The payment of the debt due to Heazil, and which we mentioned some few weeks ago, had been irranged by President, Mitre, has also been ratified. Next week we expect to see Congress take up the Budget, and dispatch it in a few days. The system of apending a day, in discussing every item, is highly periodous. Pablic attention is at last being called to the contemptible system of night watch is this city. The 'serenos' are utterly useless, and our callengue, the 'Nacion,' at last has taken the matter up. People residing six or system squares from the Plaza Victoria, cannot go to the Opera without securing an expert, such is the shocking state of our city after nightfull. Revolvers and life preservers are more alcoble now than in the worst times of rowdysm in New York. We want a good night police, we pay for it, and we think Government ought to see we have it.
