The Oriental Drama

It is popularly believed that the last act in the great Oriental drama is about to take place...

The Brazilian Minister arrived here on Saturday, but the weather was so stormy that he could not land...

We are told that his Excellency has come here with the object of soliciting the co-operation of the Argentine Government...

Of course decline offering any opinion on the new phase which matters have taken, but it is not altogether impossible that some fine morning we shall hear of the capture of Montevideo...

The intervention of Brazil is only a necessary consequence of the Flores rebellion, and although Argentines plainly saw that such would ensue, they never properly estimated the subsequent difficulties...

Now at last we have arrived at the long talked of crisis, and what is the public feeling? The Orientals who are in Buenos Ayres and who have been the main spring of the revolution, openly avow that if the Argentines invade their country they will join the Brazilians...

To allow the Brazilians to overrun the Banda Oriental, and sweep both Flores and Colorado into the River Plate, might seem had policy, but it is better in the long run for Argentines, than to send Paterno and his men over to Colon, unless the Napoleonic system of warfare is to be adopted...

If the churches and other public buildings in the Oriental Republic were overflowing with gold and silver, or the estancieros were able to pay a war tax...

Since matters have gone on so long in the Banda Oriental without our intervention, the wisest and safest plan is to pursue the same policy, and let Orientals arrange their own affairs with Brazil...

The sad, depreciated state of our currency is regarded by many as an evil; but, after all, the olive branch in the River Plate is now a day's rotten paper dollar of Buenos Ayres...

The July Festivals

The fetos of Argentine Independence would have been unusually brilliant this year, were it not for the untoward weather, which rendered them a miserable failure...

On the afternoon of the 8th (Friday) the merry-go-rounds, "rompe-cabezas," and soaped pole caused great diversion among the little boys, and the Plaza Victoria was crowded...

Several persons had prepared for a camp excursion, but the weather-wise foretold heavy rains, as Colonia was visible on Friday...

Saturday was a wretched day, but cleared up towards evening, and the police let off a fire balloon and several rockets...

Sunday was a lovely day, and crowds of well-dressed people assembled in expectancy of Mr. Wells's balloon ascent, opposite the Policia...

We hear of only one serious accident: Dr. Peralt's coach, turning at the corner of Defensa and Victoria, came suddenly on a group of men...

As a conclusion to the season of rejoicing, Mr. Wells is to make his ascent, next Sunday; but we have grave doubts about the weather...

As a conclusion to the season of rejoicing, Mr. Wells is to make his ascent, next Sunday; but we have grave doubts about the weather...

A Model way of Parting Cattle

One of the greatest nuisances which the Buenos Ayres estanciero has to contend with, is the great difficulty which is experienced in getting what is called "a parting" from distant neighbors...

The undersigned invites all parties of the department to attend a general parting which will give in the robes of cows and mares belonging to this estancia...

Another Work on the Argentine Republic

The following is the title of a new work, written by T. J. Hutchinson, Esq., English Consul at Rosario...

The following is the title of a new work, written by T. J. Hutchinson, Esq., English Consul at Rosario...

We have much pleasure to announce in the 'Ferro-Carril,' the publication of the above work; and it affords us an opportunity to congratulate Dr. Hutchinson for his untiring efforts to advance the material interests of this country...

displayed more zeal on behalf of this country than even Argentines themselves. He has laboured, without ceasing, in his correspondence and in his communications to the various European societies...

The work which we now refer to, is the result of a tedious journey in the Gran Chaco, Santiago, Tucuman, and Cordova, and contains most important information respecting these remote territories...

The tables which the work contains have been compiled with the most admirable care. But that which reflects the greatest merit upon Dr. Hutchinson, is the fact that the author had no pecuniary views in question when writing the work...

We comply, therefore, with our duty in returning thanks to Dr. Hutchinson, in the name of this country, for his disinterested labours for the welfare of the Argentine Republic...

EDITOR'S TABLE

The ball at the Progreso was the best attended for many years. We are told that there was a regular squeeze—dancing was kept up until it commenced to rain on Saturday morning...

On Sunday the day was very fine, and the Cathedral crowded with the fashion of the city, the general belief being that Mr. Wells would go up and come down on that day...

An Irish sheep farmer just arrived from Lujan stated that he was charged at Lujan $44 instead of $38, for a ticket from that station to the Plaza Once de Septiembre...

The Provincial Government has thought proper to commute the sentence of death passed on a man named Jose Cabrera to that of ten years military service...

The rural code we hear is at last about to be published. Dr. Alsina is hard at work at it night and day. There is a story current that the distinguished Coliflor proposes abolishing all the jueces de paces in the camp...

The employees of the National Government, owing to the great deficit in the treasury, are about to suffer a reduction in their salaries. We hope that the Congress members will reduce their own stipend also...

The employees of the National Government, owing to the great deficit in the treasury, are about to suffer a reduction in their salaries. We hope that the Congress members will reduce their own stipend also...

The Breaking Association

In these days of joint-stock companies it is no wonder that the young wags of the city should associate for mutual enjoyment and risk, to pass the long winter nights without 'ennui'...

About two years ago a set of sparks calling themselves "Asociacion Cruza," carried their pranks so far as to attempt scaling the walls of the French nursery, and subsequently they shot a sereno and stabbed an alcalde...

Under these circumstances it is not only reprehensible but dangerous for a band of youths, however innocently disposed, to assault people after dark...

The House is divided into four sections; 1st. The Government (supposed to be liberal) and its straight-out supporters; 2. The partial supporters of the Government; 3. The Opposition and its straight-out supporters; 4. The partial supporters of the Opposition...

MR. WELLS' GREAT BALLOON

The daring aeronaut has already set three machines to work with the Irish linen which is to form the great trans-continental balloon.

It has been suggested that our Government might turn aviation to great profit by sending some one to treat with the Indians, who would descend in their 'toldiers' and persuade them that he had come from Heaven with regulations for their conduct.

It is wholly incredible that the Argentine bill discounters are able to carry on such a splendid business by means of the outrageous usury, which was alleged by a correspondent of the 'Nation Argentina' in Thursday's edition.

We heard it remarked the other day by one of our leading importers, that the great increase in the number of auctioneers in this city is becoming rather suspicious, and calls for increased caution on the part of foreign merchants.

We feel bound to give publicity to these remarks, since it has been proved that goods bought on credit are now commonly sent to the auctioneers a few days after delivery, and sold for cash.

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these sufferings which cannot altogether be relieved. Within little more than a twelvemonth, nearly $3,000 have been collected and expended in relief.

Contributions will be received by J H Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer Buildings, Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq., 17 Saville Row, W.; in Paris, by H O Brewer, Esq., 6 Rue Circulaire; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq., 24 Rue Lord Byron. j181m.

Article 65—From the 1st of April, 1864, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 17 chapter 5 of the Statutes of the Society, the lowest sum receivable being $200 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:

1st.—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.

2nd.—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of these particular sections.
