

The Standard

Ficha Bibliográfica

Título:	The Standard
Variante del Título:	The Standard and the River Plate News
Número de Edición:	764
Fecha de Publicación:	1864-08-09
Lengua:	Inglés
Creador:	Edward Mulhall y Michael Muhall
Tipo de Recurso:	Periódico

HORRIBLE CASE.

Mary Morrow, a melancholy, aged, and ill-looking woman, about fifty years of age, who appeared to be labouring under some distention of the spine, was called to the witness stand on Wednesday afternoon...

EXTRAORDINARY AND ROMANTIC SUICIDE.

An inquiry was held on Monday night at the Coroners' Court, in relation to the death of Edward Henry Hawkins, aged twenty-four years...

AN AGED MOTHER DYING FROM NEGLECT AND STARVATION.

Mr. John Humphrey, Middlesex coroner, concluded last week an inquiry at the Haller's Arms Tavern, in relation to the death of Elizabeth Wright, aged eighty-two years...

THE BRIGHT WEDDING AND MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE.

The West-end season of 1864 has been generally admitted to be one of the most brilliant of modern years, considering the retirement of the Sovereign from public life...

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS ON THE MINISTERIAL MAJORITY.

It has not been long since that any mind more than the simple benevolence of our friendly intervention in the Don-German dispute...

A DECEITFUL WIFE AND A FALLEN PRIEST.

Francis George Pink, a second-hand washing man, of middle age, living in Mary-street, was charged at the Police Court on Wednesday...

ORIGINS OF THE LIEBEL.

DAMAGES ONE THOUSAND POUNDS. At the Ballroom, on Monday, the 27th inst., a case was brought on in the High Court...

THE LATE THOMAS HOOD.

The following amusing letter, written by Hood from his bed, to the editor of the Liberator, commencing with the words 'Dear Sir, I am writing to you from my bed...'...

CONVEYING DOGS BY RAILWAY.

A correspondent of the Field has the attention of sporting men and the public generally called to the fact that the railway companies are now conveying dogs by rail...

NEWFOUNDLAND A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

A curious example of justice's justice, and of the difficulties interpreted to the execution of his duties, is furnished in the following case...

ADVERTISING BY TELEGRAPH.

A gentleman from Clifton writes to the Times complaining of the nuisance of the telegraph advertisements...

THE CAREER OF A SWINDLER.

At the Doncaster borough sessions last week, George Logan, alias Captain Logan, was charged with stealing a clock of the value of £10, the property of Mr. Maxwell...

SINGULAR CHARGE AGAINST A MARRIED WOMAN.

The adjourned inquiry respecting the death of a newborn male infant was held last week before Mr. Humphreys, coroner, at the Three Oaks, High-street, Dover...

ALIBI OF MIND.

The most recent case of absence of mind is that of an officer who lately appeared in a public place in a state of total insensibility...

QUITTE TUNE.

The most ludicrous notice is written by very young and tolerably comfortable person, when a man's mood becomes really serious he has little to say for himself...

HOW A WOUNDED OFFICER WAS BROUGHT OFF.

A wounded officer of a New Hampshire regiment lay some twenty yards in front of General Harston's headquarters...

ALIBI OF MIND.

The most recent case of absence of mind is that of an officer who lately appeared in a public place in a state of total insensibility...

QUITTE TUNE.

The most ludicrous notice is written by very young and tolerably comfortable person, when a man's mood becomes really serious he has little to say for himself...

THE WIMBLEDON MEETING.

Distribution of the Prizes.

The presentation of prizes this year took place on the 27th of August... The prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

A grand honor of 100 men of the London Rifle Brigade... The prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

Lord Mayo, who said: Volunteers, ladies, and gentlemen, the council hoped that they would have had...

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

...the prizes were distributed in the presence of the Lord Mayor and a large number of gentlemen.

THE ALABAMA AND KEARAGE.

The following account by an eye witness... The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

The Alabama and Keavage were engaged in a race on the 1st of August... The Alabama was the victor.

PRAGMATICAL JOKING IN HER MAJESTY'S HOUSEHOLD BROADS.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

We are immeasurably amused... The household broads were a source of much amusement.

JARON OF FRAUD AND FORGERY.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

Against Gustave Leman, Lucien Flato, and Emilio... The jaron of fraud and forgery was a source of much concern.

