SUNDAY, MARCH 20, 1864.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Things could not be much truer about town than at present. People are so heartily sick of the crudo and ocido fight that only in the rendezvous in the Calle Florida...

The pistol and revolver auction is still going on, and things are going monstrously cheap. If Flores only had a little spare cash...

CONFESSION OF CAPT. VARAS. In the city of Salto, on the 6th of March, 1864, I, Frederic Varas, being taken prisoner by Colonel Lengua...

Another vessel has arrived from England with bolts and rods for the Western Railway. Mr. Haeley, who formerly was a private individual...

Dr. Washington A. Kierman has passed his examination at the Faculty of Medicine. The voting, as in the first, was unanimous. So congratulate our talented fellow-townsmen, who, we understand, is an M.D. of Dublin, and is already formed an excellent city connection.

PUBLIC SPIRIT.

I say, Mr. Editor, did you ever see a young fellow that our youth call 'the public spirit'?

As to Blonviz, he is only a friend of mine, and partner of Flores, but he never took any active part. On arriving at Fray Bentos I learned from his clerks that he was a prisoner at Fray Bentos.

When Flores made me Commissary at Fray Bentos, my eight men were without arms or uniforms, and being reproached by others, I sent Hecualdo Oliver (son of the above-named) to Buenos Ayres...

There's a good fellow, try. PANORGE. N.B.—Mr. Touchstone will be unwell to-day. He takes a queer view of things in general, and in particular, were he to invest a few dollars at Messrs. Murray and Cromwell's in the purchase of half-dozen boxes of snuff-box pills.

THE UNFORTUNATE HONOURABLE PALET. Our readers will remember a Canadian gentleman of Polish descent, who lodged last year in Calle Mayo and disappeared rather suddenly. The following is the narrative in his account of his death, tallying in every particular with the person we name.

THE PERANABO PAPERS PUBLISHED. On the 25th of March there was found, at Susunua, district of Jalubutan, the corpse of a white man, in a state of perfect preservation.

Another vessel has arrived from England with bolts and rods for the Western Railway. Mr. Haeley, who formerly was a private individual, has suddenly become one of the largest importers in Buenos Ayres.

On driving at Buenos Ayres I delivered my letters, and conferred with the revolutionary committee, composed of Ferreira, Villar, Benito, and Bustamante. Ferreira put me in charge of a pilot-boat with the Argentine flag containing 1,500 uniforms and some boxes of ammunition, giving me at the same time a letter for the Argentine Admiral, Muratori.

camp being burnt to a cinder the surviving quadrupeds perished of starvation. Strange it is that, at such a distance from Buenos Ayres, people think more of wheat and maize than of sheep, but so it is, between San Nicolas and Perpetua there are here and there prairie patches, which it is easy to be seen wheat has been grown; the lands are not so undulating or high as I expected to see, but the short tough spry grass which covers the entire country testifies to their unalloyed virginity.

HORRIBLE MURDER

Trial of Francisco Tolosa. Verdict 61 4 ally. Sentenced to be executed.

Mut in Lobos

The full particulars, repeating the murder of a beautiful young girl in Lobos, by her own cousin, has at last been made public. It appears that the assassin was her accepted lover, but unfortunately some dispute of jealousy arose, and Francisco Tolosa refused to marry Francisco, who thereupon determined to murder her. He accordingly went to visit her mother's house one evening to visit his cousin, and whilst talking 'mate' with the family, caught the young girl by the arm, then held her fearfully in the lungs (ten inches deep), and cut her in the arm; he then left the house, went straight to the Police in Lobos, stated what he had done, and demanded to be put in prison. The murder was committed on the 18th November, and a tedious trial has since followed. The case was not decided for four months. After a tedious trial he was convicted, and sentenced to be shot in Lobos, 12 hours after he arrived out there. The sentence was carried into execution, we believe, early last Tuesday morning.

