EDITOR'S TABLE.

We have no political review for this week's edition; it would be well if Argentines could leave the past fortnight an unspotted blank in their history. Which of our European readers care to hear about Cricidos or Cocidos, about Lugue's death, or Alsina's heroism, or Varela's integrity?

Although the public alarm has calmed down there is every prognostic of a disturbance. We learn on the most undoubted authority that two cart-loads of arms were deposited on Saturday morning in the rendezvous of the Cocidos, calle Tacuari. Both National and Provincial Governments seem to acquiesce in the arming of the rival factions. We shall see the consequences.

We are told that some of the navvies of the Western Railway, in pay of the Crudo Provincial Government, are not so enthusiastic about fighting, although they go through the streets with knives and pistols. They have been forced to abandon the spade and wheelbarrow, under penalty of dismissal, and any remaining qualms of conscience are silenced with liquor. The National Government has adopted the same barbarous warfare, all the Custom-house porters being drafted off to swell the Cocido ranks, and it is said they will not return to business for a week. Very B. Ayres has fallen to the lowest depths of degradation.

The disabled Anglo-Argentine veteran, Michael Morgan, is likely to receive more from private sympathy than Government reward; after a delay of 36 years the War-office gave him 200 paper dollars (30 shillings). We have already received for him $185, some anonymous friend having enclosed us the liberal donation of $100.

There was an opera on Sunday night 'Il ballo en maschera.' but we were afraid to attend, the streets being quite unsafe at midnight and even earlier. See the list of outrages in another column.

It is thought we shall have no more street-rioting on bloodshed, until Thursday 24th inst., this being the day fixed for swearing in the new deputies on whom depend the hopes and fears of all who are foolish enough to trouble themselves about the sol d'ant Legislators of this God-forsaken land.

The policeman Diaz, accused of barbarously killing Mr Charles Connell of Villa Mercedes has been brought into the Cabildo prison for trial. It seems the fellow had a very pleasant life in the gentle custody imposed on him at Mercedes, where he has influential 'compadres.' The cause is before Dr. Cardenas, and the Irishmen and all friends of justice expect a condign punishment will be inflicted on the malefactor, who has narrowly escaped the charge of murder. We understand that the Connell family is very poor, and some of our rich countrymen ought to aid in the prosecution: we will acknowledge any contributions for the purpose.

The arrival of the 2nd batt. infantry from Martin Garcia, yesterday, caused a stir in town. They arrived per Pampero, and landed on the mole in excellent order, amid the felicitations of a motley crowd. They marched, some 350 strong, preceded by their band, at half past two, through the Plaza, and presented quite a martial appearance. Their arrival is opportune after the recent riots.

Yesterday a soldier was carried on a litter apparently dead, by his comrades, through calle Cangallo. His face was covered, but he still wore his 'kepi'; we have not heard any particulars.

There are vague rumors of disturbance in the camp, the names of the districts and officers being kept a secret. It is possible, however, that the whole is a 'canard,' got up for the purpose of alarm.

The movements of Paraguay excite anxiety: President Lopez has marched 5000 troops towards the Corrientine frontier, and the Argentine republic is at present hardly able to resent it; has it a step? Some people think it will become serious: we do not.

On yesterday was published 'The Cotton-fields of Paraguay and Corrientes,' of which we sent 50 copies to the Manchester Supply Association. It contains, besides the letters published in 'The Standard,' some further description of those countries, comprising 120 pages, bound in card, price $2. On sale at Messrs. Markera's, and at this office.

The Danish Consul has favoured us with a copy of the blockade regulations of some part of Denmark, but as we do not understand High Dutch, much less Danish, we are at a loss as to the nature of the specifications.

The 'Cope a. Elisir d'Amore,' will take place tonight. It is well worth hearing.

We again bid adieu to Messrs. Allen, of London, and the other passengers leaving us by this packet, and wish them a pleasant voyage home.

STATE OF THE INTERIOR.

The event of most importance for the Provinces is the news brought by the last steamer of the happy termination of the difficulties which appeared to beset the Great Central Railroad. We have been raised from despondency by the gratifying intelligence that the road has been contracted for by the great firm of Brassy and Co., at the rate of five thousand four hundred pounds per mile, and that the company will be presented to the public under the happiest auspices.