DRADPOL CALAMITY IN THE HUDSON RIVER.

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

A Number of Lives Lost. The steamer Berwick, plying between Hudson and New York, on her down trip, on the Wednesday night...

THE NEWS BUDGET.

A Lady Killed in a Chaperel.—The Jennie chapel in the Rue de St. Germain, Paris, was the scene of a fatal accident. Some workmen were engaged in repairing a ladder which had been fixed in the ceiling of the building. While climbing it heavier than they expected, they let it slip from their hold and in falling it struck the head of the Comtesse de Polignac, who was attending mass. The Comtesse died at the lady died shortly after in the reception room of the establishment, to which she was conveyed. The deceased was seventy-seven years of age.

Another Attempted Murder in a Railway Carriage.—Last week, as the Rev. W. Robinson, D.D., was travelling home from Paddington, he was assailed by three followers of the Rev. Mr. St. John. The Rev. gentleman received every possible care and attention from the railway officials at the station, and he has arrived at his residence in Grosvenor place, in good health. The assault has been a severe shock to his system.

Mr. Colenso's Appeal.—It is believed that Dr. Colenso's appeal will be made to the Bishop of Capetown with a view to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Capetown will be denied, and the proceedings quashed. If the application for a declaration, made by Dr. Colenso, is granted, it would have been fatal to this plea; but it was refused by the Lord Chancellor, who pointed out that the inhibition would be a denial of the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Capetown.

The Railway over the Tyne.—Last week the opening of the Tyne Railway was celebrated in a grand manner. The Tyne Railway was opened on Friday week—a Sunday day, but it is to be hoped the new connection will satisfy the expectation, not only of the Tyne, but also of the Tyne. The Tyne Railway was opened on Friday week—a Sunday day, but it is to be hoped the new connection will satisfy the expectation, not only of the Tyne, but also of the Tyne.

The Inmate Navegacion.—The Paris Convention for the purpose of organizing an expedition to the North Pole was signed at the Convention in London. The Convention was signed at the Convention in London. The Convention was signed at the Convention in London.

The Arrest of the Heavily Loaded Humber.—Great excitement prevailed in Hull on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested. The Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

The Cause of Colonel Waugh.—At the Court of Bankruptcy, last week, the case of Colonel Waugh was heard. Colonel Waugh was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

Without Death from Cholera.—An infant, a boy named David, was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera.

An Executioner Drowned at Southampton.—A man who had been sentenced to death for a crime, was drowned at Southampton. The man was drowned at Southampton. The man was drowned at Southampton.

The Way to Get a Child Weighed.—On a beautiful Sunday, a small child by her appearance was the subject of much interest. The child was the subject of much interest. The child was the subject of much interest.

The Cause of Colonel Waugh.—At the Court of Bankruptcy, last week, the case of Colonel Waugh was heard. Colonel Waugh was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

Without Death from Cholera.—An infant, a boy named David, was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera.

The Arrest of the Heavily Loaded Humber.—Great excitement prevailed in Hull on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested. The Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

The Cause of Colonel Waugh.—At the Court of Bankruptcy, last week, the case of Colonel Waugh was heard. Colonel Waugh was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

Without Death from Cholera.—An infant, a boy named David, was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera.

The Arrest of the Heavily Loaded Humber.—Great excitement prevailed in Hull on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested. The Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

The Cause of Colonel Waugh.—At the Court of Bankruptcy, last week, the case of Colonel Waugh was heard. Colonel Waugh was arrested on Friday evening, when the Heavily Loaded Humber was arrested.

Without Death from Cholera.—An infant, a boy named David, was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera. The boy was suddenly taken ill with cholera.

The Prisoners from the Alabama.—The four officers of the Alabama, who were held at Chertsey, were released. The four officers of the Alabama, who were held at Chertsey, were released.

Hale of a Church Living.—At the London Auction Mart, Messrs. Wallis and Gurney offered for sale the church living of North Walsham. The church living of North Walsham was offered for sale. The church living of North Walsham was offered for sale.

Sea Fight Hoax.—The alleged naval engagement of Jersey is a hoax. The alleged naval engagement of Jersey is a hoax. The alleged naval engagement of Jersey is a hoax.