NO TESTIMONY

Mutiny of Flores's army. We have received Flores's Report. Medico Moreno started on the 17th for headquarters, taking a number of youths in his staff. Colonel Launza arrived same day. Gen. Luna was to take his seat in the Way office on the 18th. Servando Gomez writes from Valencia 14th inst. that Flores forced the Polanco pass at Rio Negro on the day before, going towards Tacuembu in a state of demoralization. The Vanguard pursued him for 40 leagues, killing several and taking more prisoners. Munoz, Aparicio, and Leguana with 100 men pushed on rapidly but were left far behind by the fugitives. He again writes, next day, from Monzon, announcing an awful encounter against Flores's army, who fired on the other, killing and wounding a large number. The affray took place at pulperia, whence they all deserted in bands; Flores could not retain them, and they accused him of trying to get them out to no purpose. The rebel is now doing up; he sent me word that he wished to fight, and not to injure the country further; my reply was, for him to cross the frontier with his guns, as the Government could not treat with rebels.

There is much noise about the Cas in Montevideo, the 'Reform' attacking Mr. Ball, and the latter defending the Co.; he adds that owing to municipal patronage the street lighting involves a cost of fifty million pesos monthly. The Marques Olinari refused several passages, not having accommodation for all applicants. The last batch of returned exiles arrived in a sailing vessel from Buenos Ayres, who fired on the other, killing and wounding a large number. The affray took place at pulperia, whence they all deserted in bands; Flores could not retain them, and they accused him of trying to get them out to no purpose. The rebel is now doing up; he sent me word that he wished to fight, and not to injure the country further; my reply was, for him to cross the frontier with his guns, as the Government could not treat with rebels.

NEWS FROM THE PROVINCES. We have no dates from San Juan, Rioja, or Catamarca. The province of Jujuy was quiet, and Governor Araoz going on well. In Salta the Federal party, Chab Puello, gained the elections, returning Lopez and D. Palomares Huetos. Deputies to Congress; the second is one of our Sub-Secretaries of State. On the 23rd of February, the election for Governor took place at Tucuman. Of 35 Deputies, 34 voted for Nor. Passo, whose elevation to power is a popular triumph. On same day D. Jose Polanco, was elected senator to Congress in town of D. Vega appointed Federal Judge. Terrific rains fell on the 23rd for seven hours, swelling up the rivers, but luckily no harm was done. In Cordoba things became quiet again, after the defeat of Odonez, who rebels were rendered. The rest clearing out, Colonel 'Bizarro,' with his regiment, was at Villa Rosario. The 'Boa' uplands the idea of a Rosario Exhibition.

CHILL.

We have dates from Santiago up to 12th Feb., and from Valparaiso and Serena till the 12th Feb. In the former place we had been another large fire, the principal sufferer being Don Joaquin Humboldt, whose splendid house was burned to the ground. Luckily for Valparaiso the companies of firemen are so well organized and drilled that fires cannot now reach the same extent as they did in former times. On the 2nd Feb. a new floating dock was opened in Valparaiso.

HOLY WEEK.

The Chief of Police has published the following decree:— 'During divine service in the churches no one shall be allowed to enter unless in the strictest order, or on the pavements, in front of the churches; if on being told to move or be refused, he shall be arrested and punished. No carts, carriages, or horses shall be allowed to pass along the streets from ten a.m. of Thursday next until the close of the Holy Saturday next. During the same time all commercial houses, shops, and establishments of industry, with the exception of book-binders, printers, and cigar-makers, must be closed. It is also requested that house holders sweep the streets in front of their houses on Holy Thursday, at eight a.m., so that the filth may be removed before ten o'clock a.m. All scufflings and rubbish must be removed from before a house on the 1st of Buenos Ayres, 18th March, 1864. 'CAYETANO CAZON.'

Palm Sunday. To-day is the beginning of Holy Week. The gospel will be sang with all solemnity at the Cathedral, and palms distributed at the various churches. Yesterday was a kind of half holiday (St. Joseph), but it has fallen into disuse.
