LOCAL EVENTS

The Transandino Railway—The Rosario papers have several articles extracted from the Chile newspapers on this important subject.

The Santa Oriental—The Tribune has a perfect bagful of nuts to crack, on the subject of the barbarity of the Blanco Government in the case of a thing for the Blanco to lay themselves open to similar charges.

The Boca Railway—This railway is progressing most rapidly; the most activity is displayed between the Viedes de Rocha, in the provincia and the Estancia.

The Police—The 'Nacionales' has at last opened its eyes to the startling fact that the so-called police are not worth their salt.

The Southern Railway—The Danish brig Dan has arrived here from Grange-mouth with a cargo of iron, iron rails, and other railway plant.

Education in England—A Manual Book, published by the Education Department, contains a list of names of the children of the poor in the parishes of the City of London.

Convicts—Two of these public pests have been sentenced to eight and five years respectively for the same offence.

Prisoners—The man who has been sentenced to the five years' term in San Juan Garcia, has been convicted of manslaughter.

South American Police—To a student of South American politics, the question most frequently presents itself, 'who commit all the murders—is it the police?'

Lotchford's Wax Vestals—The 'Liberator' of Parma writes that the elections of Parma have been approved of, in spite of the protests of the citizens of that place.

South American Police—To a student of South American politics, the question most frequently presents itself, 'who commit all the murders—is it the police?'

that four millions of paper money will be burned in the days of May, and that over 32 millions will be burned during the year.

Notice one more clearly the great confidence which merchants have in the stability of President Mitro's government than the fact that, although it was said there would be a vote in the city to day on account of the swearing in of the obnoxious Deputies, specie, instead of going up, actually fell.

Money is not to say tight, although there is a healthy demand for both paper and gold.

It is said that one of our privateers has joined with the merchants in the loan to the Government, and agreed to advance two hundred thousand pesos.