The Railroad Accident in Canada.—A dispute dated from St. Helens, Canada, East, June 29, 1864, published in the New York papers, gives the following details of a railway accident in Canada. The railway accident in Canada was reported in the New York papers.

A Singular Hoax.—The Journal de Rouen contains a curious hoax which has just been played off in the town of Rouen. The Journal de Rouen contains a curious hoax which has just been played off in the town of Rouen.

Death of Major General Hardinge, K.C.B.—We have to record the death of Major General Richard Hardinge, K.C.B., brother of the late Viscount Hardinge. Major General Richard Hardinge, K.C.B., brother of the late Viscount Hardinge.

Death of a Shark.—In the United States, a shark was killed in the bay of New York. The shark was killed in the bay of New York. The shark was killed in the bay of New York.

Two Boys Killed.—A fatal accident occurred last week at Llandudno, No. 4 St. in Scotland, near Wigan. A fatal accident occurred last week at Llandudno, No. 4 St. in Scotland, near Wigan.

Honours to English Surgery.—The King of the Belgians has conferred honours on several English surgeons. The King of the Belgians has conferred honours on several English surgeons.

A College Don Drowned.—An inquest has just been held, before Mr. Holden, at Mercurio, on the body of the Rev. John Dunsinville, principal of St. John's College, Oxford. An inquest has just been held, before Mr. Holden, at Mercurio, on the body of the Rev. John Dunsinville, principal of St. John's College, Oxford.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

The King of Death in Trouble.—Henry James, Esq., of the King of Death, in the County of Gloucester, was brought before Mr. Traill at the Greenwell Police-court, charged with being drunk and committing damage by wilfully breaking the door of an evening house at the residence of James Allen.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Testimonial to Captain Spoko.—A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General. A testimonial, consisting of two hundred names, was presented to Captain Spoko, who was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

Murder and Suicide.—John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle. John Vauder, a German sugar-baker, was brought up on Friday, before the magistrate at New South Wales, charged with the murder of Ann Fleming, a woman of the town, whom the prisoner had killed by throwing her from the window of the second floor of the house No. 70, Lambton street, at Newcastle.

DEATH OF MAJOR GENERAL STUART.

The following notice of the late hero of the gallant and distinguished Confederate soldier, Major-General J. B. Stuart, is from the Richmond Examiner—

Major-General J. B. Stuart, the model of a Virginia cavalier and a brilliant soldier, whose name was a household word in the army and navy, and whose name was a household word in the Confederacy...

As a soldier, he was a model of a Virginia cavalier and a brilliant soldier, whose name was a household word in the army and navy...

FOURTEEN MEN MURDERED BY INDIANS.

The Victoria (Vancouver's Island) Evening Express says:—

The arrival of the steamer Emily Harris, which came in this morning from Newauyas, has brought intelligence of the most atrocious nature that it has yet been the province of a journal in this colony to record.

SINGULAR CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY TO DERAUD.

The Times' Dublin correspondent gives the following account of a case which has recently been brought before the Court of Exchequer, and deserves to be noticed.

THE PERILS OF RAILWAY TRAVELLING.

At the Alderhol Petty Sessions, on Monday, before Captain Newcome and a full bench of magistrates, appeared a railway carrier, who had been charged with the offence of having allowed a young woman named...

The court was densely crowded by a number of highly respectable persons, many of whom were relatives of the parties.

Mr. T. Best, superintendent of police at Waterloo Station, appeared to prosecute on behalf of the North Western Railway Company, and Mr. H. E. Croxall, solicitor, defended the prisoner.

HOSTILITIES IN AMERICA.

A declaration from the Society for Obtaining Cession of Hostilities in America, waited on Lord Palmerston at his official residence for the purpose of presenting to his Majesty's Government...

THE WAR IN AMERICA.

The President and the War. The latest accounts from America report that Lincoln is still sanguine of the success of General Grant.

THE EARL OF DUCHAN IN THE DIVORCE COURT.

The case of Wally v. Wally and Earl Duchan was brought before the Judge Ordinary in the London Court of Probate and Divorce last week.

RIOT AT LEIPESTER.

Destruction of Mr. Coxwell's Ballroom. A grand fireworks' fire lately took place on the Leicester racecourse.

HOSTILITIES IN AMERICA.

