Sympathy with Peru.

Great Meeting at the Retiro.

The largest assemblage seen for many years in B. Ayres, except at the May festivals, was that of Sunday, convened by the Club Pucelo, as a manifestation in favour of Peru in the actual question with Spain.

The hour appointed was noon, but when we arrived there were hardly 400 persons in the Plaza Retiro, standing in knots about the statue of General San Martin.

At one o'clock General Yriarte and other heroes of the Independence arrived on the ground, but were not saluted with a single 'viva.'

It seemed that the proceedings of the meeting had not been clearly arranged, only one member of the Club Pucelo figuring on the platform, and the President of that body (Sr. Gutierrez) not attending.

General Yriarte, having taken off his hat, opened the affair by saluting the statue of General San Martin, in the name of Argentines and of all South American republicans.

Don Alvaro Barros, an old gentleman who had held some civic post under the first Republican Government, reminded the audience of the efforts made by their forefathers for liberty.

General Tomas Guido said—You all know, fellow-citizens, for what purpose we are assembled. The task which Argentines labored to achieve 50 years ago is not yet completed.

three Republics. From the Plata to Rio Bamba, from the Cordillera to the Andes, the old regime was extirpated, and our lungs breathed the vigorous and healthy air of liberty (cheers.)

Sor. Bilbao said: Citizens! know ye what is imperilled by the barbarous aggression of Spain? It is not merely a city or people, but an idea—the idea of Liberty and Republicanism.

D. Hector Varela said: The piratical act of a Spanish Commander has filled us with indignation, and we are even threatened with a repetition of the struggle for Liberty, which our heroic forefathers waged against Spain.

A person calling himself a Spaniard (name unknown) declared himself a Democrat, and hoped the Republicans would allow him to fraternize, as all upright Spaniards detested the tyrannical measures of the Madrid Cabinet.

The committee seemed anxious to break up the meeting at this stage, and repeated cries for "Chassising," and "Mancilla" caused a slight confusion of councils, during which Sor. Varela came forward and insisted on a hearing for Dr. Chassising.

Dr. Chassising said: Citizens! you have just been told that an idea is at stake, and that idea, republicanism. This is most true.

From the moment of quitting the earth until arriving at the greatest possible height in space which man can reach, one passes (says M. Dupins Delcourt) through a series of new sensations.

too, in Buenos Ayres, we have many outcasts from their country, who will unite their efforts to ours, in the glorious cause of aiding a sister republic, which has been assailed by a pirate.

Capt. Mansilla said: The cause of republicanism is endangered, and with it the dearest prerogatives of our human condition. Republic means perfection, for Reason has invented no form of Government so equitable, and history records the most brilliant exploits under popular sovereignty.

Here the speaker apologized for not being better prepared with his speech, and was warmly embraced by General Yriarte and Guido.

The meeting was about to adjourn to the Plaza Victoria, Sor. Varela inviting those present to accept Gen. Yriarte's idea of swearing the Independence at the foot of the column of Liberty.

A nervous looking young man named Rodriguez, from the Custom-house returned to remind the meeting that the only great man of Argentine Independence was Moreno (murmurs).

When the crowd turned down Calle Florida, there were close upon 5,000 persons in the long file of well-dressed citizens. Several carriages full of ladies were waiting at the corner of the Retiro.

We understand that a part of the procession came down calle San Martin, and stopped at the house of the President, who came out and told them they were fine fellows.

From the moment of quitting the earth until arriving at the greatest possible height in space which man can reach, one passes (says M. Dupins Delcourt) through a series of new sensations.

awayed hither and thither by the zephyrs. With this sentiment is mixed an admiration for the lovely picture unfolded to us by Nature. As the horizon extends, the rivers show themselves in a hundred windings.

Soon the ascending force of the balloon impels us to a height of 1000 or 1200 yards; and with a more intense cold we feel a humming in the ears.

