OPENING OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS. MAY 12TH, 1864.

On Thursday last the vicinity of the new Congress Hall was crowded with persons anxious to assist at the opening of Congress, and about the hour of noon a detachment of 100 men from the 2nd battalion was drawn up in front of the building. The day was very fine, and much animation pervaded the National Government House.

Long before the appointed hour every part of the Congress-hall was filled by an unusually respectable audience, admission being only allowed by ticket, and the military acting as sentinels on the various doors. The press gallery had been very improperly ceded to the public, and editors and reporters left to shift for themselves.

At one o'clock the President, Gen. Bartolomé Mitre, accompanied by his five Ministers, proceeded from the Government House to the Congress Hall, and when crossing the Plaza Mayo was saluted by the crowd.

The President looked as usual careworn and haggard, but did a gleam of animation pass across his countenance as he began his remarkable and brilliant harangue, amid the breathless silence and concentrated attention of all.

The President retained his seat while speaking, and there was no sign of applause as the rounded periods and flattering phrases poured from his lips in sharp, steady, and unimpassioned manner.

According to Argentine custom, the President retained his seat while speaking, and there was no sign of applause as the rounded periods and flattering phrases poured from his lips in sharp, steady, and unimpassioned manner.

Our colleague returns thanks to Messrs. Drabble and Co., of Buenos Ayres, for the present of two cotton gins, which that firm presented to the Government.

The Brazilian Minister, Sr. Lopez Gama, has been, owing to ill health, obliged to leave Asuncion. It appears that the question of limits has not yet been settled.

STOP PRESS. NO ELECTIONS. THE FACTIONS RECONCILED.

The 'Nacional' publishes the Government's decree dated 13th inst. suspending the elections ordered for Sunday, adding that this is "for conciliation."

The following are the terms agreed to by the rival Clubs:— 1. Six city deputies resign, to make room for Cocido candidates.

2. Mixed list for four city senators in room of those rejected. 3. The Cocidos to elect three senators in room of those resigned.

A WELCOME GUEST. We are happy to learn that our talented and respected countryman, Samuel Phibbs, Esq., Argentine Consul at Liverpool, has arrived by this packet, on a visit to Buenos Ayres.

Mr. Phibbs merits 'Coad Milite Faltas,' no less from his countrymen, than from all patriotic Argentines. We believe he is the only Irishman in the Argentine service; and it is a pity General Mitre cannot find more of the same stamp.

LATEST FROM PARAGUAY. ARRIVAL OF THE IGUREY.

The Paraguayan mail steamer arrived at last, having run aground on her voyage down, in front of the Diamante. The Esmeralda, however came to her assistance, and got her off.

The 'Semanario' contains an account of the inauguration of the printing office, by President Lopez, which was one of the grandest affairs, that has occurred in Paraguay for years.

The monthly review of our Paraguayan colleague is extremely interesting, the greatest peace and order reigns throughout the Republic, and the crops are being gathered in.

The country has not suffered so much from the drought as was thought, and our colleague asserts that the crop of cotton will, after all, prove regular.

Our colleague returns thanks to Messrs. Drabble and Co., of Buenos Ayres, for the present of two cotton gins, which that firm presented to the Government.

Interesting from Japan.

By way of San Francisco we have news from Kanagawa, Japan, to the 7th ult. The Yocoon's palace at Yeddo was burned on Christmas Day.

News had reached Kanagawa that on the 31st of October nearly all of Hakodadi was burned by incendiary fires.

THE ARGENTINE CENTRAL RAILWAY.

Buenos Ayres, May 13, 1864. To the Editors of the Standard. Gentlemen, Under the head of this very pretty little quarrel, the Central Railway, you have in to-day's paper an article signed 'Delta,' to which are attached some paragraphs extracted from the 'Railway Times,' which paper, 'Delta' says, is under the necessity of publishing geographical, statistical, &c., information for the benefit of the old folks at home, on account of the woful ignorance of our British friends.

There is not one pound of Vicuña wool shipped in a year from Chile; all the wool of that class is shipped at the ports of Islay and Arica, Peru. From Potosi the annual silver products are about 200 marks, and they are shipped from Cobija, Bolivia.

Mr. Parish says little in his letter of the 6th (which appeared in your paper of the 7th inst.) but that little, shows that the Buenos Ayres cricketers were greatly disappointed in not receiving acceptance of their challenge for Friday and Saturday, the 6th and 7th.

Mr. Parish had previously asked in a private letter to Major Munro, if he could play them on the 5th inst., which was a holiday, and I addressed a letter to the Secretary of the B. A. Club at the end of April, intimating that if they sent us a formal challenge for that day they would pretty cordially receive an answer accepting it.

The 25th and 26th May are holidays both here and in B. Ayres, and we shall be happy indeed to hear from the B. A. Club that they can come down and play us then. They need not frighten themselves with the idea that they will have at least 18 Montevideans.

By inserting this in your paper you will oblige Yours truly, Edw. Cooper, Hon. Sec. M. C. C.

Reducción, 27th April, 1864.—To Don Antonio Baquerizo, Comandante General of the Southern Frontier.

It was about 4 p.m. when the Indians who had passed during the night previous the Laguna Onda, invaded this place, and as on their retreat to the North, they appeared to me to be in number, I seized the fords of the river; this manœuvre having been executed, the Indians, to the number of 200, made their appearance; I gave them battle, and lost two soldiers, killed. They lost one Indian, but left us totally helpless, as they carried away all our horses and cattle, and we have not one single mare left us.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
