Wednesday, March 2, 1864... The New Finance Minister... Dr. Lucas González has been called by President Mitre to take the portfolio of National Finance.

The following official document for liberty to run a steam locomotive along the Paseo de Julio, has been expedited by the Municipality... Buenos Ayres, 25th February.

Dr. Sarsfield, the inventor of that extraordinary machine, the Bank of B. Ayres, was not very successful in his schemes.

Dr. Elizalde has acquired an unlucky reputation for deficits and after his failure for eighteen millions in the Buenos Ayres firm, we never thought he should get the management of the Argentine Financial Company.

The Minister of the Interior intercedes for his financial brother, begging the Governor of Buenos Ayres to reduce the debt agreed by to the Nation.

At such a time we have the announcement of new prophet in the ex-Senator of Santa Fe, Sr. Peña declared him the honor with thanks.

The official paper simply congratulates him, the Tribunal hopes he will turn out well. We may add that he has served an apprenticeship in financial matters.

Programme of the inauguration of the works, Thursday, March 3rd, 1864... The entrance for invited guests will be in the Calle Caballero.

Congress coming for the guests, after the ceremony, will wait at the Matadero till near the first station, but need not remain in the Convalecencia high-road.

The Chairman of the Committee will briefly explain the objects of the proposed, and hand to their Excellencies the instruments for turning the first sod.

A LOCOMOTIVE TO THE 25 DE MAYO... The following official document for liberty to run a steam locomotive along the Paseo de Julio, has been expedited by the Municipality.

Buenos Ayres, 25th February. To the Minister of Hacienda of the Province, Don Luis L. Donizcochea... The Municipality has been carefully examining the request of the Northern Railway Company.

As the railway company, in introducing a steam locomotive on to the present railway, will require to make considerable changes in the present road.

On one of two alternatives is thus offered to the Company either to purchase the house of Don Lorenzo...

In sign of the report passed by the Municipality, granted to the Northern Railway to run a steam locomotive on their present tramway between the Retiro and Custom house.

The inauguration of the Great Southern Railway Works will take place on to-morrow at 11:30 a.m., according to the invitation with which we have been favoured.

To-night Mico Bion appears in Treviño, and he will not be heard in 'Lidiano,' and for this purpose we must go early as it occurs in the first scene.

The appointment of Colonel Conesa to the post of Inspector of Militia for the Province of Buenos Ayres, will probably surprise the Caudillos.

The Villa Mercedes is at last provided with a branch paper-bank. The neighbors petitioned for the blessings of a bank from this city to the upper part of the Province.

Refugees are crowding in upon us from the Province of Buenos Ayres. The French packet brought from Rio Janeiro six of the senators banished by President Beron to that city.

We call attention to the agency of Incubators which looks promisingly directed from this city to the upper part of the Province.

The Roman historian censured his eulogium of Augustus by saying that the found of his empire was not left it of nature.

The White claim, arranged some time ago, between the American Minister and the Government is ordered to be paid, with interest on the Bonds since January of this year.

The Dublin law authorities have decided that ladies can vote for the election of town commissioners.

The 'River Plate Magazine' is sent round to-day. We have not yet received the 'Revista de Buenos Ayres.'

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP HUGHES... To-day it devolves upon us to announce the death of another good ecclesiastic and great Irishman.

The Government has just arranged the terms on which Irish which have been sold to the Government.

Mount St. Mary's, at Emmetsburg, Maryland. Speaking of this period of his life, the Archbishop, in a speech delivered in Dublin during one of his last visits to the old country, remarked:

I was long westward to another country beyond the Atlantic ocean. In that country I had an opportunity of improving my education, for legislation there had not attempted to monopolize and appropriate to itself the key of knowledge.

Thirteen years subsequently, in 1833, he was raised to the episcopacy, and consecrated Bishop of New York, and in two years afterwards the sea was just to be left behind.

With respect to the paragraph relating to the forty days, the 'Uraguay' says:

The term of forty days mentioned by Government for the presentation and recognizing by Government of the title deeds appears to us to be very short.

Dates from Mexico are up to 22nd December. The French journals say that the Imperial cause is gaining ground fast.

These appears to be an early proof of the creation of an improved port for cargoes destined for Buenos Ayres.
