SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU& C^o

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have no hitherto been enjoyed in this city, by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings on at interest, while providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, in the end of spending them in the imminent gambling, in lotteries and other frivolous amusements.
The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
p. p. Mau & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6 p c) per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rates established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Offices—87 calle SAN MARTIN.

The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.
This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of life insurance to even the humbler classes.
Particular attention is therefore, specially called to the manner of subscriptions, and the investment of funds, according to the wishes of the associations.
The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:
1st. On any sum of capital, in shares of $5 each and up. These subscriptions liquidated at any time at the subscriber's time and option.
2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest for profit by the death of other shareholders in their Class, which is carried, however, is returned.
3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class will gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class.
All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.
The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (finca), and with the greatest security.
The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company.
For further particulars, apply at the Co's Office 87 calle S. Martin (altos) between the hours of 11 — 4; prospectus given on application.