The workmen on the ten miles of embankment already made, are at work on the culverts, three of which are already finished, leaving only two to make to put this portion of the line in a state to receive the rails.

The province of Santa Fe still remains a model of good order and regular Government; and if not of great progress we certainly have no cause to be dissatisfied when we witness the little progress made as yet in the provinces on whose welfare and commercial prosperity that of Rosario in a great measure depends.

The town has been busy transferring large quantities of merchandise to the interior. We have to regret that Rosario is so poorly off for large importing houses that the greater part of the goods despatched to the interior are purchased, duty paid, in Buenos Ayres. For this reason the ingress in our custom house for the first three months of the year only amounts to ninety odd thousand dollars, which should be the monthly receipts of duties.

This state of things is very galling of course, for people see in it the practical carrying out of the Buenos Ayres doctrine, which is to make her custom house monopolise all the duties raised in the country.

Should another separation between Buenos Ayres and the Provinces take place, it will be altogether owing to this odious principle of the statesmen of the sister province, which persist in the provinces enhances the prosperity of Buenos Ayres. Such an absurd notion can only have taken its rise from political jealousy.

The Governor Delegate of Santa Fe, Mr. Orozco, who is also member of Congress, has just returned to the capital of the province after a lengthened visit to the Department of Rosario, where his presence has been of great service.

Through his instrumentality and activity a new colony has been planted on the Carcaraña river, about seventy miles from Rosario and within ten or twelve miles from the line of railroad.

Already many families have taken up concessions in this colony, where the Government grants lots of eighty acres to all comers.

The establishment of this colony will secure the southern frontier from the stealing incursions of the Indians.

A bill will be presented in May to the Provincial Chambers for the payment in full of the provincial debt, about a hundred and twenty thousand dollars, by means of treasury notes bearing six per cent interest, and receivable in payment of public lands in various parts of the province and which will be offered in lots for sale every two or three months.

The National Government has commenced operations on the roads in the provinces. A large amount of material for arctician wells, to be bored along the roads in Rioja where traffic is hindered by want of water, has been already despatched from Rosario.

Mr. Agote, member for Catamarca, commissioned by the Government to inform on the practicability of opening new roads, has made very voluminous reports.

The political affairs of the provinces are becoming more satisfactory. In the principal provinces everything is quiet and orderly; Catamarca only remaining as a foul blot on the fair face of the Confederation. The disgraceful government of that beautiful province still remains in power; and the people, formerly industrious and happy, are fast subsiding into an abject and indolent slavery.

Cordoba is happily delivered from her intestine troubles. The government of Mr. Ferrera is firmly established and all opposition has ceased; and the enthusiasm which will be created there by the favorable news in reference to the railroad will tend undoubtedly to allay party feeling.

The mistaken policy of the Government, giving such exorbitant salaries to members of Congress, has been the cause of many scandals in the provinces. The consequence has been disgraceful fights over the spolios, and the sending to Congress of such entirely unfit for that high office men who only make themselves and the provinces they represent, ridiculous.

Many patriotic members intend during this session to try to modify the law which gives them so much of the public money and causes such continual fermentation.

Santa Juan and Mendoza are 'going ahead' in a fair way. The names of the former place are proving every day richer and richer.

The report addressed to Mr. Meigas of Chile, giving a circumstantial account of the discovery of a pass in the Andes by which a railroad may be easily thrown across the Cordillera, has created a great sensation.

The elections in Santa Fe and in Entre Rios have passed over in the quietest manner possible, there not having been a single row.

In Salta the elections were rather violent, but nothing serious occurred. In Tucuman there has been felt a series of earthquakes, but of an innoxious character. No damage is reported as having been suffered.

The sugar crop of Tucuman this year has been upwards of one hundred thousand arrobas, or twenty five thousand hundred-weight. The sugar produced is equal to the best white Pernambuco, and sells at twelve dollars the quintal.

Tucuman might easily produce enough sugar and tobacco of a very superior quality, not only for the wants of the Republic, but for exportation.

