NEW CAMP ADMINISTRATION

The rural districts of Buenos Ayres have the peculiar privileges of a Governor, Cabinet, and two Legislative Chambers.

THE ENTRE-RIANO MURDER.

Our readers will find in another column the full particulars of the murder of an unfortunate man named Acosta, in Victoria, Entre Rios, whose only crime, it appears, was that he was a Porteño.

The murderers acknowledged that they went to Acosta's house for the purpose of murdering him. Not the slightest attempt at a denial of the crime is made.

The Chief of the Police, a scoundrel called Salari, instead of sending off to the scene of crime when notified, actually keeps the neighbour, who informed him of the matter, a close prisoner until morning.

The proper way to act in the case of Acosta is to hang the Chief of Police, Salari, for allowing the murderer to escape, and it should be an invariable rule in this country that where, through the negligence of the authorities, a murderer is permitted to escape, the officers of the law should be obliged to take the fugitive's place.

disorder, being unable to repress crime in their districts, and almost irresponsible for their own short comings.

Fifty 'partidos' are as so many independent States, without any extradition treaty, and it is common for a murderer to remove, as in the case of Kirby's assassin, a few leagues from the scene of his crimes.

It is now proposed to divide this province into three 'comandancias militares,' and such a plan seems likely to bring about a better police administration, and more unity of action as well as responsibility.

To be frank, we have little confidence in any measure originating from Minister Acosta, whose circular to the Municipality proved a sham, as did also his airy promises of camp reform, and Alsina's rural code.

The 'Pueblo' opposes the new scheme as an electioneering manoeuvre: God forgive us, the black draught again! It seems this baneful folly of 'Crudos o Cocidos' enters into everything.

There is a Minister in Buenos Ayres, named Acosta, let him not forget that his unfortunate namesake was murdered barbarously in Entre Rios, simply because he was a Porteño.

Let him remember that the assassin of his countryman, like the murderer of poor Davy, in the Guardia Monte, like Kirby's murderer, and so many thousand others, was permitted to escape; but let him not ask of General Urquiza to hang the Chief of Police of Victoria in lieu of the escaped assassin, lest he should be told to go first and set the example.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Carlos Paz's resignation is decidedly one of the most spirited attempts on the part of a public employee, to bring ridicule on his Government, we ever read.

Mr. Paz admits that the salary he was receiving was his only means of support, but with the greatest coolness tells Governor Saavedra that the office which he held, namely secretary to the Inspector-General of Militias is a sinecure and a lumbago, and should be abolished; furthermore, some fellows it appears walked into Mr. Paz's office during his absence, and cleared out with the register of voters, which the Minister well knows would have proved the frauds committed by several of the Justices of the Peace.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.

Having, 6th Jan. 1864. To His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Argentine Republic, Dr. Don Rufino de Elizalde.

Your Excellency, I beg to confirm the despatch which I had the honor to direct to you on 22nd Nov 1863, and I now lay before you a statement of the commercial movements between Havre and the Argentine Republic.

There have sailed from this port for the Republic, in 1863, 29 vessels with an average tonnage of 473 20/100.

On the other hand 52 vessels have arrived at Havre from Buenos Ayres with having arrived per 'Quito.' Nevertheless the maritime list of the 21st and 22nd has no notice of her. She may be expected next week, but of course brings no later news.

A correspondent finds fault with our quotation of gold in New York. We copied from the 'Liverpool Mercury' 27th, and gave the extract to one of our subscribers who also fancied that we had made a mistake.

Horrible Murder in Entre Rios.

We extract the following particulars from the 'Ferro-Carril,' of Rosario, respecting a most atrocious murder committed at Victoria, in Entre Rios: On Monday, the 18th January, about two o'clock in the morning, a horrible murder was committed in Victoria, one Florencio Acosta was the victim.

It appears that Basualdo and Gonzalez were in a billiard-room: the former stated that he was anxious to murder a Porteño, one of the new clerks of the National Government, but as Basualdo found some difficulty in carrying out his purpose, he was obliged to give up the matter.

