifteen hundred have condemned both; judging, like General Hornos, that it is a question of personal ambition, in which the public is sure to lose, win who will. Under these circumstances, both of the victors should make a modest use of the triumph, for neither represents the real feeling of this city.

Let our European readers fancy a population of 160,000 souls, enjoying universal suffrage, in which the successful candidates (even with all the aid of Government influence) cannot muster one per cent of that figure, in their support. This simple fact is conclusive, showing to what a low ebb political integrity has fallen in Buenos Ayres, and how disgusted is the public.

As usual the combatants throw dirt at each other; we read of double and triple voters, of 60 bad votes in San Nicolas parish, of forged registers, of bribery, of intimidation, &c. Nevertheless there is probably little room for such accusations, and we may call it a model election, so far as those who voted were concerned. In eight parishes the Cocidos gained, in three the Crudos, and one (San Nicolas) is disputed.

to shoot all who did not conform their consciences to that of the Bishop's nephew (Acosta).

As the natural result of such intimidation we find various districts have voted en masse for the Crudos. Any one acquainted with camp matters will know the absurdity of gauchic elections: as well might the city water-carriers drive their horses to the poll, and turn the scale of victory by the number of heads. In Magdalena not a single Cocido vote was recorded, while 393 enthusiastic citizens declared their preference for Montes de Oca over Chasagoy.

Table with 2 columns: Crudos, Cocidos. Lists names and vote counts for various parishes like San José de Flores, Lomas de Zamora, etc.

Here is a majority, (including the city), of fifteen hundred for the Crudos, but the strongholds of the Cocidos have not yet sent their returns, and the issue seems in favor of the latter. The N. Argentina gives the following yet received.

Table with 2 columns: Crudos, Cocidos. Lists names and vote counts for parishes like Chascomus, San Vicente, Rancho, etc.

The Acrobats of the Press.

The lovers of tight-ropes were for a time dazzled by the capers and somersaults of four wonderful acrobats in Colon Theatre, and a nice sum was realized by selling their photographs, when about to leave us. They are encased in many an album, and literature has immortalized them in the above familiar distich.

are 'lothered' about 'albums,' and Frigio de Girardin says something about 'last year 'twas fighting, now it's only talk,' which H. F. V. does not understand any more than he did the sermon of Dumas, when he asked him for something for his album: 'it is a pity there are so many fools and so few wise men.'

H. F. V. salutes the 'Nacional' and 'Nacion Argentina,' and, by the rules of the Mutual Admirability Society, calls D'Amico a writer of stupendous talent. Unhappily the silver talents of that paper are every day declining. He admira Gutierrez is a very smart fellow, with all the superciliousness of a Macaulay who praises the composition of a grammar-school pupil. He quotes Seneca, "that man should be sacred to man," but we cannot see the force of the sentence or its application.

Enough! H. F. V. has not been cured of vanity, but we are willing to admit the Pecosaurus of yesterday and abseive Hector for his brother's backslidings. Of course the profits of the paper are in common, though not the responsibility, and Mariano loses nothing by a temporary ostracism. He may even, like Hector, improve his health by crossing the Atlantic.

LETTERS FROM MONTEVIDEO. A passenger arrived yesterday morning per 'Caaguazu,' with the following important news:—Flores was still closely investing Montevideo and firing was heard at intervals by night. On Sunday night an attack on the town was feared, and the troops drove the crowd out of the plaza, at the point of the bayonet. About 11 p. m. the besiegers commenced firing on the barracks, some ten shots being discharged from Flores' solitary 6 pounder.

Flores' forces number nearly 3,000 men; the garrison, including Nat. Guards, about 2,000. The army under Servando Gomez is shortly expected to relieve the city, being 3,000 strong, and including two good battalions, Bastardes and Lengua; as their whereabouts is not exactly known, and they march slowly, Flores has a chance of taking the city by a coup de main. If he waits, and loses the game this time, he is undone.