The Government has not yet openly decided for the National Exhibition, but we have strong hopes it will soon do so, as the eminent Minister of the Interior approves the idea.

Within two or three weeks will be published a little work on the origin and progress of the colonies of Santa Fe, in Spanish and English, which will give our friends over the water a perfect idea of what the emigrant may expect to do in this country, delineated in the social picture contained in the little work referred to.

REIGN OF TERROR.

The 'Pueblo' exaggerates the number of what it calls 'assassinations' (killing at election riots is not generally called murder but manslaughter). The total killed in the last three days does not amount to three. The wounded are about 15, few seriously. Mr Balbin was shot in the fleshy part of the arm, and is recovering. Capt Luque is said to have died. D. Adolfo Alsina was not hurt. D. Hector Varela received no injury except to his lungs, from shouting. Mr. Gibson, the English tailor, narrowly escaped being shot Monsieur Bonnemaison was more frightened than hurt, by the spent ball.

We do not know whether the fellow who stabbed the crime minister is in prison. Colonel Conesa's brother was released on Saturday morning. Colonel Garcia has been dismissed the Argentine service on an accusation of being a ring-leader among the Crudo mob. Some of the police-commissaries are said to have harangued the crowd 'stand firm, boys, and if Mitre and his bayonets come, why let them?' Several of the Cocidos are said to have justified the epithet 'Restauradores,' by shouting 'Down with Saavedra: hurra for Rosas!'

On Friday night some mad caps drove through town firing revolvers out of the coach windows. It was, probably, to counteract this, that three men fired into a coach at the corner of Defensa and Comercio: the occupants Sor Artayeta and 2 friends were unhurt, but we read that one ball passed between their heads. The Pueblo states that it is unsafe to approach the Western railway terminus, owing to the number of drunken servants and navvies who have recently protected popular rights. For the last three nights we have noticed several wicked-looking fellows standing at the street corners: these individuals are technically called 'compadres,' and being now armed form a striking feature of the Reign of Terror.

CEREMONY AT MERLO.

On Sunday Mr. John Hood was received into the Roman Catholic Church, at Merlo, receiving the usual conditional baptism at the hands of Rev. P. J. Dillon. The neophyte, an American citizen, had belonged, we believe, to the Episcopalian sect of reformed Christians, and acquired the rudiments of Catholic doctrine from the worthy Irish priest of the district.

CEREMONY AT MERLO.

On Sunday Mr. John Hood was received into the Roman Catholic Church, at Merlo, receiving the usual conditional baptism at the hands of Rev. P. J. Dillon. The neophyte, an American citizen, had belonged, we believe, to the Episcopalian sect of reformed Christians, and acquired the rudiments of Catholic doctrine from the worthy Irish priest of the district.

Here it may not be amiss to explain to our readers that the Catholic Church holds baptism to be valid, whether conferred by priest or layman, Christian or Mahometan. Yet in the case of Protestants a doubt always arises, as they do not hold the necessity of baptism for salvation, and their clergymen are not in all cases particular about pouring water on the neophyte's head. For this reason Catholic converts are conditionally baptised.

Mr. Hood was baptised, immediately before High Mass, by the Rev. Mr. Dillon, assisted by the Rev. F. Romero and another native priest. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin of Merlo acted as sponsors for their countryman, the ceremony being performed at the high altar. High Mass was sung with due solemnity by the parish priest of Merlo, and the services of some professional singers from Buenos Ayres had been secured for the occasion. After the Gospel, the Rev. Mr. Dillon ascended the pulpit and preached a short discourse in Spanish, begging the patience of his auditory in case of any ineligibilities of diction (as this sentiment only came to the country a few months ago). He then craved permission to address his countrymen in English, pronouncing to them an impressive and appropriate exhortation.

After Divine service the sponsors and friends partook of some refreshment at the house of Father Dillon.

RIO NEGRO.

