Cotton-Planting in Mendoza.

Cotton-Phinting in Mundoza.
Senator Blanco brings good tidings of cotton at the foot of the Andes.
Last year he purchased of us a few pounds of seed, which have yielded 160 pounds seed cotton. He describes points of seed, which have yielded. 160 pounds seed octors. He describes the experiment as signally successful! and involving weyl tittle above. In fact, he says, "I treated it as make, and the crop was abandant. The Georgian seed proved lest, the Sea Island alcocuning up well, and the West Indian hall sawed. The Brantian gave a very inferior cotton. Many people were associated as the success of my efforts, and a few have resolved to give up the old restine and try cotton. I have formed an association of six or seven to the season of the seas