MEANTIME arrests follow quickly, one after another, the presence of the filibuster general serving still more to compromise his partisans within the walls. Everyone is grumbling of Pres. Herro's severity, although it is probably necessary, but he cannot long hold his ground, on so fragile a power. We do not hear of pacific overtures on either side; neither is there much disposition to fight.

THE CHAMBER of Senators was summoned on Sunday to read a special message from the President, asking what's to be done? but a quorum could not be formed, and the meeting was postponed till same night. Again the number was short, and nothing could be done. This was partly owing to the banishment of several senators, and the refusal of some others to attend.

The series of Royal replies to the French Imperial proposal for a Congress has been completed by the arrival, and publication in the 'Moniteur,' of the letter of the Sultan. That document is highly complimentary to the Emperor, but the acceptance of the Congress proposal is conditional.

The French Government is said to have at last yielded to the pressing solicitations of the Italian Government for 50,000 rifles. The order for the exportation of the weapons has been issued from the Ministry of War, undeterred by the conviction, it is said, that many of the guns will find their way into Hungary. This statement is looked upon as irreconcilable with the declaration of M. Rouher, that "we were Italy to burst forth into war she would do so at her own risk, and must expect no help from France."

A letter from Milan, in contradiction of the assurances of peace which proceed from Paris, states that several French officers are now in Italy inspecting the military forces of that country, and daily conferences take place at Turin between the Italian War Minister and a French general. By order of the King, every facility is given the French officers to study and inspect the whole lines both of the Mincio and the Po. In Lombardy six field hospitals have been established, and the necessary ambulances have been provided.

The ex-King of Naples is now raising, through a French banking firm, a loan of 30,000,000 francs. The Pope received the annual congratulations of the cardinals on Saturday, when, in allocution, he expressed his confidence that the Church would recover possession of the usurped provinces, by firmness, constancy, and prudence. He declared that he expected serious events next year, but entreated the cardinals to remain calm, for the Church would ultimately triumph.

Accounts received from Poland speak of the apparent impossibility of suppressing the insurrection. The continuance of Russian brutality has created a fixed determination on the part of the Poles never to surrender to their oppressors, and, as a consequence, we hear of the most dreadful tortures supported with the utmost bravery and heroism.

Orders have been received at Hamburg to prepare immediately the necessary quarters for the reception of the medical staff, surgeons, and assistants of the field lazaretto of the third Prussian army corps.

According to the letter of the Paris correspondent of the 'Morning Post,' the state of Greece is most deplorable. The Treasury is said to be empty, the army is demoralised, and the country in a state of anarchy. It is added a coup d'etat of some sort will be necessary.

for Mexico "to prevent himself to the wishes of the people who have proclaimed their Sovereign;" on the other, he is represented as having positively refused the throne, and the French Government as being about to recall the troops from Mexico, which are to be replaced by a foreign legion of 12,500 men. The rumour, however, needs confirmation.

By way of the Pacific, we have dates from that Republic up to the 11th December. Notices from the city of Mexico and San Luis de Potosi, continue favourable to the Republican cause. "By a private letter (says the 'Tribuna') we learn that the French expedition had left the city of Mexico about the middle of November, and although it consisted of 16,000 men, counting French troops and Mexicans who had joined their cause, they had effected nothing decisive against Queretaro or Guanajuato: the roads were still muddy and bad, and all the country infested with guerrillas. Comonfort, who had been appointed General-in-Chief, on going to take command of the army, accompanied by 100 chiefs and officers, was surprised by Mejia. They were taken aback so suddenly, that they had to fight against a body of 2000 men, and were all taken prisoners. Comonfort fell in the action."

General Doblado, who is now in charge of the forces intended to resist the French, has taken possession of eight leagues of the most rugged part of the road, so as to make use of his army of 20,000 men as guerrillas. General Bazaine is constantly falling into ambushes. General Negrete has reinforced himself, and is about to make an attack on the French, who have gone into quarters. There are upwards of 1,000 guerrillas in front of the city of Mexico, besides many more in the neighbourhood of Orizaba and Puebla.