We have the 'Eco' of Mercedes to Sunday, 24th inst., Colon Perez' division, surnamed 'brilliant,' is encamped near Daica, preparing to set out in search of the rebels. Communication with Montevideo seems cut off, by the drought: the last diligence was seven days overdue, and no tidings of it. It is thought a garrison will be placed in Fray Bentos, mounting some pieces of artillery, to prevent the Colorados from making this their rendezvous and from Buenos Ayres. On the 18th two rebel stragglers were captured near Mercedes, and handed over to the authorities: they belonged to the famous band of Bernabe. Col Olivera has been sent to scour the department of filibusters, with two squadrons of cavalry. The new steamer Eco is expected to make her first trip up the Uruguay, on Monday, May 2nd. The owners of the Salto have got a patent for a packet-boat to Montevideo, on condition that they run a small steamer, as Meyrelles did last year between Mercedes and Yaguajay. This will be a great advantage to the Rio Negro. Mr. John Philip Bitter announces under date April 22nd, that he has opened the branch Bank of Maua and Co., at Mercedes.

THE BELGRANO RACES.

Challenge of the Race Belgrano. The races on Sunday, we are informed, were a miserable failure. Perhaps, owing to the bad weather, the attendance was so poor, no ladies being present, and only a sprinkling of professional turfites. The first race came off at 1 p.m., and the winner was the terrible 'Montecristo.' The second was a shabby affair; we have not heard which came in last.

The famous racer Belgrano paced to and fro in front of the grand stand, challenging all horses, native or foreign, to run half, or a whole, round, for any amount. No one took up the gauntlet, and Belgrano retired without having found a competitor.

We have to advise the turf in general that Belgrano has been sold, and will soon leave for Brazil. The same challenge is therefore held open for eight days more, in order to give all racers a chance of testing once again the speed and qualities of the champion.

Some wine and cold meat were consumed on the ground, last Sunday, but no money, of any account, changed hands. The stewards looked very 'triste,' and the whole thing was excessively slow. We have not heard of any disorder, intoxication, or enthusiasm.

The Oriental 'Solferino,' winner of two races and loser of one on the Sunday previous, was not of the ground. Perhaps his owners will take up Belgrano's challenge.

THE CLUB WAR.

Agitation in Town.

The National official paper, 'Nacion Argentina,' published yesterday an alarming supplement, calling upon the citizens to attend the funeral of Captain Luque. This gentleman had been shot in Friday's riot, receiving a ball in the abdomen, and of course there was no hope of his recovery: he died on yesterday morning at his residence, near the Concepcion Church, and his remains were conveyed to the Recoleta cemetery by an immense crowd of Cocidos—in fact, his funeral was quite a political demonstration.

A number of inflammatory harangues were delivered over the grave, and it was feared that a dangerous excitement of feeling would be exhibited.

To-day and to-morrow, will, perhaps, pass off quietly, but we fear serious disturbances before the end of the week.

The Policia has ordered a Sumario or process to be made out against those implicated in Friday's riots. This step will likely prove a mere sham. It is said that President Mitre has expressly told the Cocido leaders that he will re-assert a strong arm any disorders by the members of either Class.

THE CIVIL MEDICO-QUIRURGICO.

We have received the second number of this medical periodical.

The 'Fortnightly review' is anything but pleasing to nervous-minded folks: it says that the public sanitary state is not the most flattering; dysentery is very prevalent, and, in the opinion of most of our medical men, it assumes a grave character.

The cause of this is attributed to the villainous state of the beef brought to this market, and the Review strongly advocates the appointment of a society of veterinaries to examine the animals. The review touchingly remarks that "this scheme, like many other good ones, has remained nipped in the bud."

The second article is a few extracts from the pen of that indefatigable scholar, Dr. Burmeister on meteorological observations made in Buenos Ayres, and to any who may feel inclined to examine to what extent he gets wet (not content with the simple fact of being wet) it will be very interesting.

The rest of the periodical is so very 'facultyish' that it cannot be of the slightest interest to the general public.

ST. PATRICK'S COLLEGE.

On Monday last the above popular academy was honored by a visit from his Lordship the Bishop, who thus by his presence graciously evinced the warm interest he feels in the advancement—not alone of our Irish College, but of every establishment calculated to impart a sound practical education to the rising generation.

