The majority of people on 'Change look at the present state of affairs as very dangerous. If the project is passed, down come patacons; and again, if it is defeated in the Legislature, patacons must inevitably go up.

The great topic on 'Change to-day was the Indian in Colon. Many of our most distinguished brokers knew the gentleman in question, and if report be true, one English broker was booked for £25 by the extraordinary Capt.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MASA & CO.,
 No. 103 - Calle de Cangallo,
 BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Masa and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.
 The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.
 These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out of interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lottery, and other frivolities.
 The Bank of Masa and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine o'clock till Three p.m. on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten o'clock to Twelve o'clock, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.
 The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
 The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
 The Bank of Masa and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.
 The Bank of Masa and Co. are also permitted that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.
 Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1861.
 Pp. Masa and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.
 First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.
 Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p c) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.
 Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
 Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.
 Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

LA PLATA,
PARANA,
URUGUAY,
PARAGUAY,
UNA.

One of these Steamers will leave Liverpool for Montevideo and Buenos Ayres on the 1st of each month.
 Cargo will be received on board of the steamers 48 hours after their arrival, to be delivered in any part of the United Kingdom, or on the Continent, being forwarded by railway and steamer for account of the Company, the bills of lading being signed with these conditions.
 As the object of the Company is to extend and facilitate the existing traffic between Europe and the River Plate, the rates of freight will be very moderate.
 Specific and Parcels will be received until the day before the steamers leave.
 The Steamer URUGUAY, now in port, will be despatched hence on the 20th inst, with a full cargo, calling at Montevideo to coal only. She has a fine large cabin on deck, capable of accommodating thirty cabin passengers, to whom Captain Smith guarantees his usual liberal treatment. These Boats are excellent opportunities for families visiting Europe, more especially when consisting of ladies and children.
