Municipal Reform.

If there is any one abuse in the River Plate which cries to Heaven for reformation it is the Municipal squandering which is going on in this city.

Having now for many years experienced the utter incompetency of our Municipal Board, and being most thoroughly convinced that there is not the slightest improvement to be expected from this sleepy corporation.

The paper currency is now a chronic evil of the country: it inevitably makes us all poorer, but the depreciation of the paper dollar will not break a man's neck.

Last evening the diligence to Barracas was all but upset on the hill immediately preceding Calle Buen Orden.

Mr. W. Bridge next came forward and stated that the aggressions of Admiral Mud had caused him the most serious injury in his business.

the ruts and holes of getting our necks broken. Promising on their part to attend to the sanitary condition of the place, we are, all who are obliged to drink river water, undergoing a sort of slow poison more fatal than belladonna.

Sympathy for Barracas.

Important Meeting.

In consequence of the scandalous attempt of Admiral Mud, to seize the very valuable Argentine possession, known as Barracas, a rather influential meeting was convened for yesterday evening.

Mr. Bilheyo next came forward, and with tears in his eyes, and mud on his boots, stated that he had missed the coach, and had been obliged to walk up Barracas in his danger.

Mr. W. Bridge next came forward and stated that the aggressions of Admiral Mud had caused him the most serious injury in his business.

Mr. Bone Ash, the only Englishman present, believed that it would cost but little to evict the ruffian Mud, if clean instructions were given.

A Mr. Tuna offered to fill up all the ruts and holes on the hill, provided that eternal animosity was then and there sworn to the rotten Municipality.

charges against Peru. The Butchery of Talambo (Concluded).

The Spanish Envoy, Mazarredo, goes on to explain the motives which have obliged Spain to seize the Chinchá Islands.

Although the tribunals admitted the injustice of the seizure of our trader, Maria Julia, the Peruvian Government refused compensation.

D. Manuel Salcedo, a politician and capitalist of Lima, had engaged sixty Basque families in Spain, in 1850, to come out and cultivate cotton on his farm at Talambo.

It is notorious that D. Manuel Salcedo looked on at the work of blood from the balcony of his house, that his steward, Carmen Valdes, headed the assassins and rewarded them by direction of his master.

When the Sub-prefect, Governor, and Criminal Judge, went to the farm on the 21st of August, they found the armed assassins still there.

The cause was so prolonged that justice has never been executed, and our Consul had to protest in Lima, but the criminals will never be punished.

Such are the outrages which have induced Spain to take active measures to cause her flag and citizens to be respected.

Lima, April 12th-1864. Bishop de Salazar y Mazarredo.

Such is the case of Spain, and if these statements be true, there is little room for sympathy with Peru.

Editor's Table.

The Liverpool steamer Paraguay is due, having sailed on the 2nd ult. The La Plata was to follow on June 1st.

The Literary Society of Buenos Ayres will shortly be inaugurated, under the auspices of the distinguished biographer of Belgrano, President Mitre.

The committee of Colon Theatre inform us they were not opposed to giving that public building for the Peruvian meeting.

By decree, June 14th, Governor Saavedra prolongs the term for enrolment of National Guards till the 31st July.

General Mitre's reply to the meeting on Sunday was very droll. He said, that he saluted the Argentine and other American flags which had floated gloriously over the continent.

The 'Defensor' relates that a boat was capsized on Sunday morning, crossing from Salto to Concordia.

We are authorised to contradict a statement in the native papers, to the effect that a police agent named Garcia captured the fellow implicated in Visser's robbery at Montevideo.

The following telegram, addressed to the Secretary of State for War, was received early this morning from Her Majesty's Consul at Alexandria.

On the 22d General Cameron attacked this position, which was most gallantly assaulted and carried by the 50th Regiment.

Interesting news from the United States.

The Confederates have withdrawn from Fort Pillow, in a northerly direction. General Sherman's account of the capture of Pillow states that 300 coloured troops were murdered by the Confederates.

The Government has stopped the transmission of news from Virginia. It is supposed that Lee or Grant has commenced moving.

Deserters report Longstreet to be moving down to Sinoanah Valley, and state that Lee's army has received today's rations for a forward movement.

Further Fed River advices confirm the news of Banks' defeat, but state that the engagement was renewed the following day, when the Confederates were routed with considerable loss.

The Federal fleet which had advanced to within 80 miles of Shreveport has been ordered to return. While on its way down the Confederates attacked the fleet but were repulsed with heavy loss.

The Governor of New York has tendered the service of the State Militia for the defence of the forts around New York and the frontier.

The following telegram, addressed to the Secretary of State for War, was received early this morning from Her Majesty's Consul at Alexandria.

On the 22d General Cameron attacked this position, which was most gallantly assaulted and carried by the 50th Regiment.

Wool Market.

Since the issue of my last circular there has been an active trade in all kinds of merchandise, and generally at higher prices.

The Government issued gold certificates for about two weeks, to be used in payment of duties only, and sold them below the market rate for gold.

Congress is still busy preparing the new tax and tariff bills, and very much higher rates it is supposed will be made, so as to produce a large income to the Government.

No decisive or large battles have been fought by either branches of the Army. We have telegraphic news of some severe fighting in Western Louisiana.

The 'National' of the 15th, gives an account of the Session of National Deputies on the 16th. When a man does not know the day of the week in England, it is supposed he did not sleep at home the night before.

The secretary announced yesterday, that the bill respecting the payment of Prussian indemnities was printed; and the House resolved to debate thereon, next day of session (Friday).

The Senate will sit to-day, weather permitting.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU & CO

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their
