The Nationalist.

We call the attention of all thinking men to an article which appeared in Monday evening's 'Nationalist,' entitled 'Que se ha?' If there is any Government in this place—if there is any Executive in the country—the man who penned that article should be punished. In the worst days of the French revolution never was there printed a more sanguinary appeal to arms than the article in question. Verily it would seem as if the politicians in this country were all going stark mad. Last week we had a vituperative attack against the most exemplary Minister in the country, and now we have an appeal to the people to erect barricades in the streets, and shoot down all the Cocidos in town. It is high time that we should ask—Is there, or is there not, any law in the country? Is the President of this Republic a myth?

The article in question would even in England be regarded as scurrilous, for in every civilized country in the world an appeal to the people to fight, shoot, cut, and murder in the streets, is punishable.

We could not allow for the writer of the 'Nationalist,' who is a young man, carried away by his feelings—we could pardon his sitting down under some sudden excitement and writing whatever comes into his head—but we cannot excuse the proprietor of that journal, who is a grey-headed man, for allowing such revolutionary appeals to be published in his paper. We cannot excuse Governor Saavedra for permitting a paper which is an organ of his Government, and to support which his Excellency's Government subscribes for some 200 papers daily, to teach such revolutionary revolutionary sentiments. If Don Mariano Saavedra allows this article to pass unscathed, he himself should be accused before the Supreme Federal Court for aiding and abetting revolution.

The man who ponders over this outrageous article, and reflects to what an awful crisis we are fast drifting, realizes, indeed, the critical position of the country at this moment. Every one looks up to President Mitre, but he does nothing.

We now come forward, as the organ of the richest and most influential body in the country—as the impartial friend of all peacefully disposed natives—as the stern and uncompromising enemy of revolution—we call upon the President of this Republic to remember his oath of office. If it is desirable that we should have another revolution—if it is the wish of the infuriated people of this country that the streets should be dyed with the citizens' blood—then Governor Saavedra and President Mitre can go no easier way to effect it than to allow the editors of the 'Nationalist' to write a few more such articles as 'Que se ha?'

PARAGUAY AND LA PLATA.

The 'Precursor,' of Antwerp, 10th of March, has a very interesting article on these republics, and as the opinion of a leading paper in that progressive country, Belgium, deserves much weight, we translate the same.

The last English mail brings us cheering news of Paraguay, a country heretofore regarded as one of the most backward in Christendom, but now rapidly acquiring importance. While the neighbouring states of La Plata are exhausting themselves in renewed and endless dissensions, and in a credit abroad, we see the prosperity of Paraguay increasing year by year. This striking difference between people of the same race which, fifty years ago, constituted but one nation, is the more strange at first sight, since Paraguay is at a great disadvantage in comparison with the other republics as to geographical situation, being some hundreds of leagues from the ocean. The order, progress, and prosperity of Paraguay, and the wretched condition of the adjacent republics, cannot be ascribed to diversity of race or superior natural advantages. The difference is caused solely by the political organization of the old Spanish Colonies and their dependence.

After shaking off the yoke of Spain, the inhabitants of La Plata could not hope to accept, without danger, the most advanced principles of self-government, which even in the most civilized nations of Europe were the fruit of years and centuries. Nevertheless, the majority of South American Republics adopted that form of Government in its fullest amplitude, while Paraguay, after its liberation from Spain, and release from the tyranny of Francia, proclaimed an administration more consonant with the state of the country, so as to prepare it for the gradual exercise of popular rights, by first instructing the masses, and impressing on them that true liberty can nowhere exist without order and respect for the laws.

The Republics of La Plata, like the rest, without undergoing any transition, without calculating on an article from one of the most influential European papers, the 'Precursor' of Antwerp, respecting Paraguay and the River Plate, which we translate and publish. It contains many truthful remarks concerning this republic, which we could desire to see in this country would study. Strange indeed that in so distant a country as Belgium people should take so correct a view of our state.

The great man has been to see us, and we gather from him some statistics. The monthly collections amount to about one million paper dollars. The Foreign Club uses more gas, than any other house in town.