At 4,000 yards high the cold becomes excessive, the surface of the earth confused, the highways look like threads, the rivers mere streamlets, the sky is serene and generally deep blue.

Ten thousand yards seems the greatest height to which man can ascend, and here the isolation is complete, but we cannot long remain here, for the cold is terrific, and a general uneasiness is felt in every part of the body.

The loss of gas, or sometimes its condensation by cold, causes the balloon to descend very rapidly, the cold becomes less intense, and the earth, which just now seemed but a grayish mass, unfolds itself anew, with its various productions.

According to our colleague, the 'Ferro Carril' of Rosario, things are in a bad way in this province. The Government, it is said, has declared the greatest hostility against three very influential men in the province named Lobo, Augier, and Moreno.

Besides this, our colleague's correspondent charges the Government with shooting a man, named Puchetu without any trial whatever, and four hours after his arrest.

This same Government, it is said, has discovered a wide-spread conspiracy, headed by Moreno, Augier, and Recalde, and a man named Raimundo Castro, has been arrested, and is expected to be shot hourly.

The Provincial Government has paid up the first call on the 250 shares of the Central Railway which it subscribed for. The call amounted to the trifling of 88,410 dols.

EDITOR'S TABLE. The departure of the three Ministers on Sunday evening, for Montevideo, took all the town by surprise.

Yesterday it rained all day long in town, and we have not heard from the camp; but from the appearance of the weather, we think it must have rained from here to the Chincha Islands.

A German sheepfarmer, resident at San Borombon, has bought a splendid estancia in Santa Fe, the other side of the Caracaras, 17 leagues from Rosario, at the rate of 4000 Bolivian dollars per square league.

Our evening colleague, the 'Pueblo,' has got an 'absent friend' in San Nicolas, who has commenced a series of letters, entitled 'Horas en San Nicolas.' This plagiarist correspondent states that he was half starved on board the Paven on his way up, and owing to the diminutive size of the blankets, almost froze to death.

Our readers will be pleased to learn that the hint we threw out, respecting the establishment of an English theatre, has been productive of good effect.

A distinguished English merchant, we heard, has received a 'tercio' of the new yerba, about which there was so much talk previous to the Pinzon question.

The first act is the weakest, the dialogue being somewhat tedious. In the 2d and 3rd, the incidents are well arranged, but the apostrophe of the ugly old negro in love with the heroine is too sublime, elevating Samba to the level of a Platonic philosopher.

The Provincial Government has paid up the first call on the 250 shares of the Central Railway which it subscribed for. The call amounted to the trifling of 88,410 dols.

Notwithstanding the rain, there was a tremendous conflagration at the bank and four millions burnt, we believe that, like the last, the 'quemazon' was strictly private.

Messrs. Drabble Brothers have presented the Correntine Government with two cotton gins. This leading English house has always displayed the most praiseworthy interest in cotton-planting, and has set a good example to all the other English houses in town.

Collisions near Montevideo. We have been informed that the Argentine steamer Corrientes, coming to this port from Buenos Ayres, met a vessel at 11.20 p.m. without any lights.

When the Corrientes saw her, she was at such a short distance, that they had no time but to put the helm a starboard, and run into the prow of the N.E., the wind being fresh a head, and running 5 1/2 knots an hour.

The Swedish brig Walkyrian, and English ship Don Diego, which left Montevideo on the 2nd inst. the first for Liverpool, and the second for New York, laden with produce, came foul of each other at 11 p.m., same night.

On Saturday evening at the invitation of Capt. Mansilla we attended his Benefit at the Victoria Theatre. The house was crowded, the President and his family being present, and we remarked a good many English and other foreigners.

Atar-Gull is a series of fine tableaux, in which the brilliancy of coloring destroys the effect of light and shade. It is a poetic narration in which the redundancy of metaphor sometimes clogs the argument, but the poetry of sentiment and dramatic grouping of characters and events, carry us through, and we are entertained with the recital, however displaced by the moral.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU & CO

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other trifles.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
