All hail! and all hail!... SUNDAY, APRIL 3, 1891.

THE PARTITION OF MORON AND ARECIFE.

In 1886 the lands and properties of Moron were assessed by Government... The partition of Moron and Areceife has fallen to 180 and 375 pzs, respectively...

There were moving boys, as in Ireland, we could understand how one-half the partition might disappear... The partition of Moron and Areceife has fallen to 180 and 375 pzs...

language of camp... The return is dated June 1st 1891, and since then several foreigners have purchased and settled on lands in this district...

EDITORIAL TABLE.

Monday will be a strict holiday, as the feast of Lady-day (25th ult.) has been transferred to that date...

The heat seems on the increase, being at present much more intense than it has been at Rio Janeiro in the middle of the past summer...

The late showers have done a slight service in some parts of the camp, but we hear from the Capilla Señor that the land is as bare as our streets...

An English gentleman just arrived from Pilar informs us that the Tribuna report about a Maz-horacada and great Ordoz victory is false...

There was great confusion on the Mole yesterday, the passengers for Paraguay and Uruguay being taken off in carts...

We saw two cut-throat looking ruffians, multos, escorted by 4 soldiers, as if going to be transhipped for execution...

One of our subscribers has requested a list of all the Irish or English multos in the province of Buenos Ayres...

An English gentleman was seized on the mole, and obliged to pay duty on a saddle which he had brought from England...

We have to salute the commander and officers of H. B. M. gunboat Spidley, who arrived on Friday...

Two young Ordoz were arrested last week for causing disorder at San Telmo during the elections...

In another column will be found the advertisement of Lambouillet, Imperial, and Negrozeta rans for sale...

We believe these animals are favourably known among sheep raisers. The Rev. Mr. Connolly informs us...

Yesterday's Democracia makes a great rout about the division of Colonad Vialdo, adding the anticlimax 'Dr. Acosta called by the Pachlo the donkey-minister'...

The best estate is that of Juan B. Molina, valued at seven millions, and 15 1/2 leagues, next is Stegman's 1 1/2 leagues, four millions...

he murders and robberies now so frequent in this suburbs should make our readers doubly careful...

We are glad to learn that private advice from San Juan is very satisfactory, and Major Rickard has discovered some new and valuable lodges...

The Governor of Cordoba is said to work against the National Government; this is dangerous, and hence we always advised the propriety of abolishing the petty rulers...

Among new publications we follow a Medical Review to be edited by Dr. Angel Gallardo, and a midwifery student named Pedro Miller...

The Corrientes is a formerly plucky soldier in the Al video route; she left last night unabated, and a medical friend continues as that the meat in the market is poison...

We regret to be obliged to take farewell of our readers until Wednesday morning, but if the Liverpool steamer Un comes in meantime with later dates we will publish a supplement...

THE ROSARIO MATRONS.

The 'Ferro Carril,' last, brings no news of the provinces. Don Marcelino Freyre has been named Chief of Police of Rosario...

The elections for Deputies to Congress are to take place on the 1st of May. Sr. Calandino is treating the Government for a gas concession in favour of a London Company...

The mutiny of Melchior is thus described by a correspondent: 'On the 23rd of March, we were returning towards the fort, having given up all hope of the Indians'...

I heard some shots fired at the head of the column, where Colonel Prado was riding, about 8 yards ahead of me...

Then suddenly the front ranks broke in disorder, and I fancied it was a sudden attack by some Indians in ambush...

Our safety lay in our fitness, for if we had fled at the first alarm, they would have pursued and butchered us singly...

At 3 a.m., when 23 mutineers had fled to the desert, we again formed into line, and shouting, 'Viva el Gobierno!' marched up to the fort...

General Gelly writes to Governor Ordoz, approving of his measures to resist the attack of Indians...

STAND AND DELIVER!

This city is at present a defenceless prey to one or more gangs of daring highwaymen, who have committed some 10 murders or robberies within the last ten days...

A poor foreigner who was in the habit of trafficking in fowl and eggs among the quintas beyond Huaco de las Saucos, was missed last week...

The 'Taravi of the martyr poet' is a short, able, and pleasing description of the Peruvian 'coronach,' or lament...

The 'How to encourage Emigration' is an article, particularly suited to the editor's sex, and shows so small amount of acquaintance with the 'poets of the passion'...

The 'index of contents' printed outside of the cover of the magazine, passes the number of particulars at home, and we can safely predict that the magazine goes on as it does this month...

MONTEVIDEO NEWS.

The only time Sir Walter mentions Peru is in Hokely. 'Life in the River Plate' is a series of remarks on the brighter side of life in the Uruguay Republic...

The 'Blackman' is a continuation of an article which appeared last month from the pen of Professor Burncreek. The Professor praises the negro for his politeness...

Several new facts will be elucidated from this notice amongst others, that the word 'mulatto' is derived from the word 'mula'...