The 'Reforma Pacifica' states that Sr. Riestra is no Crudo, and that on the contrary his great sympathy for the National Government is so notorious that he is regarded by the Crudos as a thorough Cocido.

The musical society of the Scotch Church will hold a meeting on Friday, 13th inst. The new British Literary Club of Buenos Aires will meet to arrange preliminaries to-morrow evening at seven o'clock in the evening at the Scotch Church.

Mrs. Santa Maria has favoured us with an interesting letter, which throws much light on the recent railway collision at London. It is published in 'Veritas' will again take the field. The public works gains by such discussions, as the French say, 'du chaos des idées sort le bonheur.'

We received files of the New York papers, yesterday, per Lord Baltimore, but the latest dates is February, 18th, and we have had news 16 days later by French mail.

The Club Libertad declares its intention to elect Messrs. Julian Martinez, J. B. Peña, Antonio Castro, and senators for Buenos Ayres; the other three seats have as yet no candidates. The Cocidos have published no list. To-morrow night we shall have an affair of some kind in the Colon theatre; the performance will commence with the National Hymn, in honor of the Installation of the 3rd Post-Pavonian Congress in La Plata. The opera will be 'Un halla en Maschera.'

The May festivals commence next Monday week, and promise to be unusually brilliant. On the 23rd the inauguration of the Western Railway section to Villa Luxan on the 24th, 25th, and 26th balloons ascends by the agencies of Wells from Plaza Victoria. The theatrical and literary circles will be illuminated a gloria each evening, by gas-jets. The ghost exhibit at Galon will be given in the rest of La Plata.

THE REIGN OF TERROR.

Another Attempt at Murder. We regret to say, that another flight attempt at assassination has been reported to us on the very best authority.

On last Sunday night, as a poor Italian quack was returning home, he was attacked when going along Calle Paraguay, near St. Cruz's square. The poor man was knocked down, and severely injured, and almost dead. The assailant, a man of course, knew nothing about the affair,

Respecting the burglars in Mr. Hargreave's store, we are sorry to learn the whole three were Englishmen. They were provided with picklocks, skeleton keys, and all the apparatus of house-breaking. We did an injustice to the sereno, who was the first to give the alarm, and it seems that there is only just effected an entrance when pounced upon.

THE ARGENTINE CENTRAL RAILWAY.

Donated May 10, 1864. To the Editors of the Standard. An anonymous correspondent who assumes the name of 'Veritas' writes you a letter in your number of the 7th inst. full of violent feelings against Mr. David Robertson, myself, and the Great Southern Railway Co. en masse.

His alarm arises on account of a letter I addressed days ago to the 'Nacion Argentina' about the Argentine Central Railway, vindicating the character and proceedings of Mr. Robertson in London, which you thought proper to publish on the 4th inst. and the support has been inserted in the 'Standard' in your request.

In fairness, you contrast, at once, his assertions, giving to the first blow justly deserved by that misnamed 'Veritas.'

As he based all his letter on that false assumption, the least discretion on his part, in giving to the first blow first on your goodwills and astly his courtesy. He would have then spared himself the trouble of writing incoherent things, by being silent on such a matter, he would have acted more judiciously; the same as others, less imprudent and better advised than he, his assertions, giving to the first blow first on your goodwills and astly his courtesy.

Nevertheless he compels me much to my regret, to address these few lines, however disagreeable it is to discuss with anonymous writers. The consequences will be his own work, and clearly his blunder and putting again in evidence the errors of his friends, of which the less said the better.

The so-called 'Veritas' represents the Great Southern Railway and its directors as opposing the Argentine Central scheme. Why and wherefore, it is difficult to understand. Kindred or despised, he has no right to interfere with us, or to put us to the test, as he does, to secure peace, order, and prosperity for these countries.