At a former visit to the Colegio in Lohos, he expressed great pleasure at the very forward state of the school, and whilst congratulating the learned principal, Dr. Fitzsimons, on the success which had attended his efforts, kindly suggested that he should be happy to have the College nearer town in order that he might personally superintend and patronise an establishment so worthy of support.

Hence he appeared delighted at the splendid mansion and grounds now occupied by Dr. Fitzsimons, as like wise at the large increase of students which now number near 50.

The existence of such a college in this country and in the hands of gentlemen high in their arduous profession is a boon which we are sure our countrymen will not fail to appreciate. Flores is a position central to all; the house and grounds are magnificent; the training of the boys is founded on a moral and religious basis—and advantages such as these, coupled with the long experience of the learned Professors cannot fail to make St. Patrick's the first academy in the Republic.

ENTRE RIOS.

We have received our usual files of newspapers from Uruguay, but, as usual, contain little or no news.

Captain General Urquiza intended giving yesterday (25th inst.) a grand banquet at his house of San José in honor of his successor. All friends of his Excellency, without distinction or special invitation, were requested to attend.

A proposal had been made to Government to erect a new market in Uruguay, and it was reported that the proposal had been accepted, and the market soon commenced: $27,000 have been devoted to the scheme.

INDIAN INVASION.

The Indians have again invaded our frontier, coming down on Colonel Machado's land, at Quequen Salado, not very far from Azul: it is said the Colonel overtook them and recovered 300 head of cattle. Major Ortiz writes from Saucedo de Udasquiola, complaining of the justice of peace refusing him assistance against the savages. The one is Crudo, the other Cocido, and the Indians laugh at both.

MORGAN'S CASE.

Received from the Editors of the 'Standard' the sum of $185 nre., for which I return sincere thanks to the kind contributors.

Buenos Ayres, April 26th, 1864.

MICHAEL MORGAN,

EXPORTS.

In round goods during the last month we have had 12,300 fanegas of salt. In this article, the imports have fallen off, and a slight improvement has taken place in the price.

Cow—1,653 tons. This has also improved in price, and Cardiff is firm at 10 silver dollars.

Lumber—320,000 feet. New York is inquired for, and can be quoted at 36 dols.

EXPORTS.

During the past month, the exports of country produce for Europe have been—

- Salted cowhides, 51,847 Do., horsehides, 4907 Dry cowhides, 103,836 Do. horsehides, 5974. Tallow, 2431 pipes Do. 734 boxes Merce's grease, 60 boxes Horsehair, 131 bales. Wool, 10,468 do. Sheepskins, 1856 do.

The sales of saladero ox and cow-hides, during the last fifteen days, are 15,500 ox hides, at 10 rls. Total sales since 1st November—230,000 hides.

SHIPPING.

It augurs anything but well for shipping interests in connection with the River Plate, the fact of during the past month no fewer than twelve vessels have left this for foreign ports with valuable cargoes of Martin Garcia, and other 10 are on the point of following their example.

Some of this latter lot have been in these beautiful waters since 30th Nov. last, and as every facility is given to make their sojourn in this port as long as possible, shipowners in England need not complain of want of a port whence their vessels can lay snugly at anchor doing nothing, but costing money.

FREIGHTS.

England—Several charters have been to land in the Uruguay, and higher rates have been paid. In this port there is not much offering for vessels on the berth, the steamers having the preference.

Antwerp—Salted hides for ballast are being taken at 5 per cent. per ton. Dry hides are very scarce. Sales are offering freely.

France—Great dullness prevails in shipments for the French ports.

United States—There is great falling-off in engagements for this destination.

Freights in general—Small vessels of good flags have lately obtained higher rates for the rivers. In this port, where size is not so important, rates continue unchanged. Arrivals during the month have fallen off, and the disengaged tonnage is considerably reduced; but, on the other hand, our produce season will soon be over. Danish, Norwegian, Swedish, and German flags are objected to.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Important from California.—We take the following from the 'Nacion Argentina'—Lynching and violence committees have again come into fashion in Sacramento. Monterey and Sonora and a great number of robbers and murderers have been sent to another world. In Nappa there has been a large fire, and the Indians have broken out to the north of the Salmon River, seized arms and ammunition, and killed several people. The same is happening in the South, in Mariposa County. The Salt Lake has been visited by a severe hurricane and many houses destroyed.