Two large French convoys are said to have fallen into the hands of the Mexicans, the one between Vera Cruz and Orizaba, and the other between Cuernavaca and Mexico.

The 'Eco del Rio Negro' has the following news: "The sea still continuing, news from the camp was every day more depressing, and the small amount of sheep which still remained in the partido are suffering from the bad state of the pasture. With regard to the war, it says: The Rincon de las Gallinas is still the scene of the deeds of some parties of Floristas. The broken and uneven nature of the country affords shelter to these troops which would be unable to withstand an attack on more level ground. Since the clearing out of the Isla Infante and other montes of Yaaguari, these bodies of Floristas disappeared, but this week (14th Feb.) they have again made their appearance on the side of the Rio Negro, in front of Veredez. Early yesterday morning some thirty men made their appearance near Mercedes, but as soon as this was known two boats went out into the middle of the river, and after a sharp firing managed to dislodge them from their position. Further particulars of this skirmish are not known."

DEATH OF COCONFORT. In the obituary of the 'Times,' received by this mail, the death of this Mexican patriot General is simply mentioned as though he was no greater person than William Brown, Thomas Jones, or George Robinson. It is a pretty fair sign of what the good folks in Europe think of Spanish American politicians.

MEX WHO MET-TOOK THEIR CALLING.—Mr. Charles Matthews made his first appearance in the character of a student of architecture. Ben Jonson was apprentice to a bricklayer, and then enlisted for a soldier, before he set up as a wit-combatant with Shakespeare, and fell out with Inigo Jones, who was a member of the club Sir Walter Raleigh founded, and wrote that song "Drink to me only with thine eyes," that lies like a loose pearl among his more lengthy works. James Cook, the navigator, instead of running away to sea like another Robinson Crusoe, was apprenticed to a small country shipkeeper, who, however, detecting the vital games the lad cast towards the ocean, returned him his indentures. As a reverse to this example, enacted within remembrance, Clarkson Stoddard, R. A., went to sea instead of turning his department straightway to a studio. Mr. Charles Dickens and the younger Disraeli both mistook their roads on first setting out in life, thinking a lawyer's office lay in their right path, Barry Cornwall fell into the same error. Mr. Thackeray likewise lost his way at first, and tarried in Rome, studying as an artist. David Roberts, R. A., climbed the ladder that led to his present elevation from the level of a house-painter's apprentice, with an interval of noviciate ship spent as a scene-painter in Drury Lane Theatre. Mr. Kuskin quitted with the brush before he took up the pen, as vigorously as Bishop Colenso attacked algebra before he distinguished himself as a theologian.—BUILDER.

ANTI-DOT FOR CLOFORM.—A Paris letter says:—A doctor here has discovered that brandy or rum is the best antidote for cloform, and that it will at once counteract the effects of an overdose.

PAPER.—The firm of Messrs. W. & R. Chambers consume an annual quantity of paper averaging 220 tons. Another distinguished firm consumes 250 tons, which at 5d. a pound, is over £11,000. The saving to the latter firm in duty is about £2,775.

ALEXANDER DUMAS.—The Figaro Programme publishes the following curious detail:—Alexandre Dumas, the novelist, is no longer paid by the line, but by the letter. Yes, the 'San Felipe,' which is now published, is paid for at the rate of a centime a letter! We can guarantee the exactitude of this fact.

PHOTOGRAPHIC CHINA.—A new discovery, or rather application, of photography has been made by a Mr. W. S. Shirras, of Aberdeen, who is busy transferring photographs from paper to china. The portraits are quite perfect. We may now expect to see house-hold tea-service adorned with the likenesses of our friends. It would be an improvement if the cup were prepared photographically, so as to take the likeness of the person while he was sipping his Bohemian.

PRIZES CAPTURED BY THE FEDERALS.—The Secretary of the Federal Navy, in his official report to Congress, refers to the number and value of the prizes captured since the declaration of the blockade. He says that the captures of 1,045 prizes, representing property to the amount of upwards of £3,000,000, have been submitted to the judgment of the Federal prize courts. About half that sum has been adjudicated upon, leaving after paying all expenses, about £1,200,000 for distribution amongst the captors of the several prizes.

