are done "it is time for underwriters to look out." The compromise is that Mr. Lindsay takes $4,500 out of the money lodged in court, the residue remaining with the underwriters, and each party pays his own costs.

THE ITALIAN OPERA.

Never was any opera better rendered in B. Ayres than Norma, on Wednesday evening, by Messrs. Briol & Mollo and Sig. Lelmi.

The recital of those pieces eliciting applause would be a repetition of the whole play but we must remark en passant that the Druide, March and others parts of chorus were much better than we had expected.