Yet 'Veritas' conceives it differently and finds fault with our position. The 'disappointment on the part of the Great Southern' for not having the Escondida concession. That supposition is ridiculous. 'Veritas' is evidently ignorant of the fact, that this Escondida project, with all its obligations, had already been refused by the directors of the Great Southern, when offered some time ago by Mr. Wheelwright. Far from being eager about that onerous line, which concession will turn out probably a dead letter, the Great Southern, in La Plata, is as well, like every sensible man acquainted with the topography of this province, that if Escondida is ever to be connected by rail with Buenos Ayres, it will, more probably be, through the Great Southern as a branch channel, according to law, by the Provincial Government.

The long tract of private lands between both extensions, and privately that tracing the only favourable one. Let then Veritas discern from his mind the illusions about the Escondida line, and stop at getting what is not worth having, and is likely to be, for many years to come.

The mistake 'Veritas' has committed is, in doubting the having applied to the Escondida, what is in England, and the many qualities eminently distinguishing Mr. Robertson. He is besides fully aware of the importance of the Cordoba Line and of many more schemes, really worth this country, to bind intimately its future progress and stability, as a nation. That that great and vital interest he feels on its behalf, compels him to look with much concern, at any scheme, not properly presented, which might be unsuccessful, for he knows too well, how it might contribute to the discredit of the country and to the abatement of its future undertakings.

The contents of this letter will be sufficient to prove the fallacy of 'Veritas' views on the different topics he had entered into, the right of misapprehension of lands included, and referring me again to my previous letter, without further dilucidating, out of respect for the wishes of parties highly interested in the welfare of the country, and so would have wished my overlooking altogether the indiscretion 'Veritas' has committed, I leave matters at rest, fully persuaded that the country would have wished cleared up in the best possible way in London.

Apologizing for the valuable space I have taken, in your paper, I remain, Sir, Your obedient servant, CONSTANT SANTAMARIA.

Discovery of Silver Mines in

We are indebted to the Ferro-carrier of Rosario for the following news:—The mineral wealth of this territory is daily increasing. New veins of silver ore, giving a ley of 100 marks, and 25 of copper, have been discovered in Camamarca, as the following letter shows. We call the attention of miners to this important discovery.— 'To the Editor of the 'Zonda.' 'I send you the following extract from a letter from Copiapo, dated 20th March, 1864.

'My friend, Don Ignacio Moreno, a Copiapo miner, who is at present in Piambala, Camamarca, writes me that he has made a grand discovery. He tells me that he has found out 21 veins, and that the metal is good, although it contains much copper—that it exceeds the ley of 100 marks of silver, with about 25 per cent of copper. He tells me that he is coming with the metal this month.'

'I ought to state, Mr. Editor, that the current ley of copper received at Copiapo is 21 per cent, and that the above-mentioned metal will be purchased for its ley of silver, besides the ley of copper, without any duty, as usual.'—D. D. O.'

NEW CUSTOMS TARIFF.

In view of the necessity of conforming to the law ordering the appointment of a mixed commission for the arrangement of the new tariff of custom-house duties, for 1864, let the following commissioners be appointed for that purpose.

For articles of English manufactures, Sr. Wm. Gruba. For articles of French manufactures, M. Julio B. Vignat. For articles of other countries, Sr. Don Adolfo Gomez. For articles of other countries, Sr. Don Adolfo Gomez.

Home produce—Don Mauricio Peanano. And it being also necessary to revise the tariff of custom house store and portage, let the following be appointed for that purpose—Don Luis Amado, Don Jacinto Mallarin, and Don Eduardo Hornemann.

Let these aforesaid gentlemen associate themselves with the head accountant of the custom-house, and proceed, in the business appointed. Communicate this to those named, expressing a hope that they will not decline their appointments, and that they will with promptness proceed to the following: Don Julio B. Vignat, in order to commence operations at once.

SIXTH REPORT OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

RESUMEN. The number of Post-offices existing in 1863 was 103. The number of employees of all grades was 7620. In 1863 17 new Post-offices were established.

The sale of postage stamps during the past year throughout the Republic has increased 10 per cent. The Post-office of Buenos Ayres alone has produced 34,396 dol. m. in this branch.