The 'La Plata,' lying in the outer roads is advertised to sail for Montevideo and Liverpool on the 2nd. prox. This is an excellent opportunity for parties seeking a quick and cheap passage home, or wishing to bring out friends from Ireland.

The camps of the 'partidos' are rapidly improving, but the young grass and the dead are telling severely on weak sheep; great numbers are dying of diarrhoea according to some, and of dysentery according to others.

On Saturday evening we were visited by a very severe dust storm, followed during the early part of the night by rain.

AMERICAN MON Y MARKET.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 23, 1864. Gentlemen, As a subscriber I beg leave to tender you my best thanks for the extensive and interesting news brought by the 'Quito,' and which I don't find in the native papers.

At the same time I call your attention to the quotations of gold and exchange on London on the 16th of January in New York, which must be decidedly most erroneous.

Europe is threatened with war, and owing to the long war in the United States, industry has been seriously interfered with and paralysed, thus causing the number of unemployed to be increased to a great degree.

likely that the quotation on the 16th of January (morning) is right in sterling but erroneous in gold, arising most probably from an error in print in the papers from which you have taken the dates.

Yours very truly, E.

The Palmerston Divorce Case.

Yesterday, in consequence of announcements made in the morning papers that the divorce case in which Lord Palmerston figures as the co-respondent would come on for hearing in the London Divorce Court, an immense crowd of barristers and others assembled at that court at twelve o'clock.

The following is a copy of the petition: In Her Majesty's Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, in the matter of Timothy Joseph O'Kane, of No. 21 Inverness-road, Bayswater, in the county of Middlesex, gentleman, dated the 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1863.

That your petitioner, on the 2nd of October, 1851, was lawfully married to Margaret Matilda Augusta Morris, of No. 2 John street, Sutton-street, Commercial-road East, in the said county of Middlesex, spinster, at St. George's in the East, in the said county of Middlesex.

That after his said marriage your petitioner lived and cohabited with his said wife at No. 2 John street, Sutton-street, Commercial-road East, aforesaid, at Gravesend in the county of Kent; at Dingle, Killinney, and Tralee, all in the county of Kerry, in Ireland; and at 26 Grove place, Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, and that there was issue in the marriage, namely, one son and four daughters.

That on or about the 16th day of June, 1853, and at divers other days and times, at Cambridge House, No. 4, Piccadilly, in the said county of Middlesex, and at divers other places, the said Margaret Matilda Augusta O'Kane committed adultery with one Henry John Temple, Viscount Palmerston, K.G., First Lord of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Your petitioner, therefore, humbly prays that this honorable court will be pleased to decree and declare the said marriage of your petitioner and the said Margaret Matilda Augusta O'Kane to be dissolved. And that your petitioner may have such further aid and relief in the premises as to this honorable court may seem meet.

PILAR.

The camps of the 'partidos' are rapidly improving, but the young grass and the dead are telling severely on weak sheep; great numbers are dying of diarrhoea according to some, and of dysentery according to others.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU&CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo.—
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September

The shearing time being now over the inventor of the Anti-Seab Specific for sheep, Juan U. Ducasen in Sheep, and domestic Animals, begs to inform the Estancieros that it can never be applied to such effect as after shearing, when it not only cures the worst cases, but acts as a preservative against the disease.

The simplest method is bathing the animal, whether sound or affected, in the summer prescribed by the instructions.

The specific has been a ready found an effective remedy for Insects (Garrapatas). Numerous certificates may be seen, showing the high value of the Specific throughout S. America. Its low price places it within the reach of all, 25 b. sufficient for 500 or 1000 Sheep. It contains no poisonous quality, and is sold at the above Depots.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
SALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS

For—Mr. Pongward, of the London University College.
This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronised by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education, combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.
An over-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.
The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, (History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction.
Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.
The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful quarters of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
For particulars apply for prospectuses at the Standard Office, Calle Belgrano 74.