A declaration from the Society for Obtaining Cession of Hostilities in America, waited on Lord Palmerston at his official residence for the purpose of presenting to his Majesty's Government...

The court was densely crowded by a number of highly respectable persons, many of whom were relatives of the parties.

Mr. T. Best, superintendent of police at Waterloo Station, appeared to prosecute on behalf of the North Western Railway Company, and Mr. H. E. Croxall, solicitor, defended the prisoner.

THE WAR IN AMERICA.

The President and the War. The latest accounts from America report that Lincoln is still sanguine of the success of General Grant.

THE EARL OF DUCHAN IN THE DIVORCE COURT.

The case of Wally v. Wally and Earl Duchan was brought before the Judge Ordinary in the London Court of Probate and Divorce last week.

RIOT AT LEIPESTER.

Destruction of Mr. Coxwell's Ballroom. A grand fireworks' fire lately took place on the Leicester racecourse.

THE WAR IN AMERICA.

The President and the War. The latest accounts from America report that Lincoln is still sanguine of the success of General Grant.

The court was densely crowded by a number of highly respectable persons, many of whom were relatives of the parties.

Mr. T. Best, superintendent of police at Waterloo Station, appeared to prosecute on behalf of the North Western Railway Company, and Mr. H. E. Croxall, solicitor, defended the prisoner.

THE EARL OF DUCHAN IN THE DIVORCE COURT.

The case of Wally v. Wally and Earl Duchan was brought before the Judge Ordinary in the London Court of Probate and Divorce last week.

RIOT AT LEIPESTER.

Destruction of Mr. Coxwell's Ballroom. A grand fireworks' fire lately took place on the Leicester racecourse.

THE EARL OF DUCHAN IN THE DIVORCE COURT.

The case of Wally v. Wally and Earl Duchan was brought before the Judge Ordinary in the London Court of Probate and Divorce last week.

The court was densely crowded by a number of highly respectable persons, many of whom were relatives of the parties.

Mr. T. Best, superintendent of police at Waterloo Station, appeared to prosecute on behalf of the North Western Railway Company, and Mr. H. E. Croxall, solicitor, defended the prisoner.

RIOT AT LEIPESTER.

Destruction of Mr. Coxwell's Ballroom. A grand fireworks' fire lately took place on the Leicester racecourse.

RIOT AT LEIPESTER.

Destruction of Mr. Coxwell's Ballroom. A grand fireworks' fire lately took place on the Leicester racecourse.

The court was densely crowded by a number of highly respectable persons, many of whom were relatives of the parties.

Mr. T. Best, superintendent of police at Waterloo Station, appeared to prosecute on behalf of the North Western Railway Company, and Mr. H. E. Croxall, solicitor, defended the prisoner.

THE AUSTRIAN INTERLUDE.

Mr. Makins, barrister, waited upon Mr. Tyrwhitt at Marlborough-street, Police-office, to ask him advice under the following circumstances:

Mr. Makins said that on the 30th of May last, the widow of a lieutenant-colonel expired at her residence in Gloucester-terrace, Hyde-park.

CONVICTION OF THE ADVERTISING AGENTS.

At the Central Criminal Court, last week, John Magarino, thirty-two years of age, William Houghton, thirty-two, and Edward Holton, thirty-two, were indicted for unlawfully conspiring together to defraud the public.

CONVICTION OF THE ADVERTISING AGENTS.

At the Central Criminal Court, last week, John Magarino, thirty-two years of age, William Houghton, thirty-two, and Edward Holton, thirty-two, were indicted for unlawfully conspiring together to defraud the public.

CONVICTION OF THE ADVERTISING AGENTS.

At the Central Criminal Court, last week, John Magarino, thirty-two years of age, William Houghton, thirty-two, and Edward Holton, thirty-two, were indicted for unlawfully conspiring together to defraud the public.

The court was densely crowded by a number of highly respectable persons, many of whom were relatives of the parties.

Mr. T. Best, superintendent of police at Waterloo Station, appeared to prosecute on behalf of the North Western Railway Company, and Mr. H. E. Croxall, solicitor, defended the prisoner.

CONVICTION OF THE ADVERTISING AGENTS.

At the Central Criminal Court, last week, John Magarino, thirty-two years of age, William Houghton, thirty-two, and Edward Holton, thirty-two, were indicted for unlawfully conspiring together to defraud the public.