Applying to the Dutch Consul and procuring an order from the Minister of Government for the burglar's arrest.

Gustav, the house-porter, had escaped to Santa Fe, and remained there the last few months, but hearing nothing of the arrest of his accomplices, he ventured to return last week.

MONEY WELL SPENT.

We extract from the Governor's message the following items, which reflect the greatest credit on Governor Saavedra.

Our readers will agree with us in saying that the million of dollars expended in building churches for public worship and roads and bridges is money well spent.

Governor Saavedra may be abused by a certain class of politicians, but it is now our duty to call the attention of our readers to his praiseworthy efforts to improve the province over which he has been called to rule.

We trust that he will turn his attention to reforming the abuses in the camp, which we regret to say are daily increasing.

The following are the items of well spent provincial money.

Table with 2 columns: Item description and Amount. Includes 'For building the municipal house and the Juzgado de Moron' for $35,000, 'For the church of Bragado' for 50,000, etc.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Mercury left this port with the English mails on Friday evening, taking among her passengers, Capt. Bruce, Mr. Holly Hudson (late American Consul) and his lady.

Mr. Wells will make his second voyage, weather permitting, from Plaza Victoria, and the fact will be announced to the city by some rockets let off by order of the Municipality.

We notice the arrival of some North American and Cuban immigrants this week. We believe they bring some capital and intend to commence sheep-farming.

Mr. Wells will make his second voyage, weather permitting, from Plaza Victoria, and the fact will be announced to the city by some rockets let off by order of the Municipality.

The Sunday races in Calle Sola, Barracas, are a great nuisance, bringing together a number of vagrant gauchos. On last Sunday an accident occurred, two riders meeting full tilt.

Outrage on two Englishmen.

We have been informed of a gross insult offered to two young English gentlemen, by the authorities of Banda Oriental. Messrs Payne and Solly arrived per last British packet.

No one that has at heart the interest of these countries can fail to regret the repetition of these disgraceful occurrences, the victims of which are generally new-comers.

STATE OF THE INTERIOR.

Nothing of great note has occurred in the provinces since the date of our last review, although that period has not been unmarked by events of considerable importance.

Amongst these we would mention the elections in Entre Rios, where the most powerful chief in the country has quietly retired from the Governorship, and has delivered up the power.

We consider this circumstance as very important, as it is proof of the perfect good faith of General Urquiza, a man whose power and influence in the country are very great.

Mr. Urquiza, although an ardent promoter of the advancement of the material interests of his country is a man whose hands are more or less tied by the element of disorganization which have attached themselves to him as a great party chief.

The state of the provinces is satisfactory. The amount of goods despatched for the interior within the last month has been considerable, and the receipts of wool, hides, hair, manufactured goods, wines and fruit has been in proportion.

The news of the definite arrangement of the Cordoba Railroad, and the disposal of all the shares offered, has of course made a great impression here and already a change for the better is apparent.

Although Cordoba cannot be said to enjoy the profound state of political tranquillity that blesses the province of Santa Fe, nothing has occurred there of importance since our last review.

The country people are busy at their agricultural labors, and the commercial aspect of the province is improving. The news of the definite arrangement of the railroad was received there with great rejoicings.

The mines of San Juan are becoming richer every day. A very respectable amount of silver is now got out, most of which finds its way however to Chile.

There is a good deal of excitement in Buenos Ayres in reference to the transatlantic railroad direct from that city to the Pass lately discovered by the great engineer Mr. Mieggs; but after all, an examination of the map will show clearly that Mr. Wheelwright's scheme to carry a road through the upper provinces, across the Andes at the pass of San Francisco, and join it to the Co-piapo road, already constructed, is much the most feasible of the two.

To return to the Litoral. The northern frontier of this province has been perfectly secured against all future depredations of the Indians.

The great military road starting from a point opposite Corrientes, and running in a direct line to Santiago del Estero, has been surveyed half way and the native tribes, through whose territory it passes have not only not molested the surveying party, but have offered them every assistance in their power.

In the capital of this province the office of Governor, unlike other provinces is going begging. The finances are in a flourishing state, and all the different Departments administered with prudence and economy.

We are happy to inform our English readers that a new English Magazine is about to be established in Rosario, to be dedicated entirely to the advancement of the material prosperity of the Argentine Republic.

The 'Argentine Citizen' is to be edited by a distinguished literary gentleman, who has already done good service with his experienced pen.

ON CHANGE.

The business in specie to-day was rather active, but in produce, with the exception of 6000 salted hides, at 8 1/2 reales, there was nothing done, as merchants were waiting their letters at the Post-office.

The German merchants were so possessed with the news, respecting the storming of Duppel, that there was positively no speaking to them on any other topic. One over sanguine Prussian broker stated that when England and France next attempted to take a fortress, such as Sebastopol, they should employ Prussians, as Duppel, he asserted, was twice as strong as Sebastopol.

Merchants complain greatly of the very high price of specie, and attribute it to a combination amongst some half dozen of brokers.

The news of the packet, respecting wool, is very good, and we hear all the holders of wool will make a rather nice profit.

We hear that a new board of directors has been formed to manage the affairs of the Argentine Central Railway Company here, Mr. Hart having been added to the original number.

The Paven arrived to-day with fifty passengers and some specie; everything in the interior is quiet, but Peru and Spain seem preparing for a fight.

The Kepler left this evening for Montevideo, the captain having refused to wait to complete his cargo. We understand that he has orders to sail on certain dates. She took however an unusual number of passengers (names in another column).

We have received an important letter from T. Stollerfort and Sons, Liverpool, which we shall publish in our next.

The collections through town were rather better to-day than usual, the shopkeepers having apparently done well during the feast days.

 No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
 The Bank of Mada & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
 The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
 These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, workmen & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
 The Bank of Mada and Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
