British Library Catalogue. On sale at this office as at the Library each month we will publish a new edition containing list of new books received, as appendix. 62

We have seen a very fine picture of the steamer Emerald, and other marine paintings by an English artist of humble conditions, but considerable merit. Amongst them, the artist in this city: his 'Sauglors' Cove in Illegagne,' an exhibition at this office, is elegantly executed.

Owing to the continued bad weather, the opera of Macbeth has been postponed until this evening. We understand that Mr. Well's Orestes was very successful, and will appear at Buenos and the spectral kings in this opera.

Some people talk of the English packet coming in to-morrow, but we cannot expect her before Monday. The French packet leaves to-morrow; there will be a supplemental mail, per Fairy, on Tuesday afternoon. The Parana steamer will leave for Liverpool on Wednesday; Captain Brownrigg is going in her on a short visit to England.

Don Carlos Paz, author of 'Juan Valjean,' who had such a row with Gov. Saavedra's Ministers about the abolition of the National Guard, is now in the 'War Office,' has just been named Prime Minister of Mendoza. Probably the first Act of His Dramatic Excellency will be relative to the late earthquake, and we may be sure there will be rhyme if not reason in his official documents.

A decree published yesterday in the office of the Director, ad interim, of the National College, has been sent to the Dean of Studies, (we believe M. Jaques). The ring-leaders of the refractory students in Concepcion have been put in prison, and it is thought Professor Vico will get his copy, so that in the end the students will have gained the day.

Notice Hospital.—There are few among us who really appreciate the generous charity of Argentines, but figures are more eloquent than long dissertations. Patients admitted during May, 22; of this number 75 were natives, and 17 foreigners; 111 died gratuitously with every care.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU & CO. BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great capitals of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings. The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount. These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of any sickness or old age, instead of expending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities. The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863. p. p. Mau & Co. WELLS LEMLE.

CONDITIONS. 1st. The Bank receives all interest money from Twenty five dollars currency or one fifty dollar upwards. 2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6 p c) per annum which is liquidated every six months. 3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited. 4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor is at his wish to open an account current according to the rates established by the Bank. 5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