LATEST ELECTION REPORT.

VICTORY FOR THE COCIDOS. A friend has just favored us with the latest returns, showing a large majority for the "National" party.

Table with 2 columns: Crudos, Cocidos majority. Lists names and vote counts for parishes like Fortin de Arco, Lobos, Navarro, etc.

The Crudos expect majorities in 25 de Mayo, Baradero, Pergamino, Junin, Tordillo, Ajó, Monsalvo, Dolores, 'archi-quitos, Loberia, Vecino, and Bragado. The Cocidos count on Tandil, Tapalquea, Azul, Rojas, Patagones, and Bahía Blanca. It is thought the majority for whichever side will be under 500.

ATTACK ON MONTEVIDEO.

Last night, about twelve o'clock, Flores attacked Montevideo, in the Aguada, and was repulsed. A good deal of shot was fired from the 'cantones,' in the Aguada, and from the steamer Pulaski. Flores had a couple of pieces of artillery in action; in all, 30 or 40 cannon shots were fired. We cannot find out if any damage was done, as communication with the advance guards is cut off. SAVINGS BANK BANK MAUZ & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauz & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount. These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauz & Co. of this city following the example of their

The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.

This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of the establishment to even the humbler classes. Public attention is, therefore, specially called to the manner of subscriptions, and the inversion of funds, according to the rules of the association.

The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows: 1st. On one's own life, in shares of $5 silver each. These subscriptions liquidated at any time, at the subscriber's time and option. 2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest for feited by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however is returned. 3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class.

The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (finca), and with the greatest security. The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company. For further particulars, apply at the Co's office 87 calle S. Martin (altos) between the hours of 11 - 4; prospectuses given on application.

BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.

Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1852.

As a sample of English clock work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the best that have ever been made in this country. Benson's watches are the most perfect specimens of the art of horology in the present age. They are distinguished by their beauty and accuracy of movement, and their durability. The movements are of the finest quality, and will resist the rigors of any climate. The cases are of the most elegant design, and well adapted for the purpose of being carried in the pocket. Watches are made for every class, climate, and country, wholesale and retail. Chronometer, Duplex, Lever, Horizontal, Breguet, Centre Seconds, Keyless, and other watches. Watches, Chronometers, and Barometers, from 1/6 to 1/2 guinea each. Clocks, Drawing Room, Dining Room, Bed Room, Library, Hall, Billiard, Bracket, Cottage, Chimney, Medical, Astronomical, Church, Tower, Table, Railway, Post-office, Shop, Warehouse, Office, or Counting-house, from 1/6 to 1/2 guinea each.

ENGLISH SADDLERY AND HARNESS ESTABLISHMENT

86-Piedad-86. Safford Bros.

No more Scab in Sheep.

Patented by Government. General Store in Buenos Ayres at 265 CALLE BUEN ORDEN. Store at Villa Mercedes, of Messrs Kants and Schöwengel. Store at Tuyú, Establishment of D. Carlos Geyer. The shearing time being now over the inventor of the Anti-Scab Specific for curing Contagious Diseases in Sheep, and all domestic Animals, begs to inform the Estancieros that it can never be applied to such effect as after shearing, when it not only cures the worst cases, but acts as a preservative against the disease. The simplest method is bathing the animal, whether sound or affected, in the manner prescribed by the instructions. The specific has been already found an effective remedy for Insects [Garrapatas]. Numerous certificates may be seen, showing the high repute of the Specific throughout S. America. Its low price places it within the reach of all, 25 b. sufficient for 800 or 1000 Sheep. It contains no poisonous quality, and is sold at the above Depots. CARLOS GEYER. 1 m, j 5.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACOS. Dir.—Mr. Pongcrard, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind. An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to. The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction. Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters. The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quaintes of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres. For particulars apply for prospectuses at the Standard Office, Calle Belgrano 74. Dr. P. PONGERARD. 1 m, j 8.
