ARTICLES FOR THE FAIR'S EXHIBITION

It is very true that the Argentine Republic ought to be represented in the World's Fair of 1868...

At Buenos Ayres paper-dollar. Unlike the sterling of the ancient Romans, its value is unknown...

3rd. The Argentine stock. Not mining or railway stocks, which exclusively the property of foreign residents...

An Irishman, some time ago, got so heavily invested in Chacomar or Chiviloy (we forget which stock)...

3rd. San Juan silver. This article is in great demand, the market wholly insufficient to meet the requirements...

4th. The British 'Republican American'. As this splendid aerial contrivance, which has (not) made a trip across the American continent...

6th. Argentine Manufacturers. Buenos Ayres can find a match for any industrial enterprise in Europe...

6th. A model policeman. One who has never drawn his sword to a prisoner, without first using lip-ouge...

7th. The Army List. Prussians and Frenchmen will stare at the catalogue of Generals, and... The exploits of so many heroes on the glorious plains of Hussarage...

8th. A Tortois Alcade, dressed in official costume, chiripa, potrero boots and poncho. We verify that if we could get a live one over to Paris he would create greater curiosity than any of the Japanese ambassadors...

10th. An antiquated mule cap and bombilla, said to be found in the Villa Luxa... 11th. A River Plate horse... 12th. The Palliser Album...

THE PALLISER ALBUM

The second issue for this month is not inferior to any that have gone before, and each successive picture of the Album fills us with fresh admiration...

El Payador represents a gaucho gallant, singing 'decimas' to a peasant girl, who is seated beside him on the rock bench under the corridor of her rancho...

2d. The Argentine stock. Not mining or railway stocks, which exclusively the property of foreign residents, but a simple class of stock which never fluctuates, and in which, without previous speculation, a man often gets head over ears embarrassed...

7th. The Army List. Prussians and Frenchmen will stare at the catalogue of Generals, and... The exploits of so many heroes on the glorious plains of Hussarage...

we know not, but that Dr. Hermannsdorfer began to feel 'enau' and proposed taking a 'paseo' to town for the glorious celebration of American Independence...

When the Doctor was leaving the Fortin he remembered that advice of Horacio Rimun...

The Provincial Government has ordered Mr. Hunt to be paid the $30,000 for finishing the Cathedral Church. The money is to be paid in monthly instalments of $10,000...

The Felix Colon, we hear, is sailing in Uruguay. She was rather unsuccessful little boat. At the request of the merchants and stanchious owners of the Era have changed her day for sailing...

We notice that Sor Riestra is at last Governor of Buenos Ayres. We congratulate the distinguished Argentine upon his accession to the elevated post...

The provincial Government decrees have for the last few days been signed by Riestra. Sor. Saavedra, after all, was a good Governor, but Sor Riestra is a much better man...

An Irish estanciero has called our attention to the necessity of introducing into this country the same regulations respecting the branding of sheep, as is present in force in Australia...

A SHARP PRACTITIONER. Since the days of Boustinet and Steenbock, no one has been so signally successful in what is technically termed 'sharp practice' as Dr. Hermannsdorfer who left this country by last French packet...

He arrived in Buenos Ayres from the U. States, about 9 months ago, and represented himself as a native of that unfortunate country Sleswig Holstein, from which he expelled in 1648...

Foreseeing the possible occurrence of some difficulties to his medical practice in the city, although he had a diploma of a foreign college of surgeons, he went to the camp, and settled down on an American estancia at Fortin do Arco...

Bor. Celestino did all that was possible to interest us in the amours of a high priest...

Madame Mollo, in the important part of the advantage we enjoy in being able to continue upon the average of two prima donnas in the company...

Whilst in this laudatory humor, we must not forget to praise the scene-painter and property-man, and above all, the impresario for his spirited liberality in furnishing the general applause...
