WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1861.

COMMENCE OF BUENOS AYRES IN 1862.

The trade of this port in 1862 amounted to 445 millions of imports and 270 millions exports; this shows a heavy balance of trade against us, being at 63 to 37, while the previous year gave 56 to 44.

In 1861 England held the highest rank being relatively 20 per cent above France in the total import and export returns, but in 1862 the latter nation shot far ahead, and the list now stands, thus, in continental ratio: France 20, England 10, Belgium 14, U. States 10, Spain and Cuba 9, Brazil 7, Montevideo 6, Germany 4, Italy 3, Argentine Republic 3, Holland 2, Paraguay 2, Chile, India and Portugal 1. Here it is to be observed that, of late, French commerce has been wonderfully developed in S. America, and a Russian journal boasts, not without reason, that in a few years the trade of this continent will be monopolized by France.

In imports Great Britain still remains A. 1, although France has gained enormously in comparison with 1861. The list stands; England 21, France 20, Spain 11, Brazil 9, Montevideo 9, U. States 7, Germany 5, Argentine Republic 5, Italy 4, Paraguay 3, Holland 2, Belgium 2, Chile 1, India and Portugal 1.

In exports Belgium takes more than a third of the total, viz Belgium 34, France 20, England 17, U. States 14, Spain 5, Italy 3, Holland 2, Brazil 2, Montevideo 1, Germany, Paraguay and Chile 2. A great revolution has taken place in this branch of trade, giving an immense falling off for England; in 1861 the four first nations showed the following ratio, per cent of the total; Belgium 33, England 25, France 20, U. States 10. The trade with G. Britain has diminished one-third, with the U. States increased almost by a half, while France and Belgium may be said to remain unchanged, giving a portion of our produce exported to Antwerp is for the German markets, and this is the reason why Belgium occupies so prominent a rank, while Germany is almost omitted from the returns.

The imports in 1861 yielded an average customs-revenue of 16 per cent ad valorem; in 1862 they gave 17 per cent. The exports of 1861 were taxed under 9 per cent; in 1862 the duties rose above 9 per cent. The capacity of Government and decrease of produce go hand in hand, and it is to be seen in the system of block sticking, while giving a temporary relief to an exhausted exchequer, is steadily ruining the best interests of the country.

ANOTHER BRITISH SUBJECT MURDERED.

Every week adds to the list of our unfortunate countrymen barbarously assassinated in our empangs. The murders, of course are never arrested, and the authorities care as much about this sacrifice of life, as if they were so many mad dogs or vermin. A day of retribution must come, and it is only a question of time when the blood of 130 Irishmen, wantonly murdered, and with impunity, shall bring down the vengeance of Heaven and outraged Humanity on this Sodom and Gomorrah. Two years ago we called on Governor Monte to seize the assassin of the Guardia Monte tragedy; the murderer went about publicly glorying in his deed, he attended the races, afterwards went into another partido, and he has not been arrested.

The Minister who tolerated such barbarities is still in power. To silence our invasive he threatened us with Government vengeance, and a criminal prosecution was set on foot. Since then, murder and outrage have enjoyed a perfect impunity. It is to be wondered that at every week witnessed another Englishman murdered, while the authorities take no heed of this chapter of innocent blood.

Mrs. Elizabeth Young was murdered at her residence near San Vicente, on last Sunday. Deceased was a distant relative of some of the first English families in town, and is very well known and better for the market. Her remains have been brought into town, and will be interred to-day in the En-comendado de voyage, but sustained no personal injury. We should be glad if Mr. Leech would favor us with an account of his adventures among the Pampas.

The Glee Club gave a most successful soiree on Monday evening. We understand three or four gentlemen, no less musical than commercial, intended joining the theatrical association.

On next Sunday there will be a grand function at Merlo. An American citizen named Howell, is about to receive into the Royal, in perfect good faith, a sermon will be preached by the Irish parish priest, Rev. Mr. Dillon. The justice of the peace, D. Juan Dillon, will give a dinner afterwards.

"THE TIMES" OF 1859. We have just seen No. 4398 of the "Times" published 3rd October, 1859. It contains the despatches of Horatio, Lord Nelson, announcing the total destruction of the French Fleet on the 1st August 1793, off the mouth of the Nile. Such a document read, strangely in the year 1864, and still more so after our having been accustomed for so long past to the windy narrations of our American cousins. The whole despatch, including lists of ships engaged on both sides, and killed and wounded, is condensed into 174 printed lines. Speaking of himself he says, "I was wounded in the head, and obliged to be carried off the deck, but the service suffered no loss by that want."

There are also some paragraphs about the rebellion in Ireland. A fleet of 5 frigates, in perfect good order, had left Plymouth to chase the fleet of the rebels, which was expected to make for Ireland with French troops. "Mr. Curran the Irish attorney, is arrived in London; he resides at Lord Moira's." "Mr. Pitt is not confined with the gout at Walpole Castle; we saw him yesterday in the park, in perfect good order." "Kossuth's" has published at Paris an official letter, in which he intimates that all the Polish refugees are to have an asylum in Italy.

The royal announcements of these days do not exactly betokened by the present Sovereign. "The King, Queen, and all the Princesses went to Maiden God's Head, on Wednesday, to see the sports of the country people." Some of the sports were— "A pound of tobacco to be grinded for a choice to be rolled down the hill. Prize to whoever stops it. A Pig—Prize to whoever catches him by the tail. In the Chantry we have— Died, Mr. John Bradwood, many years an eminent instructor of the deaf and dumb, &c. The public will be happy to find in the present issue, in front of the paper, that an institution so beneficial, &c. is to be continued in its family. Among the advertisements, we have "the post-boy carrying the mails from Buenos to Sauguey, but night was stopped about 2 miles from Paraboron, between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock, by a single high-gaited horse, who presented a horse pistol and demanded the mail, which the high-gaited horse. He offered the robber half a guinea, but he declined taking it. The hundred pounds reward offered for the apprehension and conviction of the highwayman." Good souls! large sums more highly valued in these days than throats are here at present.