Shipy Justice.—On Saturday night the Pueblo announced that Colonel Garcia had been dismissed for having been amongst the rioters of Friday last.

Mutiny at Tunas.—One of the native newspapers of Saturday distinctly contradicts the report of the military mutiny at Tunas given out by the Eco de Cordoba. In these times it is hard to know what to believe, and we feel in the position of Dr. Johnson's acquaintance who complained of James Beswell's well known economy of truth, saying, "You can only believe one half of what he says, and the difficulty is to find out which half."

Safe Custody.—The 'Nacional' of Saturday night says "Last night there was an attack made upon the depot of the regiment under Comandante Grigera, with the intention of stealing the muskets which were there. The major of the corps saved them by depositing them in the house of the Justices of peace. He should have put the soldiers there also, to save them from damage."

San Juan.—The 'Nacional' has the following for the truth of which we cannot vouch: "The Mining Company directed by Rickard, is on the point of abandoning its works, owing to the want of ores, and even perhaps becoming bankrupt. Rickard has proposed to save the company by purchasing, himself, all the plant. It is not known if the company will accept the offer."

Arrests.—On Friday night, two individuals, called Sandalio Lima, were taken to the police office charged with driving in a carriage along Bolivar, at 11 p.m., firing off revolvers. Through the influence of General Hornos these two Divoines were set at liberty after a short confinement.

Two views of one picture.—One newspaper commences an account of the disreputable scenes of Friday last with "The raffishly rowdyism and acts of 1840 were repeated yesterday." Another says, "Yesterday was a day of glory for the people of Buenos Ayres." We say: Let the end in view be what it may, the instruments employed were the rascally Italian lot of cut-throats out of Newgate or King Sing.

Prisoner from the Camp.—On Saturday evening a prisoner was brought in from the camp to the Cason Hotel heavily ironed. The nature of his offence we do not know, but suspect it must be for voting on the wrong side; we would fain hope he is one of those fellows who have been wanted for so long a time.

The Bolivian Chile Question.—The rupture of relations between Chile and Bolivia and the refusal of Peruvian intervention have sorely displeased Peru. The Peruvian press calls it a 'slight' and 'Cossack diplomacy.' It is really very hard that poor Chile will allow Peru, which is a century behind it in civilization, to have a finger in this pretty little pie.

Corrientes.—An Indian, on the 11th inst., was murdered in Corrientes. The news of this occurrence spread like lightning through the Chaco population and in a short time the Indians, with their caciques at their head, flocked into the house of Don Francisco Sicard, known amongst them as Panchito Guaycaru, demanding twelve gold ounces as indemnity fine, or the immediate death of the delinquent, under penalty of killing all the workmen in the Chaco if the claims were resisted. There are some highly moral and edifying remarks in the 'Tribuna' on the dreadful nuisance of having to execute such speedy justice, and blames poor barbarity for this state of affairs. Heaven knows we have civilization in abundance here (revolvers and elections for half the world), and we are in a worse pickle than the good folks of Corrientes.

Exports.—On the 23d instant, the Avick and Idea cleared out for Antwerp with 1118 bales wool, 14 do., horsehair, 7329 cowlings, 28 bales hide cuttings, 18,070 horns, 2 tiger skins, 62 pipes tallow.

The Banda Oriental.—There seems to be now every probability of this nefarious war being at last finished by means of Brazilian intervention. Government, in the meantime, is re-fortifying the town of Canelones. On the 19th inst., there was a review in Canelones, in which 360 cavalry, including police, took part; the infantry, the weak point in the River Plate armies, only mustered 70.

ON CHANGE.

April 25th, 1864.

The Bolsa is not free from the general uneasy feeling, and specie rises. To-day patacons opened at 28 90, and after divers fluctuations closed at same figure. The amount drawn by this packet exceeds £200,000, including the amount of interest for Messrs Baring brothers (£45,000) in payment of the English Bonds. Most quotations are 603 on England, but some are at 67.

A large quantity of wool is now coming in from the South and West camps. The other items of produce will be found in our commercial review.
