Murder and robbery form the order of the day. Hitherto such outrages were limited to the camp, but now the suburbs are quite unsafe, and we are exactly in the case of San Francisco, when Lynch-law was found necessary

PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS.

The public buildings and suburbs of his city will soon become familiar to friends at home in Europe and form pretty parlor ornaments in the houses of native and foreign residents in B. Ayres. A fortnight ago we called attention to Sig. Bartoli's four pictures of the Inauguration of the G. Southern ailway, which were transmitted (copies) to the Illustrated London News-Since then, the same skilful artist has turned his attention to public plazas and monuments, reproducing them with such perfection as to vie with the hest photographs of Pavis or London. Thanks to the clearness of our atmos phere there is a fresh vividness in the B. Ayrean scenes, nowhere surpassed. We understand that Bartoli's machine belonged to an eminent London firm, and is specially suited for taking instantancous views. On Monday we were agreeably surprised to receive a present of nine splendid photographs from the

STREET ROWS.

The supposed guardians of this city are happy to inform their supporters, that in consequence of the great care they have taken not to arrest or punish any criminals, one man assaulted another in Calle Florida, yesterday, in broad daylight, and after giving him a severe thrashing, succeeded, without the slightest difficulty in making his escape. On Thursday night about half past nine, whilst a row and noise, sufficient to awaken the severa sleepers, were could readily earry out the process at going on at the corner of Defense and the Plazs, we saw a vigilante fast askep on one of the seats, within a dozen yards of the seene of the riot; but like a well-trained and a well-trained and easy-conscienced vigilante, he slept on the sleep of the just, well knowing he would receive no thanks for his activity.

A fearful collision occurred on the mole, same night, about seven o'clock, between two Italians, one of whom we are told, drow a pistol and fired at his adversary; luckily the ball only grazed the collar of his coat. We do not know whether the former was arrested.

Our remarks on the monstrous valuation, by the Provincial Government, of real property in the comp, causella good deal of attention. The fact of the matter is, that people are beginning to open their eyes to the facility with which Government, without increasing the rate, augments the taxes. The valuation of property in some of the particles is an monstrously, incorrect, that the Minister should have paused before he published such a book as that of the Contribucion Directa.