This periodical is a shade smaller than the "Standard," and contains only sixteen columns, advertisements and all, but it is more interesting, and contains what was absent for not giving the officer the side-path.

Dr. Gutierrez displays an admirable sunny front, under the impending rays of the Acosta prosecution. He says that he eats, sleeps, and drinks as well as ever; and considering his awful position, and that the "Argentine Nation" may be completely annihilated by the gaucha-minister, it betrays either an utter callousness or extreme recitude of conscience. Poor Dr. Acosta is not the first statesman who amused himself by blowing bubbles.

To-night the first primer-douze, Briol and Mollo, invite us to Verdi's ball. The ballroom is no in itself, and the first seat will be from San Fernando on Sunday May 1st.

Respecting Mr. Mohr's sheep, carried off by the Indians, near Bahin Blanca, we are glad to hear that the savages murdered no one. The dead was stripped naked, along with a couple of neighbors, but the savages state they were forced to travel for some leagues with not the most agreeable comrades de voyage, but sustained no personal injury. We should be glad if Mr. Leech would favor us with an account of his adventures among the Pampas.

To-night the first primer-douze, Briol and Mollo, invite us to Verdi's ball. The ballroom is no in itself, and the first seat will be from San Fernando on Sunday May 1st.

Respecting Mr. Mohr's sheep, carried off by the Indians, near Bahin Blanca, we are glad to hear that the savages murdered no one. The dead was stripped naked, along with a couple of neighbors, but the savages state they were forced to travel for some leagues with not the most agreeable comrades de voyage, but sustained no personal injury. We should be glad if Mr. Leech would favor us with an account of his adventures among the Pampas.

The Glee Club gave a most successful soiree on Monday evening. We understand three or four gentlemen, no less musical than commercial, intended joining the theatrical association.

On next Sunday there will be a grand function at Merlo. An American citizen named Howell, is about to receive into the Royal, in perfect good faith, a sermon will be preached by the Irish parish priest, Rev. Mr. Dillon. The justice of the peace, D. Juan Dillon, will give a dinner afterwards.

"THE TIMES" OF 1859. We have just seen No. 4398 of the "Times" published 3rd October, 1859. It contains the despatches of Horatio, Lord Nelson, announcing the total destruction of the French Fleet on the 1st August 1793, off the mouth of the Nile. Such a document read, strangely in the year 1864, and still more so after our having been accustomed for so long past to the windy narrations of our American cousins. The whole despatch, including lists of ships engaged on both sides, and killed and wounded, is condensed into 174 printed lines. Speaking of himself he says, "I was wounded in the head, and obliged to be carried off the deck, but the service suffered no loss by that want."

There are also some paragraphs about the rebellion in Ireland. A fleet of 5 frigates, in perfect good order, had left Plymouth to chase the fleet of the rebels, which was expected to make for Ireland with French troops. "Mr. Curran the Irish attorney, is arrived in London; he resides at Lord Moira's." "Mr. Pitt is not confined with the gout at Walpole Castle; we saw him yesterday in the park, in perfect good order." "Kossuth's" has published at Paris an official letter, in which he intimates that all the Polish refugees are to have an asylum in Italy.

The royal announcements of these days do not exactly betokened by the present Sovereign. "The King, Queen, and all the Princesses went to Maiden God's Head, on Wednesday, to see the sports of the country people." Some of the sports were— "A pound of tobacco to be grinded for a choice to be rolled down the hill. Prize to whoever stops it. A Pig—Prize to whoever catches him by the tail. In the Chantry we have— Died, Mr. John Bradwood, many years an eminent instructor of the deaf and dumb, &c. The public will be happy to find in the present issue, in front of the paper, that an institution so beneficial, &c. is to be continued in its family. Among the advertisements, we have "the post-boy carrying the mails from Buenos to Sauguey, but night was stopped about 2 miles from Paraboron, between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock, by a single high-gaited horse, who presented a horse pistol and demanded the mail, which the high-gaited horse. He offered the robber half a guinea, but he declined taking it. The hundred pounds reward offered for the apprehension and conviction of the highwayman." Good souls! large sums more highly valued in these days than throats are here at present.

This periodical is a shade smaller than the "Standard," and contains only sixteen columns, advertisements and all, but it is more interesting, and contains what was absent for not giving the officer the side-path.

Dr. Gutierrez displays an admirable sunny front, under the impending rays of the Acosta prosecution. He says that he eats, sleeps, and drinks as well as ever; and considering his awful position, and that the "Argentine Nation" may be completely annihilated by the gaucha-minister, it betrays either an utter callousness or extreme recitude of conscience. Poor Dr. Acosta is not the first statesman who amused himself by blowing bubbles.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUS & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place their most confidence.
The Bank of Maus & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
The same deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the momentary gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Maus and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the form of cash the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Maus & Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefits derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Maus & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 15th 1863.
p. p. Maus & Co.
WILLIAM MAUS & CO.

CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or over after dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6%) per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rates established by the bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARCA DE BARBAZAN

Established in 1852, by the Honorable the Board of Education of the Buenos Ayres University College.
This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.
An ever-attentive and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and regularity, are a sufficient guarantee of the moral and intellectual behavior of the pupils now enrolled in the school.
The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Reading Instruction.
Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, may also be taught by special request.
The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful quarters of the Calle Larca de Barbazan, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most healthy and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
For particulars apply for prospectus at the Standard Office, Calle Bolognesa 24.
