THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS

There is a sort of thin coat of varnish over the present state of things, which makes people believe at first eight that the confederate system of governing this republic is the very perfection of legislation.

There is not a more ratched up and cobbled system of governing one million and a quarter of human beings than the Argentine Federal system. We doubt if the inventive genius of man could fabricate a Government more calculated to create revolution, disturbance and anarchy, than the one we have. A country thinly inhabited, possessing mutual interests, identical in language manners and race, is split up into fourteen different Governments, which are severally independent of each other, yet married altogether on a sort of Murmon plan, and yelept the Argentine nation.

But for an article which appeared in yesterday morning's 'Tribune,' we should not have troubled our readers with this tedious political question, but our colleague bemoans the condition of Buenos Ayres, and as proof of the in-justice done this province, states that Bahia Blanca. Buenos Ayres, and as proof of the in-Salta and Jujuy have their own legislators, their own provincial chambers, free, enlightened and independent, yet Buenos Ayres has none.

Of course this article entitled the "Death of Buenos Ayress" is calculated to create a rather serious sensation amongst all superficial thinkers, who will naturally believe that Buenos Ayres is victimized, but to our mind the greatest benefit which could accrue to this country would be the death of all our petty Provincial Governments.

Any man who knows anything at all about the River Plate, must admit that these Provincial Governments have had a fair trial, and have proved a miserable failure. We hope therefore that the Tribuna' is right, that the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres is dead, that San'a Fc. Cordoba, Entre Rios, that San'a Fe, Cordoba, Entre Rios, and all the other Provincial Governments will meet a like fate, and that in the Argentine Republic, power will be concentrated in one man, and that man President Mitre.

The country is at present torn and convulsed by hundreds of political parties or cliques; there is not a province in the country which is not infested with them.

It is absurd to say that the republic is divided into two great parties, the

It is absurd to say that the republic is divided into two great parties, the Pederal, and Unitario, since in every province these parties bear a different that. The political eliques or parties in this republic are now nearly as numerous as those of the United States before the war. The Unitario of Buenos Ayres is of the Voltarion school, and the very essence of a free thinker. Corrientes he is a red republican, in Entre Rios he is a Mazzini, in Santa Fe he is a sound radical reformer, in Cordova he is a desput, in Tucuman he is a Mormon, in Mendoza a well-dressed gentleman, in Santiago del Estero a visionay, in San Juan a speculator, in Jujuy an educated pauper, in Salta a Montenero; whilst on the contrary, the Federal in Buenos Ayres is either an old fogy or a gaucho, in Corrientes he is the man of property, in Entre Rios the lover of peace and order at any cost, in Santa Fe the adherer to old customs and habits, in Cordova the peaceable and quiet citizen, in Tucuman the illiterate land owner, in Mendosa the chirppa sistence. is a Mormon, in Mendoza a wellowner, in Mendosa the chiripa anisto-crat, in Santiago del Estero the sound practical man, in San Juan the revo-lutionist, in Jujuy the wealthy planter, in Salta the respector of the laws and the mainstay of the Government, President Mitre is called to rule over a country composed of such a netting took place on Friday at the citizen, steady friend and distinguished are invited to attend. We hope some so of politicians, he is obliged ex-officio' to please every.

See that the money is properly counted.

The public is obliged ex-officio' to please every.

The public is obliged ex-officion is obliged ex-of

In Entre Ries he is a cowardly Porteño, of slave trac'er who seeks to carry off the free and enlightened Correntinos into slavery and bondage. In San Juan he is thought to be a first rate school-master. In the rest of the provinces nobody knows anything about him, and his Government is only known as the Porteno administration. We have 14 different Government We have 14 different Governments all embodied in one; each of these 14 Governments is pulling in different ways, until at last the unfortunate National Government, which should be the strongest in the country, can only be regarded as a sort of fool in the middle, disjointed and undone.

middle, disjointed and undone.

Let it not be supposed for one instant that we wish to throw ridicule upon President Mitto-far from it; but since there is still left liberty of the press, let us candidly and courageously speak out the truth: the present system of Government is a dream, a rision, an illusion. The present system of government is a dream, a rision, an illusion. sion. The present system of governing this republic is unsafe and ill adapted for the customs, wants, and passions of the people; the sooner Congress re-models the Constitution and sweeps away all the petry Governments of the provinces, the better for the country at large, and for General Mitre its Pre-sident.

The New Steam boat Lines of Messes. Harrison & Mansilla. The new steam-boat contract between the Government and Messrs. Harrison and Mansilla is about to be presented to Congress: it is one of the most important enterprises ever undertaken in this country.

Messre, Harrison and Mausilla agree to establish six lines of steamers from this port.

One between Buenos Ayres and Montevideo.

One between Buenos Ayres and Rosario, touching at intermediate ports.
One between Buenos Ayres and Gualeguay, in connection with the Ro.

tio line. One between Rosario and Corrientes,

The stumers on these lines shall make their trips as follows:—

Three round trips a week on each of the following lines—Montevideo, Ro sario, and Concordia.

Four round trips per month on the Corrientes and Gualeguay lines.

One round trip every twenty days on the Bahia Blanca line. All these lines shall be established within eighteen months after the ap-proval of Congress, with the exception of the Bahia Blanca line, which shall be started in eight months after ap-contract to last for five years The contract to last for five years, and the fares and freight to be reduced

20 per cent, from the present tariff; emigrants only to pay hulf price. The steamers shall be constructed expressly for the purpose, and shall be the finest that ever entered the River Plate. Mails to be carried free, and Government to be a liberty to send Government to be at liberty to send four passengers and two tons of cargo free each trip.

Such are the terms of the proposed Such are the terms of the proposed contract, which we understand only awaits the sanction of Congress to be at ouce cavried out. Sor. Mansilla, who is the principal proprietor of the Argentine diligences which carry the mails through the interior, is the party associated with Captain Harrison in this enterprise. These proposed lines of steamers will, therefore, be in combination with Sor. Mansilla's line of coaches, which cannot but be regarded as a double advantage, as parties can be broked in the most distant province bcoked in the most distant province through to Buenos Ayres, Montevideo, or Bahia Blanca. We understand that the Minister has

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Veritas, versus Santa Maria, is the great suit pending in town at present Every one is asking who Veritas is, and what answer Sr. Santa Maria will make to the letter published in yesterday's 'Standard,' Town is rife with all sorts of rumours respecting our Consuls in London. The on dit yesterday was, that M. blizalde had stated both Mr. Sampson and Mr. Fair must be removed. The 'Ferro-Carril' of Rosario, contains some rather serious charges against Mr. John Pair respecting the same matter, and calls a call in the middle of the night, unless applied with a body guard.

The news from the camp districts, respecting the grass, is good. Many of our countrymen are in town at present, and they assure us that the prospects of the farmers for the year never were better. Sheep, however, in consequence of the alarming increase of crinic in the camp, have fallen in value. No one seems anxious to in vest in sheepfarming, until some reforms are introduced for the better protection of life and property. Rob protection of life and property. Rob beries are everywhere on the increase, and murders also. If instead of a Governor, with Ministers, &c., we had one good man as commandance over the whole camp, who, when a crime was committed, would scour the whole contract to find the calorit. When whole country to find the culprit. What a beneficial change it would be. Property of every description would in rease in value, and fresh capital every day find its way to our partidos: the present mockery of justice in the camp is the ruin of the country. As an instance of the great difficulty in realising property in the camp, we may remark that a flock of superior mestizathern were seld in the partido of Piles. sheep were sold in the partido of Pilar. at 45 dols., on two years' credit, without interest.