During 1863 there have passed through the Post-offices of the Republic, 1,157,493 letters, and 708,295 packages of newspapers. Official documents, to the number of 97,181 have been despatched through the Post-offices. The mail coaches, subsidized by Government have made 509 trips, which is equivalent to being constantly on the road during the whole 462 days of the year. They have carried about 260 quintals of correspondence.

The Total Administration has had no other subsidy in 1863 than that granted by the Provincial Municipality of 402,210 dol. m. It has produced 974,062 and expended 412,878 50, thus leaving a credit balance of 561,184 20. The Postmaster-General draws attention to the fact of the receipts having exceeded by 74,062 dol. m. the calculation of expenses made by the Government.

THE NEW LINES OF STEAMERS.

Buenos Ayres, May 8, 1864. To the Editors of the Standard. Gentlemen, In your impression of to-day you give an outline of the new gigantic project of steam navigation, which is to cut the traffic of these rivers.

Without knowing the pecuniary amount to be given by Government, I have a strong idea that I prefer to the Minister of the Interior, who is concerned in the scheme, as far as the river-revenue scheme is concerned, and especially respecting the industry of the country, than to be obliged to give an outline of the project, which is to cut the traffic of these rivers. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, DAVID BRUCE.

Estados del Nueva Granada... These two countries, by last accounts from the Pacific, are still at logger-heads...

MONTevideo - The La Plata says that Don Waldino Uruquiza and Colonel D. Telmo Lopez have started from Montevideo to Salto to carry into execution some commissions of great importance...

Economy in riches - Such is the legend stamped on the copper cent pieces of Chile, and by its means the poorest part in that country is aware of a truth of which that Government seems to be woefully ignorant...

Maritime Intelligence - The Tevere, which arrived two days ago, picked up in the Parana three Frenchmen who had belonged to the expedition of Martin Garcia...

Dallas - By the Paven which arrived on Saturday last from Rosario, the following bulletin has come: 126 gold ounces, 8217 hard dollars, 287 1/2 gold ounces, 12,400 marks silver.

Our notice colleagues - If the article under the head of 'Ventanas' in the 'National' of Monday night is a correct picture of the conduct of the young ladies of this city, any man who is not a misogynist must be mad or an ass...

ERRATA - The leading article yesterday headed Postal Returns 1863 should be 1862. In column 2, line 13, the passage 'private city' &c., should read 'private houses, city' &c.

ON CHANGE - May 10, 1864. Paper price of ounces $463 1/4. Patacos are going up, paper money going down - confidence ebbing out. Patacos opened at 28 3/4, and closed at 28 5/8. Cash sales 40,754.

THE SATE - For Wednesday $10,000 at $8.90. Saturday 63,000. June 31 36,000 85.00. July 31 10,000 28.00. August 31 12,000. June 30 5,000 20.00. do 6,000 23.00. do 8,000 29.00. Oct. 31 24,000. Nov. 31 16,000 24.80. Dec. 31 1,000 20.10. do 8,000 28.50.

THE POLITICAL STATE OF THE COUNTRY is such that people are beginning to lose all confidence in the paper money, and the Hukla to-day it was openly said, and it is things keep going on as they are, ounces will be 500 before long. It seems to be the general conviction, amongst the merchants, that on Sunday next there will be a serious run: both parties are already preparing for the strife.

THE SALUBRITY IN THE RIVERS are the only persons now doing a good business. We hear that it is probable Mr. Rickard will shortly arrive in Buenos Ayres, en route to England, where he goes to establish the new English Mining Company. We give the report for what it is worth. The most experienced brokers on the Baha are at present buying patacos for the end of the month, and 28 5/8 - this is a bad sign.

PRODUCE SALES - 300 cowhides, dry, Mat. $140. 1400 do do do do 138. 1000 do do do do 136. 100 do do do do 132. 800 do do do do 130. 200 do do do do 128. 1200 do wool mixed 60. 300 do do do 62. 1100 do do do 60. 70 at half, South 120.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUD & CO.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS-AYRES.
The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Maud & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Maud & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1893.

WILLIAM LESLIE.
CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p.c.] per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retro the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one hundred dollars after the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
