THE WESTERN RAILWAY

After four years delay we have at last succeeded in prolonging this milway as far as Villa Luxan, opening a new section some 8 leagues in length, the whole line comprising about 17 leagues, or 55 miles English. It cannot be donied that this is a great achievement, and it will place one of the principal camp towns in immediate contact with the metropolis. Villa Luxan will probably increase in importance almost like Moron (twelve huadred per cent the first year), and we expect to see a number of English shops spring up After four years' delay we have at la

A few days ago we had occasion to be mark how rapidly magazines have spring up in this city, and our attention is now attracted to the strong resemblance the good people here bear to Panurge's purchase. Some time

THE MAY HOLIDAYS

The following is the programme of the public amusements:—
Monday, the 23rd inst, the fun of the fair' commences at noon, by military musical bands playing in the Plaza, where several' metry-go-rounds' have been erected for the amusement of the rising politicians or generation (the words are synonomous.)
At 2 p.m., Mr. G. R. Wells will make an ascent in his big balloon; immediately afterwards a company of acrobats will 'tuck' in their twoppenies' politicly, will perform till sunservite.

At half-past 7 p.m., the fireworks will be let off.
On Tuesday, the 24th, the performances will be the same as the

On Tuesday, the 24th, the performances will be the same as the day previous.

On Wednesday 25th, at half-past 0 a.m., the pupils of the Muricipal schools will sing the National Hymn at the foot of the statue of Liberty.

After Mass in Church, the Municipality throws open the doors of its acidous to their guests, after which Mr. Wells will again go up in his balconto the to be followed by the saltambunques and fireworks as before.

THE DEBT TO BRAZIL.

The National Government has come to terms with the Brazilian Minister for the payment of the debt which Entre Rios and Corrientes contracted Entre Ros and Corrientes contracted in the time of Rossa.

The Argentine Republic agrees to pay every three meaths to the Brazilian Consel-General 17,500 patacons, and to continue such payment until the whole dobt is extinguished, which is 714,600 pater—that is to apply $100,000 which will be represented in Exchange, &c., seconding to the protocol of 21th December, 1857.

Interest at the rate of 6 per cent on the 400,000 dols, from the time when it was lent, and on 314,000 since the last was lent, and on 314,000 since the last was lent, and on 314,000 since the last incommentation of the second since the last incommentation of the dense fit, augment the payments. This treaty is to be submitted to the respective Governments for approbation.

JACOP'S COW.

To the Bottons of the 'Standard' Deer Sire,
Will you please call attention to the sad state of the frost of the Cathedral which has saffored a misfortune; the last leg of the Egyptian cow has fallen to the ground, public set of in puberent to the ground, public set of in puberent to the ground, public set of the total carth has fallen to the ground. Coeffeet take the linit.
The missing member should be replaced, dampness should not be allowed to separate what nature intended to be one; for as he flower which droops and lease its first leaf amountees a speedy to remination, so the missing haunch indicates the fate of the three remaining the ground of the control of the contr

Joseph and his brothers, in Coeido acriliabile indifferent by the fate of their flock, but I cannot do the same. May
I be hold enough to request the Municipality to restore the departed limb?
Yours respectfully

UNNOTUNATE CONTRACTS—We are informed that Messis. Robert Napier and son, the builders of the Black Prince and Hector, having represented and son, the builders of the Black Prince and Hector, having represented admirally that they had suffered a very heavy pecuniary loss by the exceptional character of the contracts which they had undertaken, their lordships have recommended the Lords of the Treasury to sanction the payment of 284,700, in addition to the large sums which had been previously expected to the same property expects the large amount will at once be transferred to this very fortunate fram. We are fauther told that the builders of the Defence and Revistance, encouraged by this set of liberality on the part of their lordships, are taking the steps which they deem right in siderable balances which are still due to them—Army and navy Gazette.
